BY OVERLAND TELEGRAPH.

[TELEGRAPHED TO YREKA FOR THE SENTINEL.]

Dates to the 16th.

New York, 13th.—A Morris Island letter of the 2th inst. to the Herald gives an account of the recent boat expedition against Fort Sumter. The flotilla consisted of between twenty-five and thirty boats, manned by over 100 sailors under Lieut. Commander Williams of the Wissahickon, and 100 marines under Captain McCauley, the entire force being under Commander Stevens of the monitor Patapsco. They were towed to within a short distance of the fort, whence they advanced. Three boats, under Commander Williams, Lieutenant Keating and ensign Porter, landed and the men attempted to run up the ramparts of the parapet. They were fired upon by musketry, and hand grenades were thrown down upon them. The slope was so steep that they were unable to reach the parapet, when a signal was given from the fort and in an instant all the rebel batteries opened on the fort, shelling it terribly. The three boats were smashed, and all who landed were killed or captured. Lieutenant Bradford, of the marines, was mortally wounded and captured. Commander Williams, Lieutenant Preston, Brower and Buses, Doctor Wheeler and ensign Porter were also captured. From forty to fifty sailors and marines were killed and wounded. The entire list of casualties will number eighty. The remainder of the command retired in safety. A flag of truce states that our captured officers and men were in Sumter, and well treated. The Herald's letter states that it had been discovered that the old iron-clad battery at Cummings Point forms the cover of the magazine of Fort Gregg. It affords a good cover to our men, and has already sustained a heavy fire from the rebel batteries without the least damage. The same correspondent highly eulogizes the ironclads, whose broadsides against Fort Moultrie he had never seen equalled in effect. She was uninjured, though struck two hundred times.

A Times correspondent, with the army of the Potomac, writes on the 10th instant that it is believed that one corps of Lee's army, or about one-third of the army, under Longstreet, is moving to Richmond, thence to be transferred, two divisions of it to the Southwest, and the remainder to Charleston. Cook's division left Fredericksburg on Tuesday for Richmond. This seems to indicate that Virginia will not only on the defensive.

New York, 14th.—Gold firm at 33 1/2.

Richmond papers contain the following items in regard to Texas affairs: Upwards of 10,000 slaves have arrived from Louisiana and Mississippi. Niggers are selling at 3,000 and 4,000 dollars apiece.

Pendleton has been elected Governor by a small majority. Herbert, Bennett and Saxton are elected to Congress. Military matters are quiet. The people are determined to resist invasion. The Indians on the frontier are troublesome. There is an average of fourteen vessels, off Galveston, blockading the harbor. Great confidence is felt in Gen. Magruder. Crops in Texas are unprecedentedly large. Wheat and corn enough will be raised to supply the department of the trans-Mississippi for two years to come. Cotton picking commenced in August. There are about 11,000 bales of the old crop in the old State.

Memphis, 12th.—Several refugees have arrived, who report a terrible riot of soldiers wives, at Mobile on the 11th. About 600 women and children marched through the principle streets, carrying banners bearing these words—"Bread or blood!"—"Bread or peace!" and other like inscriptions. Being soldiers' wives the proceedings were witnessed by soldiers who made but feeble resistance. Several stores were broken open, and the riot was spreading when our informant left.

St. Louis, 14th.—At dark last night the steamer Municipal took fire and burned, she fired three others—Hiawatha, Post Boy, and Jesse K. Bell. All four were totally destroyed. The new gunboat Ozark made a narrow escape. Loss, 200,000 dollars—half insured.

Cairo, 13th.—A reconnaissance was sent out from Ft. Pickens last week, which stopped at Dickensville and administered the oath of allegiance to 2,000 people in those places. No rebels were found, and guerrillas seemed to be pretty well played out in that region. General Harbert issued orders that commanding officers to be held responsible for the good conduct of their men, and that every outrage committed or the property of persons, involving pecuniary loss, must be compensated pecuniarily by the soldiers who may be found guilty. This order was issued in consequence of frequent complaints at headquarters of depredations committed on the property of citizens within the limits and in the outskirts of the city of Memphis.

Brownsville, Ark., 2d.—Gen. Steele arrived here last night. His whole force will come up to-day. The rebels are in strong position four miles this side of Little Rock, their right resting on the Arkansas. Gen. Price commands, Kirby Smith having gone to Red River. Magruder was wounded in the fight at Bayou Meto, on 22d of August.

Cairo, 14th.—Intelligence from Bragg's Memphis, 12th, reports that he is falling back of Chattanooga, where it is reported he will make a stand. It is reported also that the whole of Pemberton's force, except one or two regiments, have gone to reinforce Bragg's army.

Judge Cantrath is elected Governor of Tennessee. Until 1861 he was a staunch Union man. After the State sided with the South, he became a revolutionist, and attached to the Southern cause. As a member of the peace Congress he exerted himself to avert the dismemberment of the Union.

Headquarters army of the Potomac, Sept. 16th.—Pleasanton advanced to the Rapidan, where the rebels were in position with infantry and cavalry, to prevent our recrossing. Our casualties yesterday were two killed and four wounded—among the latter was Gen. Coeher, commanding a brigade of Kilpatrick's division. He was wounded while gallantly charging the enemy, in which attack three guns were captured.

Cincinnati, 15th.—In the capture of Chattanooga, we took two steamboats and thirty pontoons, very few stores, and no artillery or prisoners. The works are very strong.

