Jacksonville, Oct. 20, 1862.

Semi-Weekly Sentinel.

BY OVERLAND TELEGRAPH.

the entire force of Vicksburg, under Pemberton, was defeated, with the loss of 29 pieces of artillery, and 4,600 men. On the 17th, we defeated the same force, at Big Black River Bridge, with a loss of 2,000 men and 17 pieces of artillery. On the 18th, closely invested Vicksburg, and today Gen. Steele carried the rifle pits north of the city. The right of the army rests on the Mississippi, above Vicksburg.,
Signed John a Rawlins.

I learn further, that there are from 10,000 to 20,000 men at Vicksburg; that Pemberton lost nearly all his field artillery, and that the cannonading closed about three o'clock in the afternoon of the 20th, and General Grant has probably captured the city.
Signed S. A. Harbit, Maj. Gen.

New York, 23d.—A letter from the Army of the Potomac, dated 21st, says the rebels are in excellent condition. They have a movement on foot to cross the river at this point, or else at Kelley's Ford, on the Rappahannock, driving in our forces in that direction, and thus compel our army to change its base. It is said General Lee feels able to crush our army in its present position, and easily drive us into the defenses around Washington, or destroy and capture the army altogether. He will find himself much mistaken.

The railroad to Richmond is in complete running order, and large numbers of officers are traveling over, on furloughs.

The World's dispatch repeats the assertion that Hooker is falling back upon Washington, but nothing is known as to the cause or design of this unexpected movement.

A Louisville telegram says the rebels are already preparing to invade Kentucky, about the 1st of June.

A petition is in circulation in this city and other parts of the State, representing that the sacred rights of the citizens, as guaranteed in the Constitution, has been violated by the arbitrary arrest, illegal trial, and inhuman imprisonment of Val-lendingham. Therefore, they demand of the President of the United States his unconditional and immediate release.

Tuesday Night's Dispatch.

Fortress Monroe, May 24th.—The Richmond dispatches of 23d, contains the following:

Mobile, May 21st.—In the fight of Saturday 16th, at Banker's creek, the rebels lost thirty pieces of artillery, which were spiked and abandoned. On Sunday the Federals advanced to take Big Black bridge, but were repulsed; they then crossed higher up, and took us in the rear, when the bridge was burned and the works abandoned. Our loss is heavy. Vicksburg is clearly besieged, and the enemy are closing in on us on all sides.

New York, May 24th.—The Herald's Washington special says, advices from Grant have been received by the President to-night, with details of his proceedings up to the 20th. He had fought five battles, captured 64 guns, and taken 9,400 prisoners.

The Montgomery Advertiser of the 18th, says, in relation to the fight at Jackson: Our corps commanded by Johnson, were finally driven back to Jackson, and fought the enemy through the streets, till overpowered by greatly superior numbers they were compelled to evacuate the city. The enemy's force amounted to 20,000 or 30,000. Ours was only 9,000. Johnson then retreated to Canton. The enemy's cavalry was yesterday at Brandon, on the southern road, twenty miles on this side of Jackson, where they had a force to protect the road.

Washington, May 24th.—The following official details of the battle of Black river, have been received: "Vicksburg, 20th.—Decisive victory over rebels under Pemberton, on Jackson and Vicksburg road, Banker's creek Saturday 16th. Pemberton had a most admirable position on a wooded hill, over which the road passes. He had about 25,000 men. The battle began at 11 o'clock A. M. The brunt of the fighting was by Harney's division, McPherson's corps, and also by Logan's and Crocker's divisions. McPherson's and Harney's corps attacked the hill. They held Grant's part of it till two o'clock P. M., when having lost 1,600 men, they were succeeded by Booner and Holmes' brigade of Crocker's division, by which the conflict was ended in that part of the field. Booner lost 500 men. Logan operated on the right of the direct retreat, so that he was compelled to escape by his right flank through the woods. Logan lost 400 killed and wounded. We took about 2,000 prisoners. On the 17th, advancing to Big Black, we fought Pemberton again, at the bridge, where we captured 3,000 prisoners more. He fought in rifle pits, protected by a difficult bayou, full of abatis. Lawler's brigade of McLenard's corps, charged the rifle pits magnificently, and took more prisoners than their own number. Pemberton burned his bridge and retreated to Vicksburg with only three cannon.

The Enquirer of the 20th, has the following in relation to Vicksburg: If some happy conduct be not made by the forces under Pemberton and Johnson the heroic city may possibly fall.

The Savannah Republican of the 18th expresses apprehension of another invasion of Georgia. It says our dispatches announces the marching of 7,000 or 8,000 Yankees upon Rome in this State, no particulars are given of their whereabouts, and the only assurance was that preparations were being made to repel them.

The Charleston Dispatch of the 21st says the steamer Nancemond with 150 bales of cotton for Nassau, struck a snag and is supposed to be a wreck.

New York, May 24th.—A Port Royal letter reports the capture of sloops Seesch and Roderham, taken with cotton off Charleston on the night of the 16th. A schooner and a steamer escaped out at that time.

The Herald states that a match for a prize fight has been agreed on between Tom Hyer and Joe Cuburn, for $10,000 to come off in six months. The forfeit money has been deposited, and will be put up Monday.

Gen. Grant arrived before the town of Vicksburg on the evening of the 18th, and finds it closely invested. He had open lines of supplies via Chicasso, having cut the town off from Haines Bluff, which is abandoned by the enemy. There was sharp fighting throughout yesterday. Steele now holds Upper Bluff and the enemy's upper water batteries. Sherman's corps lost yesterday 500 killed and wounded. McPherson who holds the center suffered but a small loss, as did McClernand who holds the left. The gun-boats kept the enemy on the alert all night. Probably the town will be carried to-day. There are from 15,000 to 20,000 of the enemy's at Vicksburg.

Washington, May 24th.—At 11 o'clock A. M. to-day the President received the following telegram announcing that Vicksburg is ours.

Cleveland, May 24th.—A dispatch from Mr. Fuller manager of the telegraph at Memphis, says the stars and stripes float over Vicksburg. The victory is complete. I have held this message here to get confirmation, but the line has been interrupted, and I now give it to you.
