

reconstruction, hence our chief care must still be directed to our army and navy, who have thus far borne their harder part so nobly and well. And it may be esteemed fortunate that in giving the greatest efficiency to these indispensable arms, we also honorably encourage gallant men, from commander to sentinel, who uphold and to whom more than all others the world stands indebted for having disenthralled, regenerated, enlarged and perpetuated the home of freedom.

ABRAHAM LINCOLN.

THE PROCLAMATION.

WHEREAS, In and by the Constitution of the United States, it is provided that the President shall have power to grant reprieves and pardons for offenses against the United States, except in cases of impeachment; and whereas a rebellion now exists whereby the loyal States, and governments of several States have for a long time been subverted, and many persons committing and are now guilty of treason against the United States; and whereas, with reference to said rebellion and treason, laws have been enacted by Congress, calling for the forfeiture and confiscation of property, and liberation of slaves, all upon terms and conditions therein stated, and declaring that the President was thereby authorized at any time thereafter, by proclamation, to extend to persons who may have participated in the existing rebellion, in any State or part thereof, pardon and amnesty, with such exceptions and such terms, and on such conditions as he may deem expedient for the public welfare; and, whereas, the Congressional declaration for limited and conditional pardon accords with well established judicial expositions of the pardoning power; and whereas, with reference to said rebellion, the President of the United States has issued several proclamations, with provisions in regard to the liberation of slaves; and whereas, it is now desired by some persons, heretofore engaged in said rebellion, to resume their allegiance to the United States, and reinaugurate loyal State Governments within and for their respective States:

Therefore, I, Abraham Lincoln, President of the United States, do proclaim, declare and make known to all persons who have directly or by implication participated in the existing rebellion, except as hereinafter excepted, that a full pardon is granted to them, and each of them, with restoration of all rights, if third parties shall have intervened, and upon the condition that such parties shall take and subscribe an oath inviolate, and which oath shall be registered for permanent preservation, and shall be of the tenor and effect following, to-wit:

"I do solemnly swear in the presence of Almighty God, that I will henceforth faithfully support, protect and defend the Constitution of the United States, and the Union of States thereunder, and that I will in like manner abide by and faithfully support all the Acts of Congress passed during the existing rebellion with reference to slaves, so long and so far as not repealed, modified, or held void by Congress or by decision of the Supreme Court, and that I will in like manner abide by and faithfully support all proclamations of the President made during the existing rebellion, having reference to slaves, so long and so far as not modified or declared void by decision of the Supreme Court; so help me God."

The persons excepted from the benefits of the foregoing provisions are all who are, or shall have been the civil or diplomatic agents of the so-called Confederate Government; all who have left judicial stations under the United States to aid the rebellion; all who have or shall have been military or naval officers of or above the rank of Colonel in the army, or Lieutenant in the navy; all who left seats in the United States Congress to aid in the rebellion; all who resigned their commissions in the army or navy of the United States, and afterwards aided the rebellion; and all who have engaged in any way in treating colored persons, and white persons in charge of such, otherwise than lawfully, as prisoners of war, and which persons may be found in the United States service as soldiers, seamen, or in any other capacity.

And I do further proclaim, declare and make known, that whenever, in any of the States of Arkansas, Texas, Louisiana, Mississippi, Tennessee, Alabama, Georgia, Florida, South Carolina and North Carolina, a number of persons, not less than one-tenth of the number of votes cast in such State at the Presidential election of the year of our Lord 1860, each having taken the oath aforesaid, and not having since violated it, being a qualified voter by the election laws of the State existing immediately before the so-called Act of Secession, and excluding all others; there shall be established a State Government which shall be republican, and in no wise contravening said oath; such shall be recognized as the true Government of the State; and the State shall receive thereunder the benefits of the constitutional provision which declares that the United States shall guarantee to every State in this Union a republican form of government, and shall protect each of them against invasion, and upon application of the Legislature—or the Executive, when the Legislature cannot be convened—against domestic violence.

Second, I do further proclaim, declare and make known, that any provision which may be adopted by such State Government, in relation to the freed people of such State, which shall recognize and declare their permanent freedom, and provide for their education, and which may yet be consistent as a cotemporary arrangement with their present condition, as a laboring, landless and homeless class, will not be objected to by the National Executive.

It is suggested as not improper that in constructing a loyal State Government in any State, that the name of the same, the boundaries, the sub-divisions, the Constitution and the Federal code of laws, as before the rebellion, may be maintained, subject only to modifications made necessary by the conditions hereinbefore stated, and such others, if any, not contravening such conditions, which may be deemed expedient by those framing the new State Government.

