

THE OREGON SENTINEL

Double Mottoes for a Double-Faced Party.

I. "We hold these truths to be self-evident, that men are born equal."

II. "By the eternal the Union must and shall be preserved."

"No coercion."

III. "Free speech, a free press and free men."

"No man has a right to discuss the distracting subject of slavery."

IV. "This is a war for the niggers, and let them do their own fighting."

"It is an outrage to put arms in the hands of the blacks."

V. "If the black republicans had their way the niggers would all come north and deprive the laboring man of employment."

"The infernal niggers won't work if they are in a condition of freedom."

Chicago, 24th.—The Richmond Enquirer of October 15th says: "Save on our own terms, we can accept no peace whatever. These terms are—recognition of the independence of the Confederate States the withdrawal of the Yankee forces from every foot of Confederate ground, including Kentucky and Missouri; the withdrawal of Yankee soldiers from Maryland until that State shall decide by a free vote, whether she shall remain in the old Union or ask admission into our Union; consent on the part of the Federal Government to give up to the Confederacy its proportion of the navy as it stood at the time of secession, or pay for the same; the yielding up of all pretension on the part of the Federal Government to that portion of all the territory which lies west of the Confederate States; an equitable settlement on the basis of our absolute independence and equal rights of all accounts of the public debt and public lands."

The Enquirer adds: "The North must yield all—we nothing. The whole pretension of that country to prevent, by force the separation of the States, must be abandoned, which will be equivalent to admitting that our enemies were wrong from the first. Of course, as they have waged a causeless and wicked war upon us, they ought, in strict justice, to be required, according to the usage in such cases, to reimburse to us the whole of our expenses and losses in the course of the war." The Enquirer is frank enough to admit that the Confederacy is not in a position to dictate these terms to its enemies, with Rosecrans still in the heart of the country, and Meade still on Virginia soil, and it is thought to be too soon to propose such conditions; yet it is important to keep them plainly before the eyes of our people as the only admissible basis of any conceivable peace.

THE SEYMOURITE PLATFORM.—The Chicago Tribune prints the platform of the Copperheads in that part of the country. It is the confession of faith of all those back politicians who are endeavoring to save slavery and the slaveholders, under pretense of a love of the Union. Before the election, and in the presence of the voters, such prudent Copperheads as the Seymourites in New York read this platform straight across; but among themselves, or when their election is secured, they break the lines into two columns and read each separately:

| | |
|---------------------------------|-------------------------|
| Hurray for Secession | The Union Is a curse |
| Death to the Federal Government | Jeff Davis Forever. |
| Down with Law and order | Mob rule Shall triumph. |

CAN THIS BE TRUE OF LADIES?—An able writer says:—"I have ever found that men who are really most fond of the society of ladies, who cherish for them a high respect, nay, reverence them, are seldom most popular with the sex. Men of more assurance, whose tongues are lightly hung, who make words supply the place of ideas, and place compliment in the room of sentiment, are the favorites. A true respect for women leads to respectful actions toward them; and respect is usually a distant action, and this great distance is taken by them for neglect and want of interest."

Many people drop a tear at distress who would do better to drop a sixpence.

THE CHANGED POLICY OF ENGLAND ON AMERICAN MATTERS.—That the steam rams will not be allowed to leave the Mersey and the Clyde is more than a report. The Philadelphia Press publishes a letter from a high source, which confidently confirms it, and also throws light on the changing and, indeed, changed policy of England towards this country. It is as follows:

LIVERPOOL, September 12, 1863.

Whatever newspaper reports or even dispatches from the Legation may say, you need have no doubt about the Confederate rams being stopped, as I have assurances from one of the highest officials of the British Government. An entire change has come over the English Government in its relations with us, and they are now most anxious to cultivate a good feeling. The Confederate cause is dead in England. The plans of the Napoleon-rebel Confederates, which looked so promising a few weeks ago, have suffered a sad discomfiture by the change of feeling here. The Paris scheme was to embroil the States and England, and then go in and establish a grand southern empire, with a Napoleon prince at its head, and Slidell, Davis & Co., as managers. The departure of the rams was to produce the wished-for result. It is said that consternation reigns in the rebel councils at Paris. I know that it does here—in England. We have had a narrow escape, but the crisis is past. If France pursues her alliance with the rebels, England is with us. I have trembled at times at the imminence of the danger, but, thank God, it is over, and I have done my share of the work.

RUNNING IN THE FAMILY.—There died the other day at Metz (France) a gentleman connected with the Press, who deserves a word of respectful memory from all the guild. His name was Collignon, printer in that town, and son of a printer in that town, who was a son of another printing Collignon of the same ilk, who was ditto to ditto, and so on up the unbroken, honorable and ancient inky family line to a primary Pierre Collignon, printer at Metz in the year 1646.

Thanksgiving and Prayer.

A PROCLAMATION BY THE PRESIDENT OF THE UNITED STATES.

