

THE OREGON SENTINEL.

"TO THE EFFICACY AND PERMANENCY OF YOUR UNION A GOVERNMENT FOR THE WHOLE IS INDISPENSIBLE."—Washington.

JACKSONVILLE, OREGON.

WEDNESDAY MORNING, DECEMBER 26, 1863.

Union Central Committee.

The members of the Union Central Committee are requested to meet in Salem, on Wednesday, the fifth day of January next. Questions in regard to the time and place of holding a State Convention, and other matters of importance, will be presented for the consideration of the Committee.

A full attendance is desired.

JOHN H. MASON, Chairman.

Salem, Oregon, Dec. 4, 1863.

Resolves of the Democracy.

During the months of October and November, meetings were held by little squads of the faithful friends of Jeff Davis, Vallandigham & Co., in a number of places in Oregon, each respectfully styling themselves the Democracy of Jackson, Douglas, etc. Now, as their champion, Vallandigham and his principles (?) have been repudiated by the people, it is probable that T. V. and the Pigmy Chief, will draw a new set of resolutions, adapted to the altered circumstances necessary for the success of the "Democracy." The following platform said to have been lately adopted by the Democracy of Ohio, is just the "new":

Warfare, democracy furishes best war it is unessential; and warfare, it is a tender flower and don't bear the chilling frosts of adversity much; and warfare, the people live shade by the pickpocket's stole of their vote that they don't like Vallandigham or his principles; and warfare, the people is as near your to us than Vallandigham; therefore, be it

Resolved, That Vallandigham never was a representative of the democratic line.

Resolved, That we do not endorse his views or approve his acts, and never did.

Resolved, That onist old A. Lincoln, by arresting us him, and thereby forcing us into a committee political should be nominated or him war guilty of a heinous crime.

Resolved, That we want our much concerned about our habe corpus or we want above the shakedown.

Resolved, That the war for the Union must go on until its enemies is subjugated, and the banner of duty and glory waves over every spot, and the democratic committees, as the various states be requested to forward a sufficient number of banners, and assist sub-committee to wave em.

Resolved, That we are in favor of subjugation, emancipation, emasculation, taxation, conscription, extermination, nigger enlistment, and of these anything else the people desire, let em write (post-paid) and we'll pass the necessary resolutions.

Reconvened the Court.—On complaint of Marshal Banks, O. Jacobs, Esq., on Tuesday appeared before the town Recorder, U. S. Hayden, to answer for refusing to pay a tax on his poodle dog, as required by a recently enacted Ordinance. There was full as large a crowd in attendance to watch the progress of the trial as there was at the last mass meeting of the "Democracy." J. D. Fay, Esq., attorney for the Plaintiff, and Jacobs & Russell for the defense. Able, eloquent, sharp and witty speeches were made by the legal gentlemen. The Dog Law was torn to shreds, reconstructed, dissolved, and again made whole. At dark the trial closed, and the Recorder, taking the matter under advisement, adjourned the Court. To-day we learn the Court has decided that the proceedings were irregular, and dismissed the suit. We understand that another suit will be institute.

Where is the republican who does not wish to think that a province of Queen Victoria has become an asylum for fugitives from American despotism?—Copperhead paper.

Blush! Lord bless your varlet soul, no—we congratulate Queen Victoria on the precious space of masculinity and treason which she receives and: be: protection.—Sicera Democrat.

CHRISTMAS.—This greatest of all festive days was observed in the usual manner by our people. Santa Klaus paid his annual visit, and with his presents made the youngsters as joyous as only children can be.

Lager beer and "Bohemian Cocktails," well taken before shaker, served to inspire a number who danced all night and went forth to get D. D. in the morning.

The Christmas Trees in the M. E. Church, gotten up by the young ladies of the Sabbath School, were the most tastefully decorated of any we have ever had the pleasure of seeing. The exercises on the occasion, among which were a few eloquent and well-timed remarks by Rev. P. M. Starr, were very interesting.

In the evening the streets of our town appeared almost deserted. Unusual quiet reigned. It was evident that the "Bohemians" had "changed their base," probably to Applegate.

DIMMY LIKE IT.—In the trial before the Recorder's Court, on Tuesday last, the editor of the Gangbook was conspicuously present, with pencil and paper to obtain an item—a witty item at the expense of O. Jacobs, Esq. This gentleman, in the course of his address to the Court, said he had been summoned there to answer for refusing to pay his dog-tax, but thanked God that he had never been brought by warrant into a court room to answer a charge of perjury or fornery. About that time the gay and seductive T. V. ceased reporting. He evidently considered it personal.

IMPORTED JACK.—Mr. Alex. Martin returned from San Francisco this week, bringing with him a thorough-bred imported Maltese Jack. Stock-raisers of Missouri, from which State the jack was lately brought, certify that he was second to no animal of the kind ever in that country. He cost the proprietors, Mr. Martin and John S. Drum, twenty-two hundred dollars. We do not see why male-raising should not be a profitable business in Southern Oregon.

Maj. McLean, formerly of McClellan's staff, suspected of disloyalty from being in bad company, has been ordered to Fort Vancouver, W. T. Why didn't they send him to Dixie or Canada? The service on this coast is already sufficiently cursed with just such officials.

