

From Coquille River.

COQUILLE RIVER, Coos Co., Ogn., July 8, 1863.

Mr. Editor:—As the readers of your interesting and loyal journal may desire to hear of the patriotic demonstrations of the good people of Coos county, I take much pleasure in saying, that the celebration in commemoration of the returning anniversary of the freedom of our nation, passed off very creditably to themselves and the noble cause which they so ardently advocate. The Orators of the Day, as before remarked in your paper, were B. Herman and Thos. D. Winchester, Esqs. The former named speaker, after commenting upon the origin and cause of the war of Independence, and our past happy and prosperous condition as a nation, then gave a description of the first rise of secession, with its pernicious effects upon our own dearly loved country, and finally closed by urging them to bear in mind the dying injunctions of their patriot sires, to use their united influence for their struggling land, and ever to advocate the preservation of our national Union, as the basis of their future happiness and prosperity as a united people. The second speaker commenced by adverting to the Charleston Convention as the direct birth of the horrid features of disintegration, and by warning his audience never to desert their Government, the palladium of their liberties, but to cling to it with undying attachment, and after passing an eloquent eulogy upon the patriots in the field, alluded in very severe language to those sympathizing with traitors in arms, and closed by addressing his remarks to the youth in his presence, whom he admonished to beware of the land-marks set for their guidance, and to preserve fresh in their hearts the everlasting words of Washington and his illustrious compeers.

Both speeches were significant and to the point, and received the applause of the audience—a sure mark of their indorsement. The ceremonies of the day closed with the ascension of a very handsome balloon.

So closed the Fourth of July in Coos county. A UNION ADVOCATE.

The following is the closing paragraph of an eloquent and patriotic speech, recently delivered by Miss Dickenson, in Philadelphia:

Men of the North, are you strong enough to die? Do you recognize the immensity of this contest so that you are ready to suffer until suffering shall pass into death? Remember Lyon, fighting so long as there was a hand to grasp a rifle, wield a sword or point a cannon, and who believed that the cause was worth dying for as long as there was a life to be offered up. Do you see through the smoke and flame of this contest Winthrop, young and brave, a noble, manly life, cut away! Ellsworth, young and brave, flashing out for a moment, the flag twisted about him, and then dripping with his blood? Remember Baker, marching in blood and flame against Ball's Bluff, a living monument to all coming time of fame, honor and self-sacrifice. And South Carolina, sacred with Mitchell's dying face looking out from it. [Applause.] Men, too, falling thick as the dust at Antietam, and Berry, rushing forward and falling at Chancellorsville, besides two hundred thousand other lives, as brave, as strong, as earnest, unrecorded, offered up. The long line passes in solemn array, and lifting up its face to God cries out, "Avenge, avenge, avenge us, O Lord God!" and dropping his hand on you he waits for your answer. Men of the North! your weak regret is waste of years. Arise and pay to freedom and to them the debt by following where they led the way. [Applause.]

THE MISSOURI GUERRILLAS.—The vicinity of Lebanon, Laclede county (Mo.), has lately been the scene of some horrible affairs. Says the Atlas correspondent: "The farmers having entrapped a band of horse-thieves some time ago, formed themselves into a band of Union Rangers, searched out the guerrillas and killed eight of them in one night. Since then the guerrillas have been making war on the farmers, as well as on the Union troops, and the latter, retaliating, the result has been that whenever a collision has occurred, no prisoners have been taken, or wounded men left on the field. The Union troops have killed probably twenty straggling bushwhackers, within a few weeks, and in this indiscriminate slaughter, it is not at all improbable that innocent blood has been shed. On the 30th ult., guerrillas entered the house of Mr. Wilson, eight miles from Lebanon, and murdered him in his bed. They went to the house of one Sherwood, took him out of his bed, tied him to a tree and then shot him several times. The excitement caused by these outrages is intense, and the usual cultivation of the soil has been suspended, while the farmers are hunting guerrillas. The same troublous state of affairs prevails to less extent in some of the North Missouri counties."

