

WHAT IS BEFORE THEM.—The Tr'nly Journal, referring to the fall of Vicksburg and defeat of Lee, says if the rebels protract the hopeless struggle they may justly expect to realize the horrible scenes depicted so graphically in Byron's dream of darkness, where he says:

"The brows of men by the despairing light Wore an unearthly aspect, as by fits The flashes fell upon them; some lay down And hid their eyes, and wept; and some did rest Their chins upon their clenched hands, and smiled; And others hurried to and fro, and fed Their funeral piles with fuel, and looking up With curses, cast them down upon the dust, And gnashed their teeth and howl'd. Hideous 'Copperheads' and vipers crawl'd And 'sneal themselves among the multitude, Hissing but stingless—they were slain for food And war, which for a moment was no more, Did glut himself again."

REBEL JOURNALING.—From a veritable copy of the Raleigh (North Carolina) Progress of June 29th, which we have before us, we copy the following:

The Yankees are all being killed up, and we shall have peace in about six weeks. After every battle the telegraph tells us that the "enemy lost heavily—no one hurt on our side." The telegraph is a great institution. According to its statement Grant has lost nearly half a million of men since the siege of Vicksburg commenced. On this subject the Mobile Tribune says:

An ingenious friend of our, highly gifted in the science of collated statistics, reads us the following from his place of seclusion in the country:

"We have multitudinous rumors up here from Vicksburg. I figured up a few of them recently, and the result was that Grant had lost 365,000 killed, 1,823,000 wounded, and 2,000,000 prisoners since he commenced his attack upon the Hill city, and that he still had a tremendous army left! Most of the rumors are implicitly believed by the people hereabouts. I am somewhat skeptical, although I have no doubt Grant will be driven away from Vicksburg. The story of the capture of 1,600 of the enemy's gunboats at Port Hudson was rather staggering—was not universally credited—but the report of the taking of five hundred at Vicksburg, crews, armament and all, went down like hot cakes with fresh butter."

JEFF. DAVIS' VIEW OF VICKSBURG.—Jeff. Davis made a pilgrimage to the State of Mississippi last December, inspected the defenses of Vicksburg and pronounced them good; and the day after Christmas delivered a congratulatory speech before the Mississippi Legislature in the Capitol at Jackson. In that speech, advertising to the movements of the Union armies, he said:

"Vicksburg and Port Hudson are the real points of attack. Every effort will be made to capture these places, with the object of forcing the navigation of the Mississippi, of cutting off our communications with the trans-Mississippi Department, and of severing the western from the eastern portion of the Confederacy. Let, then, all who have at heart the safety of the country, go without delay to Vicksburg and Port Hudson; let them go such length of time as they can spare—for thirty, or sixty days. Let them assist in preserving the Mississippi river, that great artery of the country, and thus conduce, more than in any other way, to the perpetuation of the Confederacy and the success of the cause."

Jeff. Davis was right. He had a just appreciation of the value of Vicksburg and Port Hudson to the "perpetuation of the Confederacy." His opinion was shared by Unionists. It was and is held by sound strategists here and in Europe. In losing the Mississippi river, therefore, the rebellion receives its fatal blow by the confession of its chief and by the admission of the world.

SHE HAS GOT HER RIGHTS.—The Louisville Journal says: The State of Mississippi was one of the most forward and violent in the accursed work of secession. Verily she has her reward. Her cities and towns are lost to her, her public buildings and railroads are destroyed, her fields are ravaged and left bare, her people are on the verge of starvation, and her slaves, from causes having no connection with the Administration, are vanishing from her borders. She wanted secession as a protection to her slavery and cotton, and she will soon have neither slavery nor cotton to protect.

The Ohio Democratic Convention which nominated Vallandigham passed resolutions against the Administration, against its emancipation policy, against Gov. Tod, and against pretty nearly everything except the rebellion and traitors. Not a word was "resolved" against these.

Ditto—The California Democratic Convention.

The Nashville Union hopes "to see a hundred thousand German emigrants settle in Tennessee during the next two years." It adds: "We are tired of effete aristocracy; give us honest working men in their place."

The Westote, of Columbus, and the Volksfreund of Cincinnati—The leading Democratic German papers of Ohio, refuse to support Vallandigham.

