

THE OREGON SENTINEL.

"TO THE EFFICACY AND PERMANENCY OF YOUR UNION, A GOVERNMENT FOR THE WHOLE IS INDISPENSABLE."—Washington.

JACKSONVILLE, OREGON.

SATURDAY MORNING, OCT. 31, 1863.

"KEMATH LAKE—CONTRACTS."—The article we published last week, under the above caption, has brought down upon us, even from unexpected quarters, expostulations and secret abuse. With further light thrown upon the subject, we had intended to continue it in this number, but found we had not time to give it the consideration required. Next week we shall have something to say on the subject, and at the present shall merely remark that if any person feels aggrieved at what we have already said, or may say, and will show us wherein we have wronged them, we shall make all the restitution in our power; but let them at the same time understand that we conceive it to be our privilege and duty to expose and condemn any act of wrong, or inquire into any seeming act of wrong to the Government and injustice to this community, by whomsoever committed. We shall act justly in the premises, feeling confident that by so doing we shall be sustained by every right-minded person in the community.

SEMIOTA ACCIDENT.—On Tuesday evening last, a very serious accident occurred to Mr. David Winfield, teamster on the Crescent City road. As he was descending the steep hill above town, with his heavily-laden, four-horse wagon, the "break" broke, and the wagon ran with such force upon the wheel horses as to knock them from their feet. Mr. Winfield went down with the horses. The wagon ran over and killed the saddle-horse. Mr. Winfield was found to be severely injured. Dr. Greer was sent for, and the wounded man relieved and brought to town. An examination showed that his collar bone was broken, a flesh wound three or four inches long and an inch deep on his thigh, and his breast so bruised as to give rise to fears that he had been injured internally. Last night he was said to be much better, and he will probably be all right again in a few weeks.

SINGULAR ACCIDENT.—A Mr. Maffat on Wednesday last, had his arm broken, under very remarkable circumstances. He had started from this place to Applegate. He had got off his horse, and in trying to re-mount, failed to raise himself high enough in the stirrup to throw his right leg over the horse and, falling back, his arm struck, between the shoulder and elbow, on the back part of the saddle-tree. Mr. Maffat said he heard something crack and feeling no pain, thought it was a buckle or a strap had broken. On attempting to discover the occasion of the crack he found that his arm was powerless. On examination by Dr. Greer, it was found that the bone of the arm between the elbow and shoulder was broken fairly in two. The arm was reset, and the patient thinks he will be about again in a week or two.

The late election for judicial officers, in California, has resulted in a decisive triumph for the Union party, as a matter of course. In proportion to the number of votes polled, the Union majority will be correspondingly as large as that of the September election. Judge Pratt, formerly of this State, has been elected Judge of the Twelfth District, San Francisco. He was a nominee of the Independent Union party of San Francisco.

ASSASSINATION.—A highly esteemed citizen of Shasta county, Cal., Capt. A. S. Wells, was murdered, on the 13th inst., in the streets of Red Bluff, by Vincent E. Gaiger, Shasta Lodge No. 57, I. O. O. F., of which deceased was an honored member. Offers a reward of $250 for the arrest of the murderer.

Douglas Democrats.

The Jeff Davis faction, known as the Breckinridge Democracy, are now busily engaged in piping to the Douglas Democrats to "come over and help us." It is true that certain high priests among the Jeff Davis party in the State, bitterly oppose the admission of any man that ever voted for Douglas, into the Secession camp. The "pig showman," O'Meara, is hostile to the recommendation of their State Committee "to unite all who are opposed to Lincoln, &c.," but then that is fully offset by the sapient council of the grayback editor of the Intelligencer, who thinks the recommendation a wise one. Little need be said upon this subject. Any Douglas man with sense enough worth looking after, and a soul worth saving, has already fixed his landmarks during this rebellion. The invitation upon the part of the Secession scoundrels, is an insult. In the fight of 1860, the Douglas party were for the Constitution and Union; Breckinridge and his party were for slavery and a Southern Confederacy—they were traitors then—they are traitors now. Your invitation is too insulting to reply to. Go into your dens of treason? Unite with you to send traitors to Congress? Unite with you to oppose the Government in putting down Jeff Davis and his crew? Unite with you to again instal in power a hateful, heathenish, brutish, slave-breeding, slave-driving aristocracy? Unite with you to disgrace freedom and free States? Take by the hand, as political brethren, such beautiful pink of the chivalry as the Arkansas grayback that runs the Intelligencer? Never! never! until Judas Iscariot passes for a Christian and Benedict Arnold a patriot. With all truly loyal men, the present rebellion has broken down party lines. Douglas said in his last advice to his friends—"There are now but two parties, patriots and traitors." His words are true to the letter. If you go against the party that is laboring to put down Jeff Davis, you are a traitor. If you go with the Copperhead party of Oregon, you go against the party that is fighting Jeff Davis. Don't be deceived. The Copperheads of Oregon are Secessionists and traitors at heart, and if they dared they would endeavor to unite Oregon to the Southern Confederacy.

