BY OVERLAND TELEGRAPH.
(TELEGRAPHED TO YREKA FOR THE SENTINEL.)
Dates to the 12th.
St. Paul, Minnesota, 9th.—In a recent fight between Salmon river miners and Indians the latter lost 30 killed.

Washington, 9th.—Rosen's official report of the campaign in middle Tennessee has been received. It embodies operations which resulted in driving the rebels from their position in the State. Our loss was eighty five killed, and four hundred and sixty-two wounded, and thirteen missing. We captured several hundred small arms, three field pieces, six caissons, three field guns without carriages. Of Quartermaster's stores, we took 65 tents and 35,000 sacks of corn. The total number of prisoners taken was 59 commissioned officers and 1,575 noncommissioned officers and privates.

Fortress Monroe, 9th.—Richmond Enquirer of the 8th, has the following dispatch: Morris Island is evacuated. The enemy holds Cummings Point, in full view of the city. Heavy firing is now going on between the batteries on Sullivan Island and Fort Moultrie and Monitors.

Charleston, 7th.—Bombardment was kept up without intermission all day yesterday, and far into the night. About 150 of our men were killed and wounded at Gregg and Wagner. An assault on Gregg was repulsed before the enemy had completed landing. Great havoc was supposed to have been made by our minister in enemy's boats. At dark, Sunday, the enemy ran their eaps up to the very moat of Wagner, and it being impossible to hold the Island any longer, Beauregard ordered it evacuated, which was executed with success. We spiked guns of Wagner and Gregg, and withdrew in forty barges, only one barge with twelve men were captured. All is quiet this morning.

Charleston, 7th, 12 M.—Dispatches from General Scott, commanding Sumter, announces that a flag of truce demanding immediate surrender of that fort, has just been received from Dahlgren. Beauregard telegraphed to reply to Dahlgren "he could have Sumter when he took and held it. In the meantime such demands are contemptible." This morning at 6 o'clock the Ironsides and monitors went closer to Sumter than usual and opened hot fire on it. Our batteries on Sullivan Island, with Moultrie, replied heavily.

Washington, 10th.—The following is an official report from Gilmore: Dupont to Halleck—I have the honor to report that Ft. Wagner and battery Gregg are ours. Last night our sappers covered the crest of the counter-carp of Wagner on its sea front, making all its guns, and an order has been issued to carry the place by assault at 9 o'clock this morning, that being the hour of low tide. At 10 o'clock last night, the enemy commenced evacuating the Island. All but 175 made their escape from Cummings Point in small boats. Captured dispatches show that that fort was commanded by Col. Keitt, of North Carolina, and garrisoned by 1,400 men, and Gregg by between 100 and 200. Its bomb proof shelter capable of holding 3,000 men, remains intact after the most terrible bombardment to which any work was ever subjected. We captured 19 pieces of artillery, and a large supply of excellent ammunition. The city and harbor of Charleston are now completely covered by my guns. (Signed) GILMORE.

Washington, 10th.—Telegram from Ft. Monroe to Halleck says when the steamer Nice left Charleston, Thursday, 8 o'clock P. M., the rebel flag was still flying over Sumter; no guns were mounted, and only a small force was there. Five monitors and Ironsides had engaged batteries Beauregard and Lee 9 hours. During the bombardment a shell from one of the monitors exploded in a magazine of Moultrie, Southwestern parapet was seriously injured by the explosion.

Albany, 10th.—A Democratic Convention nominated D. B. St. John for Secretary of State; Sanford Church, Controller; M. D. Chamberlain, Attorney General; M. B. Lewis, State Treasurer.
Dates to September 11th.
Knoxville, Tenn., 6th.—The campaign skillfully planned and energetically executed for possession of East Tennessee is over. A great and glorious victory has been won. Such was the rapidity of our movements that the rebels taken unawares fled before us without destroying any property. Three steamboats, 3 locomotives and a number of cars were taken. The whole march of our troops was an ovation, and our entry into Knoxville an event long to be remembered. Thousands of every age, sex and condition greeted us with shouts and tears mingled with martial music. Burnside addressed the people and assured them of protection.

Cincinnati, 10th.—A dispatch to the Times, dated Cumberland Gap, says Gen. Ferriss with 2,000 men and 14 guns surrendered at 4 o'clock to Burnside's advance.
New York, 10th.—Sterling dull at 44; gold 30 3/4.
Philadelphia, 10th.—Judge Cadwallar, U. S. District Court, has decided the Enrollment Act constitutional.

St. Louis, 10th.—A Leavenworth dispatch says that a meeting at Pauli, yesterday was attended by 3,500 armed men. Many were prevented from coming by Gen. Scofield's order, and the rain. Gen. Lane spoke for 3 hours, and was very bitter on Gamble and Scofield. Very bitter resolutions were adopted, declaring that the policy introduced into Missouri and Kansas is one which gives security to rebel sympathizers, and exposes loyal people to massacre.

St. Louis, 10th.—Official intelligence of the capture of Fort Smith was received this evening. Gen. Biant entered the Fort.
The Creeks (Indians) have near all deserted the rebels. McIntosh has gone towards Red River with only 150 men from his two regiments.