DR. L. J. CZAPKAY'S Private Medical and Surgical Institute, SACRAMENTO STREET, Below Montgomery, opposite Pacific Mail S. S. Co.'s office, San Francisco. Established in 1854, for the Permanent Cure of all Private and Chronic Diseases, AND THE SUPPRESSION OF QUACKERY.

Attending and Resident Physician, DR. L. J. CZAPKAY, M. D., Late in the Hungarian Revolutionary War, Chief Physician to the 20th Regiment of Honvéd; Chief Surgeon to the Military Hospital of Pest, Hungary; the late Lecturer on Diseases of the Genito-Urinary Organs, and Diseases of Women and Children, and Lecturer, Member of the Philadelphia College of Medicine. Particular attention paid to the treatment of Diseases of Women and Children. Office hours—from 9 a. m. to 9 p. m. Communications strictly confidential. Permanent cure guaranteed or no pay. Consultations, by letter or otherwise, FREE. Address, DR. L. J. CZAPKAY, San Francisco.

To the Afflicted. Of all diseases, the first great cause is SELF-ABUSE, the first great cause is SELF-ABUSE, the first great cause is SELF-ABUSE.

SUFFER NOT WHEN A CURE IS GUARANTEED in all Secret Diseases. Self-abuse, nervous debility, syphilis in all its stages, gleet, gravel, diabetes, diseases of the kidneys and bladder, mercurial rheumatism, scrofula, pains in the bones and ankles, diseases of the lungs, throat, nose and eyes, ulcers upon the body or limbs, cancer, dropsy, epistaxis, St. Vitus' dance, and all diseases arising from a derangement of the sexual organs, such as nervous trembling, loss of memory, loss of power, general weakness, dimness of vision, with peculiar spots appearing before the eyes, loss of sight, wakefulness, dyspepsia, liver diseases, eruptions upon the face, pain in the back and head, female irregularities, and all improper discharges of both sexes. It matters not from what cause the disease originated, however long standing or obstinate the case, recovery is certain, and in a shorter time than a permanent cure can be effected by any other treatment, even if the disease has defied the skill of eminent physicians, and resisted all their means of cure. The medicines prescribed are pleasant and without odor, entirely vegetable, causing no sickness, and free from mercury and loban. During twenty years' practice in Europe, the Atlantic States and California, I have rescued from the jaws of death many thousands who, in the last stages of the above mentioned diseases, had been given up to die by their physicians; which warrant me in promising to the afflicted, who may place themselves under my care, a perfect and speedy cure. Private diseases are the greatest enemies to health, as they are the first cause of consumption, scrofula and many other diseases, and should be a terror to the human family. A permanent cure is scarcely ever effected, a majority of the cases falling into the hands of incompetent persons, who not only fail to cure the disease, but ruin the constitution, filling the system with mercury, which, with the disease, hastens the sufferer into a rapid consumption. But should the disease and treatment not cause death speedily, and the victim wastes away, the disease is entailed upon the children, who are born with feeble constitutions, and the current of life corrupted by a virus which betrays itself in scrofula, fetter, ulcers, eruptions, and other affections of the skin, eyes, throat and lungs, entailing upon them a brief existence of suffering, and consigning them to an early grave. SELF-ABUSE is another formidable enemy to health, for nothing else in the dread catalogue of diseases causes so destructive a drain upon the system, drawing its thousands of victims, through a few years of suffering, to an untimely grave. It destroys the nervous system, rapidly wastes away the energies of life, causes mental derangement, prevents the proper development of the system, disqualifies for marriage, society, business, and all earthly happiness, and leaves the sufferer wretched in body and mind, predisposed to consumption and a train of evils more to be dreaded than death itself. With the fullest confidence, I assure the unfortunate victim of self-abuse that a permanent and speedy cure can be effected, and, with the abandonment of all vicious practices, my patient can be restored to robust and vigorous health. Irregularities, and all diseases of males and females are treated on principles established by twenty years' practice, and sanctioned by thousands of the most remarkable cures. Medicines, with full directions, sent to any part of the State, Oregon, Nevada and Washington Territories, by patients communicating their symptoms by letter. Business correspondence strictly confidential. Address, L. J. CZAPKAY, M. D., San Francisco. The Doctor offers free consultation, and asks no remuneration unless he effects a cure. [June 24th]