The year that is drawing toward its close has been filled with the blessings of fruitful fields and healthful skies; to these bounties, which are so constantly enjoyed that we are prone to forget the source from whence they come, others have been added which are so extraordinary a nature that they cannot fail to penetrate and soften even the heart that is habitually insensible to the ever-watchful Providence of Almighty God. In the midst of a civil war of unqualified magnitude and severity, which has sometimes seemed to invite and provoke the aggression of foreign States, peace has been preserved with all nations—order has been maintained, the laws have been respected and obeyed, and harmony has prevailed everywhere except in the theatre of military conflict, while that theatre has been contracted by the advancing armies and navies of the Union. The needful diversion of wealth and strength from the fields of industry to the national defence, has not arrested the plow, the shuttle or the ship; the ax has enlarged the borders of our settlements, and the mines (as well of iron and coal as the precious metals) have yielded even more abundantly than heretofore. Population has steadily increased, notwithstanding the waste that has been made in the camp, the siege and the battle-field, and the country is rejoicing in consciousness of augmented strength and vigor—is permitted to expect a continuance of years, with a large increase of freedom. No human council hath devised, nor hath any mortal hand worked out these great things. They are the precious gifts of the Most High God, who, while dealing with us in anger for our sins, has nevertheless remembered mercy. It hath seemed to me fit and proper, that they should be solemnly and reverentially and gratefully acknowledged, as with one heart and one voice, by the whole American people.

I do therefore invite my fellow-citizens in every part of the United States, also those who are at sea, and those who are sojourning in foreign lands, to set apart and observe the last Thursday in November next, as a day of thanksgiving and prayer to our beneficent Father who dwelleth in the heavens; and I recommend to them, while offering up the ascriptions justly due to him for such singular deliverances and blessings, they do also, with humble penitence for our national perverseness and disobedience, commend to His tender care all those who have become widows and orphans, or sufferers in the lamentable strife in which we are unavoidably engaged, and fervently implore the interposition of the Almighty hand to heal the wounds of the nation, and to restore it, as soon as may be consistent with the Divine purposes, to the full enjoyment of peace, harmony, tranquillity and union. In testimony whereof I hereunto set my hand and caused the seal of the United States to be affixed.

Done at the City of Washington this 3d day of October, in the year of our Lord 1863, and of the independence of the United States the 88th.
By the President, A. LINCOLN.
Wm. H. SEWARD, Sec'y of State.

To the Afflicted.

Of all diseases, the first great cause Springs from neglect of Nature's laws.

SUFFER NOT WHEN A CURE IS GUARANTEED in all Secret Diseases. Self-abuse, nervous debility, syphilis in all its stages, strictures, gleet, gravel, diabetes, diseases of the kidneys and bladder, mercurial rheumatism, scrofula, pains in the bones and ankles, diseases of the lungs, throat, nose and eyes, ulcers upon the body or limbs, cancer, dropsy, epileptic fits, St. Vitus' dance, and all diseases arising from a derangement of the sexual organs, such as nervous trembling, loss of memory, loss of power, general weakness, dimness of vision, with peculiar spots appearing before the eyes, loss of sight, wakefulness, dyspepsia, liver diseases, eruptions upon the face, pain in the back and head, female irregularities, and all improper discharges of both sexes. It matters not from what cause the disease originated, however long standing or obstinate the case, recovery is certain, and in a shorter time than a permanent cure can be effected by any other treatment, even after the disease has baffled the skill of eminent physicians, and resisted all their means of cure. The medicines prescribed are pleasant and without odor, entirely vegetable, causing no sickness, and free from mercury and balsam. During twenty years' practice in Europe, the Atlantic States and California, I have rescued from the jaws of death many thousands who, in the last stages of the above mentioned diseases, had been given up to die by their physicians; which warrant me in promising to the afflicted, who may place themselves under my care, a perfect and speedy cure. Private diseases are the greatest enemies to health, as they are the first cause of consumption, scrofula and many other diseases, and should be a terror to the human family. A permanent cure is scarcely ever effected, a majority of the cases falling into the hands of incompetent persons, who not only fail to cure the disease, but ruin the constitution, filling the system with mercury, which, with the disease, hastens the sufferer into a rapid consumption. But should the disease and treatment not cause death speedily, and the victim marries, the disease is entailed upon the children, who are born with feeble constitutions, and the current of life corrupted by a virus which betrays itself in scrofula, tetter, ulcers, eruptions, and other affections of the skin, eyes, throat and lungs, entailing upon them a brief existence of suffering, and consigning them to an early grave.

SELF-ABUSE is another formidable enemy to health, for nothing else in the dread catalogue of diseases causes so destructive a drain upon the system, drawing its thousands of victims, through a few years of suffering, to an untimely grave. It destroys the nervous system, rapidly wastes away the energies of life, causes mental derangement, prevents the proper development of the system, disqualifies for marriage, society, business, and all earthly happiness, and leaves the sufferer wrecked in body and mind, predisposed to consumption and a train of evils more to be dreaded than death itself. With the fullest confidence, I assure the unfortunate victim of self-abuse that a permanent and speedy cure can be effected, and, with the abandonment of ruinous practices, my patient can be restored to robust and vigorous health.

Irregularities, and all diseases of males and females are treated on principles established by twenty years' practice, and sanctioned by thousands of the most remarkable cures. Medicines, with full directions, sent to any part of the State, Oregon, Nevada and Washington Territories, by patients communicating their symptoms by letter. Business correspondence strictly confidential. Address,

L. J. CZAPKAY, M. D., San Francisco.

The Doctor offers free consultation, and asks no remuneration unless he effects a cure. je26m3p
