"When this Cruel War is Over."

A POPULAR SONG.

Dearest love, do you remember When we last did meet.
How you told me that you loved me, Kneeling at my feet?
O, how proud you stood before me
In your suit of blue,
When you vowed to me and country Ever to be true!

When the Summer breeze is sighing Mournfully along,
Or when the Autumn leaves are falling, Sadly breathes the song:
Oft in dreams I see thee lying On the battle plain,
Lonely, wounded, even dying,
Calling, but in vain.

If amid the din of battle Nobly you should fall,
Far away from those who love you,
None to hear you call.
Who would whisper words of comfort,
Who would soothe your pain?
Ah! the many cruel fauces Ever in my brain!

But our country called you, darling—Angels cheer your way;
While our nation's sons are fighting,
We can only pray!
Nobly strike for God and Union—Let all nation's see How we love our starry banner, Emblem of the free!

BEUREGARDIAN SLANG.—The editor of the San Juan Press, in noticing the fact Gen. Beuregard titled all the Federal soldiers as "Abolitionists," says:

"Since then, every copperhead, from the highest to the lowest creeping, dirt-eating viper that is to be found in the land, given vent to his feelings by stigmatizing every man who is desirous of crushing the rebellion, as an 'Abolitionist.' So far as we are concerned, we do not care. Abolitionist is a word that has music in it. Traitor, rebel, copperhead have no music in them. Abolitionists denotes fealty to the Government and love for the white race. Traitor, rebel, copperhead, denote opposition to the Government, sympathy with Jeff Davis and his vile crew, and love for the negro."

Daniel S. Dickinson lately said: "The preservation of the Government is worth more than all that may be sacrificed to support it. Do we propose to stand by and see its sun go down before noonday, because of 'Abolitionists?' The Great Abolitionists are Jeff. Davis & Co. Some great Abolitionists have had monuments erected to them, but the Abolitionists should unite to erect a monument as high as heaven to Jeff. Davis & Co., who have abolished slavery at one stroke. You might as well expect to have deer and rabbits and wolves stay after the timber has been cut away as to expect slavery to remain after this rebellion."

LEE'S LOSSES.—The Baltimore American of July 16th, received and published a statement from Surgeon General Howard, of the United States Army, as to the losses sustained by Lee while in Pennsylvania and Maryland. They foot up as follows: Left behind wounded, 11,000; 8,000 wounded taken away by him; 4,500 buried by the Federals, and 17,000 taken prisoners; captured at Falling Waters, of Gen. Pettigrew's command, 1,000 prisoners and 4,500 killed and wounded—making an aggregate of 42,500 as the loss of the rebel army in its Pennsylvania campaign.

DROWNED.—On the 14th inst., Mr. Jacob Rabman was drowned in the Clackamas river.

But restores gray hair to its original color, by supplying the capillary tubes with natural sustenance, impaired by age or disease. ## To the Afflicted.

Of all diseases, the first great cause

Springing from neglect of Nature's laws.

SUFFER NOT WHEN A CURE IS GUARANTEED

in all Secret Diseases. Self-abuse, nervous debility, syphilis in all its stages, strictures, gland, gravel, diabetes, diseases of the kidneys and bladder, mercurial rickets, rheumatism, scrofula, pain in the bones and ankles, diseases of the lungs, throat, nose and eyes, ulcers upon the body or limbs, cancer, dropsy, epileptic fits, St. Vitus' dance, and all diseases arising from a derangement of the sexual organs, such as nervous trembling, loss of memory, loss of power, general weakness, dimness of vision, with peculiar spots appearing before the eyes, loss of sight, wakefulness, dyspepsia, liver diseases, eruptions upon the face, pain in the back and head, sexual irregularities, and all improper discharges of both sexes. It matters not from what cause the disease originated, however long standing or obstinate the case, recovery is certain, and in a shorter time than a permanent cure can be effected by any other treatment, even after the disease has baffled the skill of eminent physicians, and resisted all their means of cure. The medicines prescribed are pleasant and without odor, entirely vegetable, causing no sickness, and free from mercury and balsam. During twenty years' practice in Europe, the Atlantic States and California, I have rescued from the jaws of death many thousands who, in the last stages of the above mentioned diseases, had been given up to die by their physicians, which warrant me in promising to the afflicted, who may place themselves under my care, a perfect and speedy cure.

Private diseases are the greatest enemies to health, as they are the first cause of consumption, scrofula and many other diseases, and should be a terror to the human family. A permanent cure is scarcely ever effected, a majority of the cases falling into the hands of incompetent persons, who not only fail to cure the disease, but ruin the constitution, filling the system with mercury, which, with the disease, hastens the sufferer into a rapid consumption. But should the disease and treatment not cause death speedily, and the victim marries, the disease is entailed upon the children, who are born with feeble constitutions, and the current of life corrupted by a virus which betrays itself in scrofula, leprosy, eruptions, and other affections of the skin, eyes, throat and lungs, entailing upon them a brief existence of suffering, and consigning them to an early grave.

SELF-ABUSE is another formidable enemy to health, for nothing else in the dread catalogue of diseases causes so destructive a drain upon the system, drawing its thousands of victims, through a few years of suffering, to an untimely grave. It destroys the nervous system, rapidly wastes away the energies of life, causes mental derangement, prevents the proper development of the system, disqualifies for marriage, society, business, and all earthly happiness, and leaves the sufferer wrecked in body and mind, predisposed to consumption and a train of evils more to be dreaded than death itself. With the fullest confidence, I assure the unfortunate victim of self-abuse, that a permanent and speedy cure can be effected, and, with the abandonment of ruinous practices, my patient can be restored to robust and vigorous health.

Irregularities, and all diseases of males and females are treated on principles established by twenty years practice, and sanctioned by thousands of the most remarkable cures. Medicines, with full directions, sent to any part of the State, Oregon, Nevada and Washington Territories, by patients communicating their symptoms by letter. Business correspondence strictly confidential. Address,

L. J. CZAPKAY, M. D., San Francisco.

Dr. The Doctor offers free consultation, and asks no remuneration unless he effects a cure. je20m3p
