

BY CONTINENTAL TELEGRAPH.

By this Evening's Stage. The Yreka telegraph operator says this is the only dispatch received in four days just past:

New York 17.—The Mayor has issued a proclamation this afternoon, announcing the suppression of the riot, but recommends citizens to arm themselves to protect their property. 30 more rioters were killed last night. Gen. Wool has been relieved of his command, and Gen. Cassidy appointed. Draft temporarily suspended.

Official dispatches to Hallack from Charleston says that on July 10th, after a 3 hours engagement on the south end of the Island, all the strong holds on that part were taken. Our loss is about 150 killed wounded and missing. Enemies, about 200.

Washington, 18.—Definite information of Lee's whereabouts cannot be obtained. Officers just arrived from Washington state that Gen. Gregg crossed Falling Waters and was cut off for 6 hours, but got clear and captured a large number of prisoners.

Memphis, 15th.—Col. Hatche's 2d cavalry pursued the rebels north of the Memphis and Charleston road, encountered a rebel force 2,000. They crossed Deer Creek near Jackson, Tenn. Hatche gained possession of the bridge, after a severe fight, and charged on the rebels, driving them through Jackson and taking possession of the place. Our loss is 12 killed and wounded.

Cincinnati, 19th.—Morgan's forces were at Chester last night, and broke up and scattered this morning. A party of 150 attempted to cross the river at Buffington when they were attacked by gunboats and all drown. Another party of 500 under Dick Morgan were captured by Gen. Hobson. Another party of 300 were captured Shucklesford. We have taken 1,000 prisoners. Our loss does not exceed 10 killed and 15 wounded.

Chicago, 17th.—The Army of the Potomac is in the vicinity of Berlin, Md. Some days will be spent retraining men and horses. Lee is reported rushing rapidly to Calpepper.

New York, 17th.—Report says the rebel army is massed between Williamsport and Martinsburg, on the road to Winchester. Their trains are moving down the valley.

Released officers say that Lee will not make another stand this side of Richmond. Philadelphia, 20.—Charleston is reported to have been evacuated and burned. Not credited.

A REBEL BOAST COME TO NAUGHT.—A Richmond paper says Gen. Pemberton made the following speech to his army, after he had been driven within his entrenchments:

"You have heard that I was incompetent and a traitor, and that it was my intention to sell Vicksburg. Follow me, and you will see the cost at which I will sell Vicksburg. When the last pound of beef, bacon and flour, the last grain of corn, the last cow, and hog, and horse, and dog, shall have been consumed, and the last man shall have perished in the trenches, then, and only then, will I sell Vicksburg."

Well, Pemberton and his gallant men did fight until they were on the verge of famine, and he did not "sell" Vicksburg, but surrendered it when there were eighteen or twenty thousand men who had not yet "perished in the trenches." We do not repeat Pemberton's little speech for the purpose of exalting over a brave foe in defeat, but to show that the rebels are after all merely human, and that this talk of the last man dying in the last ditch is simply hush. Brave men in all countries fight as long as there is hope, but never immolate themselves uselessly except in desperate cases, and where surrender would be equivalent to death or dishonor. As it was with the gallant defenders of Vicksburg, so will it be with the South. It will yield with a good grace when yield it must, and find cause for gladness in the defeat of its unholy object.—Appeal.

AN IMPRESSIVE SCENE.—At a great Union meeting held in Chicago lately a most thrilling and impressive scene occurred. Williams Kellogg, of Peoria, was addressing the vast crowd with his accustomed eloquence, in behalf of supporting the Government. Suddenly pausing, he exclaimed:

"Would that I could lift to Heaven the hands of those thousands which I see before me, and have an oath registered there, that never, never, while a rebel lives, or a foot of treasonable soil is to be found, shall this war cease; and that it shall be prosecuted with all the vigor and with all the terrible means at our disposal, until the entire Union shall be restored."

