

Semi-Weekly Sentinel.

THE NEWS.—Since our last issue we have had no news of great battles, or decisive successes or defeats. Not a line has been received from the Potomac Army, which silence may be ominous of important movements which require secrecy. The old stereotyped phrase—"The siege of Vicksburg is progressing favorably," may now be applied to Charleston. The Government having accepted the services of the negroes, the President has justly ordered that they must be protected. "A gleam of Peace" is seen in the reconstruction movement mentioned by a North Carolina Journal. It is said that ex-Governor Pickens, who owns, or did own more slaves than any other man in the Southern Confederacy, for refusing to submit to Jeff Davis' tyranny, has been sent to the Libby prison.

Tuesday evening, no dispatch.

LATEST.

JACKSONVILLE, 5th.—A dispatch rec'd by this evening's stage says:

"The Raleigh Standard denounces Jeff Davis as a repudiator in whom no confidence can be placed, and whose efforts to establish a Southern Confederacy will be a failure. The Richmond 'Enquirer' calls upon Davis to suppress the 'Standard' and the Supreme Court of N. C. The 'Standard' replies that Gov. Vance will stand by the Supreme Court and the 'Standard,' and also that if Davis attempts to use physical force to suppress the paper, he will be met by the same, and revolution in the State will be the result.

The paper says that North Carolina has furnished 95,000 soldiers for a causeless war, 40,000 of whom have been killed or wounded. It urges that the State should send a delegation to Washington immediately to see what terms of peace can be obtained."

Bufo's cavalry, with infantry support, had a fierce fight with Stuart's cavalry, in the neighborhood of Culpepper. Losses not stated. Lee's headquarters are at Strasburg. Savannah is deserted of troops. The draft in New England is a failure, owing to the great number of exemptions. In the week preceding the 3d, in S. F., $10,000,000 in legal tenders were converted into bonds. Gold in N. Y. on the 3d, 28c.

Between Cape Girardeau and Bloomfield, Mo., on the 1st, a train of 100 wagons were captured and destroyed by guerrillas. But two white men of the escort escaped.

GRANT AND PEMBERTON.—A correspondent of the S. F. Bulletin gives the following description of the personal interview between Grant and Pemberton, in which the terms of the surrender of Vicksburg were agreed upon:

Gen. Grant came slowly to the place of rendezvous, smoking his cigar, and apparently the only unexcited person in the vast assemblage. What the General felt within could only be imagined. His stoical face did not reveal a clue to it. As Pemberton and Grant drew near to each other, both, as though involuntarily, passed, perhaps waiting each the first word from the other. This slight embarrassment was brought to a close by Colonel Montgomery, who stepped forward and formally introduced the two chieftains. They shook hands—Pemberton apparently a little disconcerted by the complacency of his opponent.

They were meeting thus after a long siege, in which they had been pitted against each other, had been lieutenants in the same command in many a hard fought battle in Mexico, hence were previously known to each other. Seldom do such meetings occur outside the field of romance. Pemberton's first remark was that he had been present when different fortresses had surrendered in the war with Mexico. In all these the enemy granted terms and conditions. He thought his army as well entitled to these favors as a foreign foe. Gen. Grant listened and then proposed a private conversation of a few moments. It struck Pemberton favorably, and the two Generals stepped aside. What was said during that conference, can only be judged from results, after a little more than an hour, terms were agreed upon, and the Confederates surrendered. It was arranged that the Federal force should enter at 10 A. M. next day—the Fourth of July.

The commission appointed by the President to inquire into the operations of the Army of the Ohio, in Tennessee and Kentucky, has closed its proceedings at Cincinnati, after a session of over five months. The pile of manuscript testimony which accumulated during the investigation is over two feet in height, all of which has been sent to the President to read over carefully, in order to enable him to give his decision. It required twenty-seven pages of cap paper to write the answer of one of the witnesses to a simple question.

B Scotchman, who had put up at an inn, was asked in the morning how he had slept. "Troth man," replied he, "nae very weel either, but I was muckle better off than the bugs, for deil a uno o' them closed an e'e'the hale nicht."

AFFIDAVITS MUST BE STAMPED.—A letter having been addressed to the Commissioner of Internal Revenue, inquiring whether affidavits were held to be subject to a stamp duty of five cents, the same as certificates, he replied as follows:

Treasury Department, May 6th, 1863.
—Sir: Your letter of the 5th inst. has been received. In reply thereto, I have the honor to state that the jurist of an affidavit is subject to a stamp duty of five cents, except when the same is a part of an acknowledgment of a deed, or other instrument in writing.

