A Memphis letter, dated August 25th, denies the report of the death of Pemberton, but says some of his men b ving sworn to kill him, he was taken to Richmond under a strong guard. Fully two-thirds of his army are in the field under Hardee, who is in command at Mobile.

at daylight our batteries opened on the town with shell. The rebels fired a few shot in response and evacuated the place. The rebel batteries in position on the road north of the town kept up their fire for half an hour while a portion of our troops occupied the town. The rebels then fell back and were pursued by our men to within four miles of Bayon Metoe.

control the rebel army or with the people. first liberated from the domination of that army by the success of our army. Allow me to assure you that no word or intima-tion from the rebel army or any one controlling it. in relation to any peace or any compromise, has ever come to my knowlede or belief. All charges or intimations to the contrary are deceptive and groundless ; and and I promise you that if any such propo-sition shall bereatter come it shall not be rejected or kept secret from you. You dislike the emancipation proclamation, and perhaps would have it retracted. You say it is unconstitutional. I think the Constitution empowers its Commander-in Chief with the laws of war in time of war. Now, the most that can be said is that slaves are property. Is there-has there ever beenany question that, by the laws of war, property, both of enemy's and friends, may be taken when needed ? And is it not need d when taking it helps us or hurts the enemy! Armies would even destroy the enemy's property when they cannot use it, and even destroy their own to keep it from the ene-my. Civilized belligerents do all in their power to help themselves or hurt the enemy. except a few things regarded as barbarous. The proclamation is law, and valid or not valid. If it is valid, it cannot be retracted any more than the dead can be brought to life. Some of you profess to think that a retraction would operate favorably to the Union. Why better after retraction than before the issue? There was more than a year and a hasf of trial to suppress the rebellion before the proclamation was issued : at least one hundred days of which passed under an explicit notice that it was coming unless it was averted by those in revolt returning to their allegiance. The war has certainly progressed as favorably since the issue of the proclamation as before. I know, as fully as any one can know the opinion of others, that some of the com-manders of armies in the field, who have given us our most important victories, believe the emancipation policy and colored troops constitute the heaviest blows yet yune of August 22d, has Tampico dates to August 16th, stating that the place was oc-cupied by the French. of these important successes could not have been achieved unless it had been for the aid of black soldlers. Among the commanders holding these views are some who have from Brownsville. August 27th, met 700 never had any affinity with what is called of the enemy who were posted on an emiabolitionism, or with the Republican party politics, but who hold them purely as mili-tary opinions. I submit their opinions as Will practice in all the Courts of the Third Judicial District, the Supreme Court of Ore-gon, and in Yreka, Cal. War Scrip prompt-ly collected. Oct. 18. J. GASTON. Aug. 16th — The preserce of fifteen hundred at daylight our batteries opened on the Data and arming the blacks are unwise as mili-tary measures, and were not adopted as such in good faith. You say that you will not fight to free negroes. Some of them but no matter is opened on the but no matter is opened on the being entitled to some weight against the objections often urged that emancipation save the Union. I issued the proclamation prisoners. Our loss 69 killed and wounded. on purpose to aid in saving the Union. Whenever you shall have conquered all resistance to the Union, if I should urge you to quit figgting it will be an apt time then for you to declare that you will not fight to free negroes. I thought that in your struggle for the Union, to whatever extent negroes should cease helping the enemy, to that extent it would weaken his resistence to you. Do you think differently? I thought that whatever negroes can be got terests and institutions of the people, and to serve as soldiers, leaves just so much less for white soldiers to do in saving the Union. Does it appear otherwise to you? But negroes, like other people, act upon motives. Why should they do anything for us if we will do nothing for them? If they stake their lives for us they must be prompted by the strongest motive-even the promise of freedom, and the promise made must be kept. Chicago, 3d .- A special to the New York Tribune says : It is rumored among the politicians at Richmond that Robert M. T. Hunter is to be sent to Mexico, as a representative of the Southern Confederacy, in order to prepare the way for an offensive and defensive alliance between the Emperor of that country and the Government at Richmond. It is said this gentleman has received instruction for the immediate recognition of the future Emperor of Mexico, in retarn for which it is hoped his Majesty will be led to recognize the Southern Confederacy. Hunter is now at Paris, the Union mass meeting to be held at Spring- where he was sent nearly two months ago by the Government with a special mission to the Emperor of the French. The principal object of his visit there is, however, to act conjointly with Slydell on all matters The Wheeling (Va.) Intelligencer of Sept. 1st, says : General Averill's cavalry expedition has returned to Huntersville, Randolph county. The expedition went through Hardy, Pendleton and Pocahontas counties, destroyed the saltpeter works at Pendleton. and drove Jackson out of Pocahontas, pursuing him to Greenbrier, near Culpepper Springs. At Rocky Gap Averill encoun-tered the forces of Gen. Jones and Colonel Patton, and had a severe action, in which and wounded, including a number of officers. General Averill brought in a number of prisoners, including some officers. amount of camp equipage and stores.

tiser says the question in regard to Arch-bishop Maximillion is not yet decided. The programme of one of the Ministerial papers is as follows : Mexican Triumvirate, will be to construct a provincial Government for one year, during which time peace may be established throughout all the provinces, and regular working administration for the whole country be organized. By that time it will be seen how the war in the United States is to terminate. and then if it seems certain there will be a guarantee of permanence for a new or-der of things. Archdnke will start on the voyage. There is no doubt but he has acorganization.