Returns from 187 towns, give Corry, the Republican candidate for Governor of Maine, 14,000 majority. The House will stand about 109 Republicans to 80 Democrats. The Senate will be probably unanimous Republican.

New York, 15th.—It is reported that the rebels have six vessels of war at Richmond, some of which are said to be clad in railroad iron, and modeled like the Merrimac.

Gen. Gilmore has been promoted to Major of Engineers in the regular army.

Cairo, 15th.—We learn that the marine brigade captured at Bolivar, three rebel paymasters with thirty men and $2,000,000, to pay the troops at Little Rock.

Memphis, Sept. 13th.—The cavalry and mounted infantry of the 16th army corps, under direction of Gen. Cray, have been active during the past week, going as far South as Tallahatchie, and stampeding the rebel cavalry into Grenada and Ok lusa. Gen. Cray is the one who scattered the rebels in the vicinity of Jackson, and captured the rebel mail with a correspondence confirming the report that Johnson was reinforcing Bragg.

Rappahannock, 14th.—Citizens of Calpepper say that Smart with 6,000 rebel cavalry was there on Saturday.

Cincinnati, 15th.—A Leavenworth dispatch says Gen. Blunt at last accounts was at Fort Gibson, preparing to start for Fort Scott. In the recent campaign, he marched 250 miles in nine days, fought two battles, and reclaimed from the rebels 4,000,000 square miles of territory. Refugees from rebel possession are coming into Blunt's lines by hundreds.

New York, 16th.—Last evening's Post says we hear, to-day of shipment from Pat-myrta of 100 tons of railroad iron for the Union Pacific Railroad, eastern division.

A late Charleston Mercury says rebel casualties in the struggle for the possession of Morris Island, amounted to seven hundred killed, wounded and missing.

A special says that the State Department feels assured that the late pamphlet on Mexican affairs, written with a view of the recognition of the Southern Confederacy, did not emanate from any important personage in France.

Washington, 15th.—Gen. King has arrested all male seceders at Fairfax Court House and vicinity and sent them to Old Capital prison. Among them are several leading men, who took active part in forcing the State into rebellion.

Last Monday morning, as a party of about forty fugitive negroes were making their way to Washington from their master's house, in Ann Arundel and Calvert counties, through Centerville, a patrol composed of citizens from Prince George county, attempted to stop them. The slaves resisted, and some of them being armed with flint-lock muskets, attempted to use them, but the muskets being fire and wouldn't go. The patrolers then fired on the negroes, wounding five, two of them badly. Other parties coming to the aid of the patrolers, most of the slaves were secured and taken off by their owners, who had by this time overtaken them.

New York, 16th.—The Times says Gen. Pleasanton reached the Rapidan river at Raccoon Fork, Monday afternoon, after considerable skirmishing between Calpepper and that point. Up to that time no rebel infantry had been met with, though a heavy force of rebel cavalry had been driven back by our force. Fighting was going on Monday at Raccoon Fork, the enemy vigorously resisting all attempts to cross the river. It was supposed a force of rebel infantry was at that point to resist our advance.

Gen. Foster telegraphs from Fortesc Monroe that the bulk of the rebel army is at Richmond, where Lee's headquarters now are, and that there is no force of consequence in Meade's front. Pleasanton will probably ascertain correctly the position of the rebel army in a day or two. Cars run from Washington to Calpepper with supplies for our troops.

Steamer Mary Sandford, from Charleston for the night of the 12th, brings dispatches to the Government and mail from the front. At Forts Johnson and Moultrie the rebels have two 15-inch guns. No attempt has been made to take Fort Sumter since the capture of the boats. The monitor Patapsco has gone to Fort Royal for repairs.

Memphis, 13th.—Gen. Smith, with 400 men and two batteries, has been sent to reinforce Gen. Steele. Reports from Steele favorable. The expedition under Steele has returned to Vicksburg. The expedition against Harrisburg was successful. Rebels retreated in the direction of Shreveport, and blew up their magazines.

New York, 16th.—Tribune's special says Gen. Foster telegraphs from Fortesc Monroe that Lee's army has been sent away. Part towards Charleston and part towards Chattanooga. This is now the generally received opinion.

A MISTAKE.—Charles to the altar led the lovely Jane, and to her father's home returned again, where, to convey them on their wedding tour, already stood a coach and four. When lo! the gathering showers at once descended, clouds roll on dark, and warring winds contend; this moves him not but in he leads his bride, and seats himself enraptured by her side; when thus to cheer the fair one begu, "I hope we soon shall have a little sun." But Jane to whom the weather gave no pain, who hesied not the blast nor pattering rain, but most about her future state bethought her, replied, "My dear, I'd rather have a daughter."

Good-looking fellow was charged with having stolen a watch. It was his first offense, and he was ready to plead guilty. The magistrate had asked him what had induced him to commit the theft. The young man replied, that "having been ill for some time, the doctor advised him to take some thing, which he accordingly did." The magistrate was rather pleased with the humor of the thing, and asked what led him to select a watch. "Why," said the prisoner, "I thought that if I only took time, that Nature would work a cure!"

Papa—"Well, Sissy, how do you like your school?"

Sissy—"Oh, so much!"

Papa—"That's right. Now tell me all you have learned to-day?"

Sissy—"I have learnt the names of all the boys."

An exchange paper says that a young woman whose betrothed lover is in the army, went almost into convulsions, at his perjury, on hearing of his having an engagement in Mississippi. Sensitive girl.