RAILROAD SURVEY.—Mr Elliott and his party are encamped near town, having arrived yesterday on their surveying tour of the California and Oregon railroad. They have found no difficulty for a good railroad grade so far, but anticipate the heaviest work between here and Oregon, over Si-ki-you mountain. Mr. Elliott has a number of maps and charts of the country, surveyed between Marysville and this place, via the Sacramento River, Soda Springs and Shasta Valley. The company consists of sixteen men. HEIMSTREET'S Inimitable Hair Restorative. IT IS NOT A DYE.

But restores gray hair to its original color, by supplying the capillary tubes with natural sustenance, impaired by age or disease. All instantaneous dyes are composed of lunar caustic, destroying the vitality and beauty of the hair, and afford of themselves no dressing. Heimstreet's Inimitable coloring not only restores hair to its natural color by an easy process, but gives the hair a Luxuriant Beauty, promotes its growth, prevents its falling off, eradicates the dandruff, and imparts health and pleasantness to the head. It has stood the test of time, being the original hair-coloring, and is constantly increasing in favor. Used by both gentlemen and ladies. It is sold by all respectable dealers, or can be procured by them of D. S. BARNES, Proprietor, New York. Two sizes, 50c. and $1. [eow24y] SMITH & DAVIS, of Portland, Agents.

To the Afflicted. Of all diseases, the first great cause Springs from neglect of Nature's laws.

SUFFER NOT WHEN A CURE IS GUARANTEED in all Secret Diseases. Self-abuse, nervous debility, syphilis in all its stages, strictures, gleet, gravel, diabetes, diseases of the kidneys and bladder, mercurial rheumatism, scrofula, pains in the back and ankles, diseases of the lungs, throat, nose and eyes, ulcers upon the body or limbs, cancer, dropsy, epileptic fits, St. Vitus' dance, and all diseases arising from a derangement of the sexual organs, such as nervous trembling, loss of memory, loss of power, general weakness, dimness of vision, with peculiar spots appearing before the eyes, loss of sight, wakefulness, dyspepsia, liver diseases, eruptions upon the face, pain in the back and head, female irregularities, and all improper discharges of both sexes. It matters not from what cause the disease originated, however long standing or obstinate the case, recovery is certain, and in a shorter time than a permanent cure can be effected by any other treatment, even after the disease has baffled the skill of eminent physicians, and resisted all their means of cure. The medicines prescribed are pleasant and without odor, entirely vegetable, causing no sickness, and free from mercury and its pains. During twenty years' practice in Europe, the Atlantic States and California, I have rescued from the jaws of death many thousands who, in the last stages of the above mentioned diseases, had been given up to die by their physicians; which warrant me in promising to the afflicted, who may place themselves under my care, a perfect and speedy cure. Private diseases are the greatest enemies to health, as they are the first cause of consumption, scrofula and many other diseases, and should be a terror to the human family. A permanent cure is scarcely ever effected, a majority of the cases falling into the hands of incompetent persons, who not only fail to cure the disease, but ruin the constitution, filling the system with mercury, which, with the disease, hastens the sufferer into a rapid consumption. But should the disease and treatment not cause death speedily, and the victim marries, the disease is entailed upon the children, who are born with feeble constitutions, and the current of life corrupted by a virus which betrays itself in scrofula, tetter, ulcers, eruptions, and other affections of the skin, eyes, throat and lungs, entailing upon them a brief existence of suffering, and consigning them to an early grave.

SELF-ABUSE is another formidable enemy to health, for nothing else in the dread catalogue of diseases causes so destructive a drain upon the system, drawing in thousands of victims, through a few years of suffering, to an untimely grave. It destroys the nervous system, rapidly wastes away the energies of life, causes mental derangement, prevents the proper development of the system, disqualifies for marriage, society, business, and all earthly happiness, and leaves the sufferer wrecked in body and mind, predisposed to consumption and a train of evils more to be dreaded than death itself. With the fullest confidence, I assure the unfortunate victim of self-abuse that a permanent and speedy cure can be effected, and, with the abandonment of ruinous practices, my patient can be restored to robust and vigorous health.

Irregularities, and all diseases of males and females are treated on principles established by twenty years practice, and sanctioned by thousands of the most remarkable cures. Medicines, with full directions, sent to any part of the State, Oregon, Nevada and Washington Territories, by patients communicating their symptoms by letter. Business correspondence strictly confidential. Address: L. J. CZAPKAY, M. D., San Francisco.

The Doctor offers free consultation, and asks no remuneration unless he effects a cure. je20m3p