Washington, 6th .- The President has ordered that Executive order dated Nov., 21st. 1862, prohibiting exportation from the United States of arms, ammunition or munitions of war under which Commanders of Departments were by order of the Secretary of War dated 2th of May 1861, directed to prohibit the purchase and sale for exportation of all horses, and mules and to take and appropriate to the use of the United States, horses, mules and live stock destined for exportation, that any arms heretofore imported into the the United States, may be re-exported to place of original shipment.

A rebel Colonel who was captured contradicts the reported death of Gen. Holmes. and says he is convalescent and at White Springs.

St. Louis (Mo.) September, 2d - A State Convention of the Immediate Emancipationists was held at Jefferson City yesterday, at which resolution were adopted providing for calling a Constitutional Convention to adopt an ordinance of immediate Emancipation ; requesting that General Butler be assigned to the command of the Department of Missouri, and advocating an amendment o the Federal Constitution, which will prohibit slavery forever in the States to be ad mitted into the Union.

New York, 2d .-- President has received a letter from General Grant, in which he not only pledged himself to aid Adjutant Gen. Thomas in his labors, but also heartily indorses the Emancipation and the raising of colored troops ; and earnestly expresses the opinion that, with the latter, great results can be obtained.

Chicago, 3d .- The following is the sub-stance of the letter from the President to field (Ill.) to-day. After regretting his inability to attend, he says : There are those who are dissatisfied with me. To such I would say. You desire peace and you blame me that you don't have it. But how can appertaining to the Mexican question. we attain it? There are but three conceivable ways : First-To suppress the rebellion by force of arms. This I am trying to do. Are you for it? If you are, so far we are agreed. The second way is to give up the Union to disunion. I am agreed to this if you are : you should say so plainly. If you are not for force nor yet for dissolution, there only remains some imaginable compromise. I do not believe any compromise embracing the maintainance of the. Union can be possible. All that I learn our loss was about one hundred in killed leads to a directly opposite belief. The strength of the rebellion is its military. Nashville, 6th .- Gov. Andrew Johnson, has avowed himself unequivocally in favor of the abolition of slavery. He said the system of slavery had proved baneful the nation by arraying itself against inthat the time had come for its total eradication. He believed slavery to be a curse, and wanted to see it whipped out without delay. His speech was entbusi-astically applauded by his hearers.

New York, 6th .- The steamer City of New York, from Liverpool with dates to the 26th has arrived. The Committee of the emancipation society have published a memorial announcing that two steamers designed for the Confederate service, and constructed by the builders of the Alabama were ready to sail on the 27th, and that they would be received by the Florida, which was hovering on the coast. They call on the Government to promptly interfere and apply the law with vigor.

San Francisco, 5th .- Telegrams have been received by Gen. Wright and F. F. Low, to-day, from Secretaries Stanton and Chase, of which the following is one:

To Hon. F. F. Low: Accept for yourself and loyal people of California, my cordial congratulations on the great victory just achieved. I hope to send you back speedy response from Charleston. Gilmore keeps moving on their works. News received within an hour leaves no room for doubt. His troops are in fine spirits; his force ample; his skill and energy unimpaired. Violent storms have for several days prevented operations by the navy. Burnside is actively pressing forward on East Ten-nessee. Rosecrans on Chattanooga. Baaks and Grant are busy. While our armies are thus moving on the enemy's works, we relick at the rebellion.

A SOCIABLE GOVERNOR .- Gov. Powell. of Kentucky, was never an orator, but his conversational, story telling and social qualities were remarkable. His great fortelay in establishing a personal intimacy with every one he met, and in this way he was powerful in electioneering. He chewed immense quantities of tobacco, but never carried the weed himself, and was always begging it of every one he met. His residence was in Henderson, and in coming up the Ohio, past that place, I overbeard the following characteristic anecdote of him :---

A citizen of Henderson coming on board fell into conversation with a passenger who made inquiries about Powell.

" He lives in your place, I believe, don't he ?"

"Yes, one of our oldest citizens."

"Very sociable man ain't he?"

" Remarkably so."

"Well, I thought so. I think he is one of the most sociable men I ever met in all my life. Wonderfully sociable. I was introduced to him over at Grayson Springs last summer, and he hadn't been with me ten minutes when he begged all the tobacco I had, got his feet up in my lap and spit all over me--re-markably sociable."