Washington, 11th.—Cumberland Gap, the 9th. To Halleck: Since the occupation of Knoxville, a cavalry force was sent up the Railroad within 5 miles of Driscoll, capturing 3 locomotives. Another force of cavalry and infantry, I brought to this place in person to reinforce Smeckford, who is here with regiments of cavalry. The infantry that accompanied me, marched 60 miles in 50 hours. The garrison here consisting of over 2,000 men and 14 pieces of artillery, surrendered unconditionally, at 3 P. M., to-day. Signed BURKSIDE.

Cairo, 11th.—By steamer Postboy we have information that the Washita river exploration has returned, having finally accomplished its object, namely, a thorough reconnaissance of Northern La., lying adjacent to Washita river. No enemy or organized force was found.
Dates to the 12th.
New York, 12th.—The World says our correspondent in the Department of Gen. Banks gives us, in a private note, intimations of a highly important movement which has just been set on foot in that Department. Until further advised, we do not need to give details. We may at present say, however, the movement is one which if successful, will be productive of results of the highest importance.

The World's special says we have authority for stating, Gen. Gilmore has determined, if, when he got full possession of Morris Island, Beauregard did not surrender, he would throw incendiary shells into the city for the purpose of destroying it. His guns cover the base of supplies for the Confederate forces.
The Times special says the names of deserters from the several armies, particularly the frightfully great host of absentees from the Army of the Potomac, are soon to be published in newspapers of several States, by districts.

The War Department has determined to spare no efforts to force them to return to the field of duty.
Cincinnati, 12th.—The Commercial says work on the military Railroad from Nicholasville, Ky., to Knoxville, Tenn., has been commenced, and will be pushed forward with great rapidity. One thousand men to the mile will soon be employed on the road. Negro laborers are being impressed along the line of the road, every third slave being taken. They will be clothed and paid. Unemployed blacks, who have come into our lines in Southern States are being forwarded. They will be paid one-third their wages, and the balance reserved to provide them with homes when war is over. The City of Louisville subscribed $600,000 to labor on the road, and throughout the State the highest co-operation will be given to this great enterprise.

The Tribune's special dispatch says: The taking of Cummings Point batteries brings Gen. Gilmore's long range parrot guns one mile and one eighth nearer the city of Charleston than they were when the twelve Greek fire shells were thrown into the city.

A DIFFICULT QUESTION ANSWERED.—"Can any one," says Fanny Fern "tell me why, when Eve was manufactured from one of Adam's ribs, a hired girl was not made at the same time to wait on her?"
We can, easy: Because Adam never came whining to Eve with a ragged stocking to be darned, a collar string to be sewn, or a glove to mend "right away, quick now" because he never read the newspaper until the sun got down behind the palm trees, and then stretching himself out, yawning out, "ain't supper most ready, my dear?" Not he! He made the fire and hung the kettle over it himself, we'll venture—and pull the radishes, peeled the potatoes, and did everything else he ought to. He milked the cows, fed the chickens and looked after the pigs himself. He never brought home half a dozen friends to dinner when Eve hadn't any fresh pompanos, and the mango season was over! He never stayed out till eleven o'clock to a "ward meeting," hurrahing for an out-and-out candidate, and then scolded because poor Eve was sitting up and crying inside the gates. He never played billiards, rolled ten pins and drove fast horses, nor chided Eve with cigar smoke. He never loafed around corner groceries, while Eve was rocking little Cain's cradle at home. In short, he didn't think she was especially created for the purpose of waiting on him, and wasn't under the impression that it disgraced a man to lighten a wife's cares a little. That is the reason that Eve did not need a hired girl, and with it was the reason that her fair descendants did.

THE SIMPLE SCENER.—Twenty clerks in a store; twenty hands in a printing office; twenty apprentices in a ship yard; twenty young men in a village—all want to get on in the world, and expect to do so. One of the clerks will become a partner, and make a fortune; one of the compositors will own a newspaper and become an influential citizen; one of the apprentices will become a master builder; one of the young villagers will own a fine farm, and live like a patriarch—but which one is the lucky individual? There is no luck about it. The thing is almost as certain as the rule of three. The young fellow who will distance his competitors is he who masters his business, who preserves his integrity, who lives cleanly and purely, who devotes his leisure to the acquisition of knowledge, who never gets into debt, who gains friends by deserving them, and who saves his spare money. There are some ways to fortune shorter than this old dusty highway; but the staunch men of the community, the men who achieve something really worth having, good fortune, good name and serene old age, all go in this road.

CHARLES THOMPSON MURDERED.—The Mountaineer of the 11th, prints the following:
Mr. Parker, of Walla Walla, informs us that a man named Charles Thompson, of "A" Company, Oregon Cavalry, was killed at Fort Walla Walla, on the 6th inst. The man had recently come in from Boise, as an escort to Capt. Hughes, and is supposed to have been murdered for his money. He was found near the Garrison, on Monday morning, with his throat cut, and all his money taken from his pockets. A man named Kelly, of "H" Company, Infantry, was arrested on suspicion of being the murderer. Various circumstances seemed to indicate the accused as the guilty man. Deceased enlisted at Jacksonville, Oregon, and bore the reputation of being a well behaved man. Kelly is presented as a bad man, and whilst previous to the murder he was destitute of means, after he was "flush." On examining him after his arrest, blood was found upon his clothing, and but little doubt was felt as to his being the murderer.
