

THE OREGON SENTINEL

BANNER PRECINCT.—Hansonville precinct, in this county, sustained its reputation at the late election of being the banner precinct. Twenty-eight votes were polled, every one of which was Democratic. Hurrah for Hansonville!—Express.

Twenty-eight constitutional Democrats. Now we propose to make a fair proposition, based on general principles. We do not know by name or sight one of these twenty-eight constitutional Democrats, but we offer the wager of a new suit of clothes that not one of them ever read the Constitution of the United States, the Constitution of California, or the Constitution of any State in the Union!—Appeal.

WEAL PIE.—We are the great Democratic party," say the Copperheads. Daniel S. Dickinson, in reply, says, "Perhaps they are," and repeats, in addition to his own remark, the profound observation of Mr. Weller, Jr., "Weal pie," said Mr. Weller, Jr., "it is very good if you know the woman as made it, and is sure it aint kittens." Democracy, too, is a most excellent sentiment, and inculcates many sublime truths, but it is well enough to take heed at whose hands you receive it, and be reasonably certain that there are no claws beneath its tempting covering of pastry.

THE LONDON BUILDER says a company has been formed to bring into practical use spiral fluted nail, recently invented in England. They are fluted and twisted in a machine, and are manufactured as cheap as common nails. The holding qualities of the nail are remarkable; no holes are required to be made before driving those of any size, and there is no danger of the board splitting, however near to the edge the nail is driven. The spiral point causes the nail to revolve as it advances, and its tenacity of holding is equal to that of a wooden screw.

The State of society in Paris at this moment is described as bad beyond description. Pleasure, folly, extravagance, recklessness and dissipation are unrestrained. A journal called the Hanneton is largely circulated and yet the grossness of its contents will not bear explanation in English.

A gallant soldier was once heard to say that his only measure of courage was this: "Upon the first fire I immediately look upon myself as a dead man; I then fight the remainder of the day, as regardless of danger as a dead man should be. All my limbs which I carry out of the field I regard as so much saved out of the fire."

When Sheridan found drunk in a coal-hole and questioned as to his name, replied that it was "Witherforce," he did a sufficiently impudent thing. But it was not a touch to the effrontery of a certain Senator, who being picked out of a street ditch by a watchman, and told to give his name, replied, in a guttural voice, "Don't you see I'm Sewer'd?"

A LETTER ADDRESS.—A letter passed through the St. Joseph Post Office, the other day, with the following address.

Feds and Confeds let this go free, Down to Nashville, Tennessee;
This three-cent stamp will pay the cost,
Until you find Sophia Yost.
Postmaster North, or even South,
May open it and find the truth,
I merely say my wife's got well,
And has a baby cross as h—U!"

When a man cannot utter a word of condemnation of Southern treason without including in his censure Northern abolitionists, it is perfectly safe to mark him down as a sympathizer with rebels. The same is true of those who are perfectly willing to hang a Northern abolitionist as an offset to the execution of Southern traitors.—Sacramento Bee.

When Socrates was asked why he had built for himself so small a house, he replied, "Small as it is, I wish I could fill it with friends." These, indeed, are all that a wise man would desire to assemble; for a crowd is not company, and faces are but a gallery of pictures, and talk but a tinkling cymbal, where there is no love.

HEIMSTREET'S

Inimitable Hair Restorative.

IT IS NOT A DYE.

But restores gray hair to its original color, by supplying the capillary tubes with natural sustenance, impaired by age or disease. All instantaneous dyes are composed of lunar caustic, destroying the vitality and beauty of the hair, and afford of themselves no dressing. Heimstreet's inimitable coloring not only restores hair to its natural color by an easy process, but gives the hair a Luxuriant Beauty, promotes its growth, prevents its falling off, eradicates the dandruff, and imparts health and pleasantness to the head. It has stood the test of time, being the original hair-coloring, and is constantly increasing in favor. Used by both gentlemen and ladies. It is sold by all respectable dealers, or can be procured by them of D. S. BARNES, Proprietor, New York.

To the Afflicted.

Of all diseases, the first great cause

Springing from neglect of Nature's laws.

SUFFER NOT WHEN A CURE IS GUARANTEED

in all Secret Diseases. Self-abuse, nervous debility, syphilis in all its stages, strictures, gleet, gravel, diabetes, diseases of the kidneys and bladder, mercurial rheumatism, scrofula, pains in the bones and ankles, diseases of the lungs, throat, nose and eyes, ulcers upon the body or limbs, cancer, dropsy, epilepsy, fits, St. Vitus' dance, and all diseases arising from a derangement of the sexual organs, such as nervous trembling, loss of memory, loss of power, general weakness, dimness of vision, with peculiar spots appearing before the eyes, loss of sight, weakness, dyspepsia, liver diseases, eruptions upon the face, pain in the back and head, female irregularities, and all improper discharges of both sexes. It matters not from what cause the disease originated, however long standing or obstinate the case, recovery is certain, and in a shorter time than a permanent cure can be effected by any other treatment, even after the disease has baffled the skill of eminent physicians, and resisted all their means of cure. The medicines prescribed are pleasant and without odor, entirely vegetable, causing no sickness, and free from mercury and loban. During twenty years' practice in Europe, the Atlantic States and California, I have recovered from the jaws of death many thousands who, in the last stages of the above mentioned diseases, had been given up to die by their physicians; which warrant me in promising to the afflicted, who may place themselves under my care, a perfect and speedy cure.

Private diseases are the greatest enemies to health, as they are the first cause of consumption, scrofula and many other diseases, and should be a terror to the human family. A permanent cure is scarcely ever effected, a majority of the cases falling into the hands of incompetent persons, who not only fail to cure the disease, but ruin the constitution, filling the system with mercury, which, with the disease, hastens the sufferer into a rapid consumption. But should the disease be treated not cause death speedily, and the victim marries, the disease is engrafted upon the children, who are born with feeble constitutions, and the current of life corrupted by a virus which betrays itself in scrofula, tetter, ulcers, eruptions, and other affections of the skin, eyes, throat and lungs, enabling upon them a brief existence of suffering, and consigning them to an early grave.

SELF-ABUSE is another formidable enemy to health, for nothing else in the dread catalogue of diseases causes so destructive a drain upon the system, drawing its thousands of victims, through a few years of suffering, to an untimely grave. It deranges the nervous system, rapidly wastes away the energies of life, causes mental derangement, prevents the proper development of the system, disqualifies for marriage, society, business, and all earthly happiness, and leaves the sufferer wrecked in body and mind, predisposed to consumption and a train of evils none to be dreaded than death itself. With the fullest confidence, I assure the unfortunate victim of self-abuse that a permanent and speedy cure can be effected, and, with the abandonment of ruinous practices, my patient can be restored to robust and vigorous health.

Irregularities, and all diseases of males and females are treated on principles established by twenty years practice, and sanctioned by thousands of the most remarkable cures. Medicines, with full directions, sent to any part of the State, Oregon, Nevada and Wash-