To avoid misunderstanding, it may be proper to say that this Proclamation, so far as it relates to State Governments, has no reference to any States wherein loyal State Governments have all the while been maintained; and for the same reason it may be proper to further say, that whether members sent to Congress from any State shall be admitted to seats conventionally, rests exclusively with the respective houses, and not to any extent with the Executive.

And still further, that this Proclamation is intended to present to the people of the States wherein the National authority has been subverted, a mode by which the National authority over every loyal State Government may be established within said States, or any of them; and while the mode presented is the best the Executive can suggest with his present impressions, it must not be understood that another possible mode would not be accepted.

Given under my hand at the city of Washington, the 8th Day of December, A. D. 1863, and of the independence of the United States the 87th.

A. LINCOLN.

By the President:
WM. H. SEWARD, Sec'y of State.

To give our readers an opportunity of reading the President's Message and Proclamation as soon as possible, we have issued it on half-sheet. On Saturday we will issue another half-sheet, containing local and general news.—ED. SENTINEL.

Congress has been organized. Schuyler Colfax, of Indiana, Speaker of the House. Senators and Representative from the new State of Western Virginia have taken seats. Senator McDougal, of California, voted with the secessionists against their admission. No war news.

To the Afflicted.

Of all diseases, the first great cause Springs from neglect of Nature's laws.

SUFFER NOT WHEN A CURE IS GUARANTEED in all Secret Diseases. Self-abuse, nervous debility, syphilis in all its stages, strictures, gleet, gravel, diabetes, diseases of the kidneys and bladder, mercurial rheumatism, scrofula, pains in the bones and ankles, diseases of the lungs, throat, nose and eyes, ulcers upon the body or limbs, cancer, dropsy, epileptic fits, St. Vitus' dance, and all diseases arising from a derangement of the sexual organs, such as nervous trembling, loss of memory, loss of power, general weakness, dimness of vision, with peculiar spots appearing before the eyes, loss of sight, wakefulness, dyspepsia, liver diseases, eruptions upon the face, pain in the back and head, female irregularities, and all improper discharges of both sexes. It matters not from what cause the disease originated, how long standing or obstinate the case, recovery is certain, and in a shorter time than a permanent cure can be effected by any other treatment, even after the disease has baffled the skill of eminent physicians, and resisted all their means of cure. The medicines prescribed are pleasant and without odor, entirely vegetable, causing no sickness, and free from mercury and balsam. During twenty years' practice in Europe, the Atlantic States and California, I have rescued from the jaws of death many thousands who, in the last stages of the above mentioned diseases, had been given up to die by their physicians; which warrant me in promising to the afflicted, who may place themselves under my care, a perfect and speedy cure. Private diseases are the greatest enemies to health, as they are the first causes of consumption, scrofula and many other diseases, and should be a terror to the human family. A permanent cure is scarcely ever effected, a majority of the cases falling into the hands of incompetent persons, who not only fail to cure the disease, but ruin the constitution, filling the system with mercury, which, with the disease, hastens the sufferer into a rapid consumption. But should the disease and treatment not cause death speedily, and the victim marries, the disease is entailed upon the children, who are born with feeble constitutions, and the current of life corrupted by a virus which betrays itself in scrofula, tetter, ulcers, eruptions, and other affections of the skin, eyes, throat and lungs, entailing upon them a brief existence of suffering, and consigning them to an early grave.

SELF-ABUSE is another formidable enemy to health, for nothing else in the dread catalogue of diseases causes so destructive a drain upon the system, drawing its thousands of victims, through a few years of suffering, to an untimely grave. It destroys the nervous system, rapidly wastes away the energies of life, causes mental derangement, prevents the proper development of the system, disqualifies for marriage, society, business, and all earthly happiness, and leaves the sufferer wrecked in body and mind, predisposed to consumption and a train of evils more to be dreaded than death itself. With the fullest confidence, I assure the unfortunate victim of self-abuse that a permanent and speedy cure can be effected, and, with the abandonment of ruinous practices, my patient can be restored to robust and vigorous health.

Irregularities, and all diseases of males and females are treated on principles established by twenty years' practice, and sanctioned by thousands of the most remarkable cures. Medicines, with full directions, sent to any part of the State, Oregon, Nevada and Washington Territories, by patients communicating their symptoms by letter. Business correspondence strictly confidential. Address,
DR. L. J. CZAPKAY, M. D., San Francisco.

The Doctor offers free consultation, and asks no remuneration unless he effects a cure. jeb20m1p