We have received a communication from Roseburg, giving "a faint history of a young lady and a married gentleman," who to the scandal of the community, "love not hatefully but too well." The matter is too local for publication.

From the P. O. Department we learn that Jacob B. Tichnor has been appointed Postmaster at Port Orford, Curry county, Oregon, in place of Wm. H. Dunbar, resigned.

We have on hand a number of communications which we are again compelled to lay over. Our typos have been enjoying Christmas, and as a consequence the paper is a little short of interesting matter.

A man named Hickman, from Yreka, was lately killed by Indians, near Washoe Ferry, on his way to the Owyhee mines. The murdered man left a wife and children at Yreka.

The crossing of Oregon Street, from the Postoffice to the El Dorado corner, is in a miserable condition. Why cannot it be improved?

CHRISTMAS BALL.—The ball at the U. S. Hotel was numerously attended. About sixty tickets were sold. All present will bear witness to the pleasure of the evening.

Senator Nesmith is on the Senate Military Committee, and Committee on Indian Affairs. Senator Harding on Committee on Public Lands.

THANKS—to Mr. E. K. Anderson, of Phoenix, for a pitcher of excellent cider and a basket of fine eating apples.

The Portland Daily Times has entered upon the fourth year of an honorable and useful existence. Long may it flourish!

Rev. M. A. Williams will preach tomorrow at the M. E. Church, at the usual hour.

Gen. McClellan must be a good Union man! T. V. is his champion.

How the Relationship Runs.

THE MARRIAGE.
Married—sometime about the year 1856, by his Satanic Majesty, King Belz-bub, Esq., Mr. Copperhead Democracy and Miss Rattlesnake Slavery, both of the United States.

Slices of the wedding cake were sent to most of the Lousless editors, in consequence of which they have never ceased to puff the (above) union.

THE FIRST BOON.
Born in the summer of 1856, Mr. Le-compton Borden Ruffian son of Mr. Copperhead Democracy. This ungraciously child, born six months after the above marriage, after a few months of sickly existence died from a peculiar disease called Free State.

THE SECOND BOON.
Born at Charleston (S. C.), in the year of grace 1860, Mr. Secession Proslavery Rebellion, son of Mr. C. and Mrs. R. S. Democracy—old Jim Buchanan accoucheur.

This child, which "Looks so much like its daddy," is now going on three years old. Its infancy was marked by so much precocity that it is universally believed that "it is too smart to live." Its back-bone was recently broken by the fall of Vicksburg; its face horribly burned in the battle of Gettysburg, and one of its feet amputated in Ohio. It has been a source of great trouble all its days. Its death, however, is looked for soon. The "old man" they say is "raving mad" through fear that his dear son will die. The old lady is also in a great "pecker," and some of her friends have got the Sympathetic Fits.

THE THIRD BOON.
Born in the city of New York, July, 1863, Mr. Patrick Riot, third son of Mr. C. and Mrs. R. S. Democracy.

This monster baby came very nearly being still-born, but by the aid of Dr. Seymour and "his friends" it lived three days. The fatality which has attended these children shows that no child of these parents can ever live, yet they survive long enough to cause great trouble, and so long as the old folks live there is danger of an increase in the family. It is proposed, therefore, to behind the old woman, to prevent her from generating any further trouble, and to hang the old man to keep him from marrying elsewhere. The people will rejoice, and cry amen at the extinction of the whole race.—Rogue (W.) Weekly Advocate.

Mrs. MAGRUDER AND THE MURDERERS.
Mrs. Magruder, accompanied by her three children visited the prisoners at the Luna House, in Lewiston. Mrs. M. asked them to tell her what they had done with the body of her husband. The prisoners were silent for some time. At length Howard answered that the last he saw of him was about seven miles from East Bannock. She then said to her eldest child: "Johnny, beg these gentlemen to tell you what they did with your father." The child, with streaming eyes, asked them to give him back his father! The mother, then, with frantic grief, implored the men to tell her; and said she had friends who would bring the body to her. The prisoners were very much affected during the scene, and when Mrs. M. had left the room, Howard exclaimed to the guard: "For God's sake don't let that woman come again! My father died suddenly, and I know how that woman feels. She feels like mother did, and if I had a million dollars I would give it sooner than see her again."—H. H. Statesman.

Capt. Keeler informs us that the enrollment has been completed in the counties of Tillamook, Washington, Polk, Josephine, Douglas and Columbia and very nearly completed in several others, while in all, the work is in a state of forwardness. Nine thousand names have been returned. Thus far no opposition of character has been met with, and none is apprehended anywhere. He has been instructed that the enrolling officers are to be discharged as soon as their work is completed, and the deputy marshals (whose business it is to conduct the drafting when it is ordered) are to be discharged at the end of the present month.—Statesman.

An advertiser in a daily paper, who rejoices in the various occupations of doctor, lawyer, justice of the peace, and dry-goods merchant, adds the following to the lists of his pursuits and qualifications: N. B. Auctioneering of the lowest kind interwoven with ventriloquism.