"Administer it?" "Administer it!"—shouted scores of voices. "Administer it!"—swelled upon the air, as thousands took up the cry. "Then lift up your hands," said Judge Kellogg, and, bending down, he ran his eye over the vast crowd. "I can see no Copperheads," he shouted; "these uplifted hands are those of freemen—patriots, all." And amidst the most impressive silence he administered the oath, and thousands of voices mingled in one mighty response—"We swear it!"

No News.—From Saturday night up to last evening we have received no telegraphic news. We suppose the lightning has destroyed portions of the line on the Plains.

MAXIMS OF THE DEMOCRACY.—"Resistance to the Government is obedience to God!" "Blessed are the peace makers" of the North, who assist the South in tearing the Government to pieces. Infinite and infernal "vigilance is the price of" office in the Democratic party. "Free speech, free press" and free liquor, are necessary to the success of the glorious Democracy.

Devoted to the destruction of the Union from the beginning, we will not falter now in this the hour of our sorest trial. The Constitution as we intend to amend it, shall be our guide.

If the Democracy were in power, the President and his Cabinet should constitute a Republican Government.

President Lincoln has always been an Abolitionist, and the people of the North will not fight.

When good Democrats die, their bodies go to Heaven and their souls to Jeff Davis.

DEATH TO GOPHERS.—A correspondent of the Prairie Farmer gets rid of gophers in this wise:

"Take a potatoe and make an opening in the side of it, and insert strychnine the size of a grain of barley, find the gopher's hole, where he has lately been at work, and put the potatoe into the hole, and cover all up. Mr. Gopher will help himself to the potatoe and strychnine, and he has his own grave already dug."

STRANGE MARRIAGE.—The Granite State News states that the oldest of the three brothers, residing in Moltonboro, N. H., married quite a young girl; his next youngest brother married the girl's mother; and the youngest took for his wife the grandmother. Cupid, in our times, seldom brings about such a curious union of two families.

VALLANDIGHAM.—The Fusion Democrats of Placer cheered Vallandigham in their Convention, hearing of which, says the Courier, a German remarked:

"Vallandigham ist ein schwartzkopf—und his crimes smelt worse to himmel than schwitzerkaas. He was a Herr Gott's himmel-sacrament, and portzausend donner wetter. Dan wast alles."

He was right, too. Exactly our opinion.

COST OF LIVING IN WASHOE.—A correspondent of the Bulletin says that in Washoe "a single man can live respectably for about $100 a month. It will cost double that amount for a couple. Then for each little one add thirty per cent., and you have about the cost of living in Virginia."

THE TRAITORS RECORD.—It is contemplated to publish a weekly record of the names of all the unconstitutional peace men and secession sympathizers, in the North, to be compiled subsequently in alphabetical order for easy reference, after the war for the Union is over. The loyal people of the North intend that the present infamous proslavery and monarchical rebellion shall be put down, and they will want some handy means of knowing, when the country is restored to peace and prosperity through the extirpation of the rebels, who the home traitors were. The first number of this important record will probably be issued soon.—Wilkes' Spirit.

How many of the sparks at which great fires have been kindled, even now enlightening and warming the world, have been struck from the hearts and brains of men counted fools and fanatics in their own generation!

A MISTAKE.—Jeff Davis in a speech made at Jackson, Tennessee, during the Winter of 1860-'61, said: "If war should result from secession, it will not be our fields that will bear witness to its ravages, but those of the North." By this time he has probably discovered that he erred a little in that statement.

Lawyers mouths are like turnpike gates—never opened except for pay.

DR. L. J. CZAPKAY'S Private Medical and Surgical Institute, SACRAMENTO STREET, Below Montgomery, opposite Pacific Mail S. S. Co.'s office, San Francisco.

Established in 1854, for the Permanent Cure of all Private and Chronic Diseases, AND THE SUPPRESSION OF QUACKERY.