O'Meara is right in opposing the admission of Douglas men into his camp. He acts upon correct ideas. A Douglas man with sense enough to understand the issues of 1860, and those of 1863, and would now ask to be admitted into the Breckinridge camp of this State, is too mean to be a decent companion for a dog. Such a man ought to have a ring in his nose, and be compelled to raise cotton and sugar for some Southern slaveholder the balance of his days. O'Meara attempts to show that Douglas' friends now oppose the war, and instances Richardson to prove it. Richardson never was a leader in the Douglas party. General John A. Logan and Gen. McClernand were Douglas' trusted friends in Illinois, and they both support Lincoln and the war. To those who stood up for Douglas amid the treason of the Charleston Convention and the fight of 1860, there is great cause for over-rejoicing. Your great chief died firm in the faith. His memory is not the heritage of treason, as is that of Breckinridge, the man whom these scurvy dogs of the T.V. Vault tribe now ask you to endorse.

Charleston, that plotted the down-fall of Douglas and his free principals, is being burned from the face of the earth, as a reward for her merits. Ohio has given 100,000 majority for John Bough, a Douglas man. Other Union victories keep pouring in, and soon the great Confederacy will be buried in its own ruins. Remain steadfast to Abraham Lincoln as long as he remains steadfast to his purpose of putting down the rebellion. That was the advice of your great chief, and it is more important to-day than ever.

A UNION MAN THAT VOTED FOR DOUGLAS.

We have received a couple of large and rich specimens of Copper from a ledge discovered in Josephine county. It is from a vein fourteen feet thick, bearing from 20 to 90 per cent, of copper. We shall speak at greater length of this ledge next week.

We also learn that Hon. I. D. Haines, with others, have recorded claims to a very valuable copper lead, lately discovered in Coos county.

Northern Items.

On the 20th instant an attempt was made by an incendiary to fire Dalles City, for the purpose of plunder.

Burglars are committing depredations in and about Portland and Oregon City.

Count Castiglione, a member of the household of the king of Italy, with attendants, have arrived at Portland, overland from the East via Colville. Among other animals, they have procured five large elk to send to Italy.

The G. D. S. of T. of Oregon, held its 8th annual session in this city, commencing on the first day of this month. The following are the officers elected and installed for the ensuing year:

The deputies for the ensuing year are F. Wilbur, C. P. Crandall, A. Shreve, J. C. Elder, Rev. E. P. Henderson, John McClung, T. W. Davenport, Sam'l L. Coon, and J. L. Cleary.

W. P. Burns, R. Gammit, F. Wilbur, C. P. Crandall, W. R. Dunbar, J. Mendenhall, W. H. Gibbs, A. Shreve, and E. K. Miller, were chosen delegates to the next annual session of the National Division.

The Dalles Mountaineer estimates the gold crop from the mines East of the Cascades the present year at $12,000,000. We are of the opinion that it will come fully up to this figure by the close of the mining season.—Statesman.

We learn through the Albany Democrat that the Statesman printing office, at Salem, has been sold by Mr. Bush for $7,000 in legal tender, to the following named gentlemen: C. N. Terry, B. Simpson, Mr. Conion, R. Mallory, C. P. Crandall and Mr. Huntington, Indian Superintendent. Messrs Crandall and Waite continue as publishers, and the former as editor. The change in the proprietorship will undoubtedly be hailed with pleasure by the many readers of the Statesman.

The Enrolling officer is around—as we know to our sorrow—for after dodging him about the city for two or three days, we yesterday, ran plump into his arms, and was surprised at the interest he took in our welfare. He kindly inquired our name, age, residence, occupation and the State of our nativity. We compelled him to promise us a Colonel's commission before we gave him any satisfaction. Our Devil says the officer won't make much by "rolling" him, as he has not had a dollar for the last six months.—Dalles Journal, 13th.

SENTINEL OFFICE, Oct. 24th, 1863.

All out of the Devil's workshop, and gone to the races.

Enter two respectable looking individuals. They resolve themselves Editor and one Devil pro tem. They take possession, and proceed to "biz".

First arrival—Gent with four dollars, who wished to subscribe for the SENTINEL. Took his money.

Second arrival—Gent, with a cabbagehead. Gave him appropriate cabbage-head puff, for which see local column.

Third arrival—Mr. C., who wished to see his last paper. Sent him to C box.

Fourth arrival—Portly individual, wanting two sacks of corn meal. We informed him that we did not keep a grocery store. Portly "individ," knowing more about matters than we, proceeded to the paper room, took on a cargo of meal, and left the office, saying: "Tell the proprietor that I have taken two sacks."

After satisfactorily answering divers inquiries in reference to the news, races, price of cheese, raw-hide, butter and soap grease, and deciding several law-points, we took advantage of the first lull in business and skeddaddled. [Exit Editor and Devil pro tem, with four dollars cash.]

It is said the Oregon Telegraph line will be stretched to this place, on or about the 1st of December.

ITEM FOR THE EXPRESS.—The following beautiful and poetic sentiment, by T'Vault, editor of one of the Copperhead presses in Oregon, should appear in the Marysville Express:

"Oregon is soon to be the theater of non-scription, when her hardy sons and once free American citizens will be seen marching through our towns manacled to a chain—their destiny to become unwilling soldiers—such as has been the case in New York for the past month. O American Liberty! thou art eclipsed and visible all over the world."

About the liberty being eclipsed and visible at the same time requires the eye of a Copperhead politician to understand.—Marysville Appeal.

Old T.V. will tell you it is "as clear as the mid-day sun."

Mr. F. C. Sessions returned to this place a few days since, from San Francisco. He has forwarded a large and valuable stock of general merchandise to Bradbury & Wade, from which our people can select anything in that line they may require, at very low prices.
