

THE OREGON SENTINEL

THE ONLY WAY TO PEACE.—Gen. Meade has been presented with a sword which he has so nobly earned, and in his remarks accepting the gift he took occasion to say:

"I have to request of you, gentlemen, who are in civil life, that when you return home, you will spare no effort to make the people understand that all we want are men to fill up our ranks. Send these to us. Give us the numbers, and the war will soon be concluded. I think the rebels are now satisfied that their struggle is only a matter of time, as we have the force on our side, and that as soon as they see that we are bringing out that force in earnest they will yield.

It can only be by a policy rising above all party considerations, getting and keeping the greatest number of men in the field, with the least possible expenditure of friction, that this war will be brought to a successful issue. Whether drafting is or is not the best way of raising men is not the question now before the public. It is the law, and as such should be obeyed. It is a method of supporting the war which at least must prove the most fair and impartial method of obtaining men now, when the largest portion of the North is submitting to it.

Let the wisdom of politicians all over the country be shown, not in thwarting measures even seemingly impolitic for putting down the rebellion, but in making all things work smoothly and effectively for restoring the Union first of all, and above all other considerations, by raising men and sending them forward, and doing everything to make each State united and strong against all discord and indifference. In proportion as this course has been pursued, as it has in this State to a great degree, trouble has been saved, and the honor of the country supported. If the Government calls for militia, give it militia; if for volunteers raise volunteers; if for conscripts, aid the conscription. If colored regiments can be used, by all means let us use them, to save draftable white men. But the first and only question worth considering just now is the speedy and perfect restoration of the Union." Salem (Mass.) Gazette.

GOING TO CHURCH.—I tell you it is a good thing for a man to wash his face clean and put on his best clothes, and walk to the house of God with his wife and children on Sundays, whether he believes it or not. The church is a place where, at the least, good morals are inculcated, and where the vices of the community are denounced. You can afford to stand by so much of the church, and by so doing say, "Here am I and here are mine, with a stake in the welfare of society." The majority of the sermons preached have their foundation in the eternal principles of right—in the broad moralities to which you and every other decent man subscribes. You know that as a system of morals, Christianity is faultless. You know that if the world should live up to the morals of Christianity—we will say nothing about it as a system of religion—there would be no murder, no war, no drunkenness, no licentiousness, no lying, no stealing, no cheating, no wrong; that everywhere men would walk in peace and concord and fraternal affection, and that the golden rule would be the rule of life. The pulpit is the spot of all others in the world where, through the wonderful agency of the human voice, these morals are taught; and do you tell me that you will not go to church because you do not believe in what is taught there? You do believe in at least three quarters of the pulpit.—Timothy Titcomb.

OREGON FINANCES.—We doubt whether there is a State in the Union whose finances has been as well managed as our own. At this time, we fail to remember a single eastern State that is not more or less involved in debt. On the Pacific coast, we find California saddled with a debt that will tax the grand children of her present citizens. Even Washoe, with a territorial existence of little over two years, is about to assume the dignities and responsibilities of a State, with a debt of $100,000 hanging over her. The finances of Oregon were managed differently. When the territorial organization gave way to the State Government, there was a surplus of some $30,000 or $40,000 in the public treasury, and to-day, after sustaining a State organization for over three years, we are untrammelled by debt, and the expenses of the Government are paid in cash. The men who controlled the public affairs of the Territory, and subsequently of the State, are entitled to the credit of having managed the public finances well. We shall be fortunate in the future, if our rulers continue to exercise the same wise economy in the conduct of public affairs.—Mountaineer.

England has concluded to ram no more insults down the throat of Uncle Sam.

To the Afflicted.

Of all diseases, the first great cause Springs from neglect of Nature's laws.

SUFFER NOT WHEN A CURE IS GUARANTEED IN ALL Secret Diseases, Self-abuse, nervous debility, syphilis in all its stages, stricture, gleet, gravel, diabetes, diseases of the kidneys and bladder, mercurial rheumatism, scrofula, pains in the bones and ankles, diseases of the lungs, throat, nose and eyes, ulcers upon the body or limbs, cancer, dropsy, epileptic fits, St. Vitus' dance, and all diseases arising from a derangement of the sexual organs, such as nervous trembling, loss of memory, loss of power, general weakness, dimness of vision, with peculiar spots appearing before the eyes, loss of sight, wakefulness, dyspepsia, liver diseases, eruptions upon the face, pain in the back and head, female irregularities, and all improper discharges of both sexes. It matters not from what cause the disease originated, however long standing or obstinate the case, recovery is certain, and in a shorter time than a permanent cure can be effected by any other treatment, even after the disease has baffled the skill of eminent physicians, and resisted all their means of cure. The medicines prescribed are pleasant and without odor, entirely vegetable, causing no sickness, and free from mercury and poison. During twenty years' practice in Europe, the Atlantic States and California, I have rescued from the jaws of death many thousands who, in the last stages of the above mentioned diseases, had been given up to die by their physicians; which warrant me in promising to the afflicted, who may place themselves under my care, a perfect and speedy cure. Private diseases are the greatest enemies to health, as they are the first cause of consumption, scrofula and many other diseases, and should be a terror to the human family. A permanent cure is scarcely ever effected, a majority of the cases falling into the hands of incompetent persons, who not only fail to cure the disease, but ruin the constitution, filling the system with mercury, which, with the disease, hastens the sufferer into a rapid consumption. But should the disease and treatment not cause death speedily, and the victim marries, the disease is entailed upon the children, who are born with feeble constitutions, and the current of life corrupted by a virus which betrays itself in scrofula, tetter, ulcers, eruptions, and other affections of the skin, eyes, throat and lungs, entailing upon them a brief existence of suffering, and consigning them to an early grave.

SELF-ABUSE is another formidable enemy to health, for nothing else in the dread catalogue of diseases causes so destructive a drain upon the system, dragging its thousands of victims, through a few years of suffering, to an untimely grave. It destroys the nervous system, rapidly wastes away the energies of life, causes mental derangement, prevents the proper development of the system, disqualifies for marriage, society, business, and all earthly happiness, and leaves the sufferer wrecked in body and mind, predisposed to consumption and a train of evils more to be dreaded than death itself. With the fullest confidence, I assure the unfortunate victim of self-abuse that a permanent and speedy cure can be effected, and with the abandonment of ruinous practices, my patient can be restored to robust and vigorous health.

Irregularities, and all diseases of males and females are treated on principles established by twenty years' practice, and sanctioned by thousands of the most remarkable cures. Medicines, with full directions, sent to any part of the State, Oregon, Nevada and Washington Territories, by patients communicating their symptoms by letter. Business correspondence strictly confidential. Address, DR. L. J. CZAPKAY, M. D., San Francisco.

The Doctor offers free consultation, and asks no remuneration unless he effects a cure. Jc2m3p