Attending and Resident Physician, DR. L. J. CZAPKAY, M. D., late in the Hungarian Revolutionary War; Chief Physician to the 20th Regiment of Honveds; Chief Surgeon to the Military Hospital of Pesth, Hungary; the late Lecturer on Diseases of the Genito-Urinary Organs, and Diseases of Women and Children, and Honorary Member of the Philadelphia College of Medicine.

Particular attention paid to the treatment of Diseases of Women and Children. Office hours—from 9 a. m. to 9 p. m. Communications strictly confidential. Permanent cure guaranteed or no pay. Consultations, by letter or otherwise, FREE. Address, DR. L. J. CZAPKAY, San Francisco.

To the Afflicted. Of all diseases, the first great cause Springs from neglect of Nature's laws.

SUFFER NOT WHEN A CURE IS GUARANTEED IN ALL Secret Diseases. Self-abuse, nervous debility, syphilis in all its stages, stricture, gonorrhea, gonorrhoea, diseases of the kidneys and bladder, mercurial rheumatism, scrofula, pains in the bones and ankles, diseases of the lungs, throat, nose and eyes, ulcers upon the body or limbs, cancer, dropsy, epileptic fits, St. Vitus' dance, and all diseases arising from a derangement of the sexual organs, such as nervous trembling, loss of memory, loss of power, general weakness, dimness of vision, with peculiar spots appearing before the eyes, loss of sight, wakefulness, dyspepsia, liver disease, eruptions upon the face, pain in the back and head, female irregularities, and all improper discharges of both sexes. It matters not from what cause the disease originated, however long standing or obstinate the case, recovery is certain, and in a shorter time than a permanent cure can be effected by any other treatment, even after the disease has defied the skill of eminent physicians, and resisted all their means of cure. The medicines prescribed are pleasant and without odor, entirely vegetable, causing no sickness, and free from mercury and balsam. During twenty years' practice in Europe, the Atlantic States and California, I have rescued from the jaws of death many thousands who, in the last stages of the above mentioned diseases, had been given up to die by their physicians; which warrant me in promising to the afflicted, who may place themselves under my care, a perfect and speedy cure. Private diseases are the greatest enemies to health, as they are the first cause of consumption, scrofula, and many other diseases, and should be a terror to the human family. A permanent cure is scarcely ever effected, a majority of the cases falling into the hands of incompetent persons, who not only fail to cure the disease, but ruin the constitution, filling the system with mercury, which, with the disease, hastens the sufferer into a rapid consumption. But should the disease and treatment not cause death speedily, and the victim marries, the disease is entailed upon the children, who are born with feeble constitutions, and the current of life corrupted by a virus which betrays itself in scrofula, tetter, ulcers, eruptions, and other affections of the skin, eyes, throat and lungs, entailing upon them a brief existence of suffering, and consigning them to an early grave.

SELF-ABUSE is another formidable enemy to health, for nothing else in the dread catalogue of diseases causes so destructive a drain upon the system, drawing its thousands of victims, through a few years of suffering to an untimely grave. It destroys the nervous system, rapidly wastes away the energies of life, causes mental derangement, prevents the proper development of the system, disqualifies for marriage, society, business, and all earthly happiness, and leaves the sufferer wrecked in body and mind, predisposed to consumption and a train of evils more to be dreaded than death itself. With the fullest confidence, I assure the unfortunate victim of self-abuse that a permanent and speedy cure can be effected, and, with the abandonment of ruinous practices, my patient can be restored to robust and vigorous health. Irregularities and all diseases of males and females are treated on principles established by twenty years practice, and sanctioned by thousands of the most remarkable cures. Medicines, with full directions, sent to any part of the State, Oregon, Nevada and Washington Territories, by patients communicating their symptoms by letter. Business correspondence strictly confidential. Address, DR. L. J. CZAPKAY, M. D., San Francisco. The Doctor offers free consultation, and asks no remuneration unless he effects a cure. je20m3p