Either the person issuing or the person receiving an unstamped instrument, may subsequently affix and cancel the required revenue stamp.

In no case will an instrument not duly stamped be received in court. On and after June 1st 1863, every instrument issued without being duly stamped will be declared invalid and of no effect.

HEIMSTREET'S Inimitable Hair Restorative. IT IS NOT A DYE.

But restores gray hair to its original color, by supplying the capillary tubes with natural sustenance, impaired by age or disease. All instantaneous dyes are composed of lunar caustic, destroying the vitality and beauty of the hair, and afford of themselves no dressing. Heimstreet's inimitable coloring not only restores hair to its natural color by an easy process, but gives the hair a Luxuriant Beauty, promotes its growth, prevents its falling off, eradicates the dandruff, and imparts health and pleasantness to the head. It has stood the test of time, being the original hair-coloring, and is constantly increasing in favor. Used by both gentlemen and ladies. It is sold by all respectable dealers, or can be procured by them of D. S. BARNES, Proprietor, New York.

To the Afflicted.

Of all diseases, the first great cause Springs from neglect of Nature's laws.

SUFFER NOT WHEN A CURE IS GUARANTEED in all Secret Diseases. Self-abuse, nervous debility, syphilis in all its stages, strictures, gleet, gravel, diabetes, diseases of the kidneys and bladder, mercurial rheumatism, scrofula, pains in the bones and arteries, disease of the lungs, throat, nose and eyes, ulcers upon the body or limbs, cancer, dropsy, epileptic fits, St. Vitus' dance, and all diseases arising from a derangement of the sexual organs, such as nervous trembling, loss of memory, loss of power, general weakness, dimness of vision, with peculiar spots appearing before the eyes, loss of sight, wakefulness, dyspepsia, liver diseases, eruptions upon the face, pain in the back and head, female irregularities, and all improper discharges, of both sexes. It matters not from what cause the disease originated, however long standing or obstinate the case, recovery is certain, and in a shorter time than a permanent cure can be effected by any other treatment, even after the disease has baffled the skill of eminent physicians, and resisted all their means of cure. The medicines prescribed are pleasant and without odor, entirely vegetable, causing no sickness, and free from mercury and balsam. During twenty years' practice in Europe, the Atlantic States and California, I have rescued from the jaws of death many thousands who, in the last stages of the above mentioned diseases, had been given up to die by their physicians; which warrant me in promising to the afflicted, who may place themselves under my care, a perfect and speedy cure. Private diseases are the greatest enemies to health, and they are the first cause of consumption, scrofula and many other diseases, and should be a terror to the human family. A permanent cure is scarcely ever effected, a majority of the cases falling into the hands of incompetent persons, who not only fail to cure the disease, but ruin the constitution, filling the system with mercury, which, with the disease, makes the sufferer into a rapid consumption. But should the disease and treatment not cause death speedily, and the victim marries, the disease is entailed upon the children, who are born with feeble constitutions, and the current of life corrupted by a virus which betrays itself in scrofula, tetter, ulcers, eruptions, and other affections of the skin, eyes, throat and lungs, entailing upon them a brief existence of suffering, and consigning them to an early grave.

SELF-ABUSE is another formidable enemy to health, for nothing else in the dread catalogue of diseases causes so destructive a drain upon the system, drawing its thousands of victims, through a few years of suffering, to an untimely grave. It destroys the nervous system, rapidly wastes away the energies of life, causes mental derangement, prevents the proper development of the system, disqualifies for marriage, society, business, and all earthly happiness, and leaves the sufferer wrecked in body and mind, predisposed to consumption and a train of evils more to be dreaded than death itself. With the fullest confidence, I assure the unfortunate victim of self-abuse that a permanent and speedy cure can be effected, and, with the abandonment of ruinous practices, my patient can be restored to robust and vigorous health.

Irregularities, and all diseases of males and females are treated on principles established by twenty years practice, and sanctioned by thousands of the most remarkable cures. Medicines, with full directions, sent to any part of the State, Oregon, Nevada and Washington Territories, by patients communicating their symptoms by letter. Business correspondence strictly confidential. Address, DR. L. J. CZAPKAY, M. D., San Francisco.

The Doctor offers free consultation, and asks no remuneration unless he effects a cure. jv20m3p
