

THE OREGON SENTINEL

THE ATLANTIC NEWS.
BY CALIFORNIA AND OREGON
STATE TELEGRAPH.

Telegraphed from Yreka to Jacksonville expressly for the Sentinel.

[From the Sentinel Extra, Feb. 1.]
Dates to February 2.

Washington, 1st.—Trumbull's report from Judicial Committee of facts connected with release of James H. Hunt, from from old Capital Prison, recently, exonerates Senator Hale from blame in accepting fees for services in acting as counsel before Judicial bodies.

New York, 2nd.—Herald's special dispatch, says that we are on the eve of war with France. Seward is said to have adopted such a course toward the French Government, concerning Florida and Rappahannock as to elicit a reply from French foreign Minister, in accordance with which United States must either abandon its pretensions, or go to war to maintain them. Minister Dayton was, it is stated, instructed to demand of France retraction of belittling rights accorded to rebels. It is certain there is some serious difficulty with French Cabinet, which alarms all but Seward. He in view of the certainty of war with Europe, takes highest possible ground.

Caleb Lyons, of Lyonsville, N. Y., has been appointed Governor of Idaho.

Contractors on the iron clads Dictator and Paritan have been requested to expedite work upon them.

Richmond papers contain an order from Gen. Lee to his army, which says that he considers it due to his army to state that the temporary reduction of rations is caused by circumstances beyond his control. It hoped that exertions now being made will render the necessity of but short duration.

New York, Feb. 2d.—The Harrisburg Pa. special says a report prevails that Imboden crossed the Potomac three miles below Hancock, Md., and advanced to Chambersburg, through Cumberland Valley, and will reach Harrisburg, if possible. He has no artillery except two sections of 6-pound cannon. There is no adequate force to pursue or interrupt him.

The Philadelphia Enquirer says 1,200 rebels who took the oath of allegiance arrived yesterday from the west. Most of them put in service as sailors.

Information has been received that Gen. Gilmore will come north in two weeks. He is now at Hilton Head. Everything in his department has settled down into the old routine. Several of the best regiments have been sent elsewhere and others are preparing to follow.

Rumors are in circulation of a raid towards Martinsburg, Va., but trains on Baltimore and Ohio R. R. are running regular. Call for troops will necessitate an additional appropriation of $200,000,000.

Fortress Monroe, 2nd.—Richmond papers has the following from Mobile 25th. Twelve transports have passed down the Mississippi within the past 2 days. Gen. Sherman and staff arrived at Louisville.

Court of Inquiry in case of Crittenden and McCook commenced yesterday. Major Gen. Hunter, President of Court.

New York, Feb. 2d.—A correspondent of the Boston Journal, writing from Ship Island, Jan. 28th, says: Last night a small boat came down the Sound with intelligence that the rebels at Fort Morgan had revolted, and the gunboats at Mobile attempted to arrest garrison, the fort opened with every gun and succeeded in driving the boats off.

Jefferson City, Feb. 2d.—Legislature adjourned today to attend the funeral of Gov. Gamble, which will take place tomorrow. Lieut. Gov. Hall's message to the Legislature, announcing the death of Gov. Gamble, concludes as follows: My chief and constant efforts shall be to co-operate with the Federal Government in all efforts to suppress rebellion. In doing this, I shall not be solicitous to find fault with Congress or present Generals in the field. I shall rather offer my objections to whatever I may consider blame-worthy acts, to a more propitious moment, and support the Government of the United States, and endeavor to contribute to the restoration of peace.

Calo, Feb. 2d.—The Little Rock Democrat of Jan. 23d, says: 800 rebels, under Col. Shelby, were defeated on Jan. 19th, 20 miles below Pine Bluff, by Federals under Col. Clayton; fight lasted a half hour; rebels badly beaten and driven seven miles.

Dates to February 3.

New York, 2nd.—Special Herald's dispatch dated Headquarters West Virginia, 1st, states that Col. Mulligan this morning drove the enemy from their position, and reconquered Burlington and Moorfield section in Patterson Creek Valley. At 500 of Rose's rebel cavalry attempted to burn North Branch and Patterson Creek bridges, and cut the telegraph. They were driven off without doing serious damage.

Headquarters Army of Potomac, 2nd.—Intercepted letters of rebel ladies show that of 2,000 cavalry sent into the valley during recent cold weather, not over 500 returned. Many frozen to death, others not-bitten sought refuge in farm houses and villages. Entire movement was a total failure. At last accounts, Early's force was resting on Middle river, near Mount Crawford, having abandoned the enterprise.

Deserters continue to arrive from front, and report great scarcity of provisions and clothing, also large numbers are waiting for proper opportunity to avail themselves of the President's Amnesty Proclamation. Enrollment of civilians, white and colored, within lines of the army, is nearly completed.

Washington, 2nd.—Amendment of the Senate Committee to House bill to increase internal revenue, reported to-day by Fessenden, strikes out provision for tax of twenty cts. additional on rectified spirits, also that which taxes, what lays on hand after Jan. 12th. They increase tax on whiskey after the first of July, and prior to Jan. next, 75 cts; after Jan. 1st 75 to 80 cts. Duty on imported whisky after July 1st, and prior to Jan. 1st, is increased from 46 to 50 cts., and after Jan. next, to 60 cts.

It is satisfactorily ascertained that the report of rebel Imboden crossing the Potomac, is a carnard.

Chicago, 3d.—The Natchez Intelligencer of Jan. 23d, says that deserters who entered the Federal lines a few days previously, reported that a rebel General, with two brigades of Louisiana and Texas troops, was marching from the interior of western Louisiana, intending to blockade the river temporarily, in order to get arms and ammunition. It also says that Bragg and staff were expected to cross there and assume command of rebel forces west of the river. The enemy succeeded week before last in crossing a flatboat containing 1000 stand of arms and a large quantity of ammunition, near Greenville. A company of the 29th Illinois mounted infantry, reported to have been captured 1000 miles in the interior, by rebel cavalry, a few days since.

Fortress Monroe, 2d.—Steamer Union captured the rebel steamer Mayflower in Saratoga Pass, Fla. On the 31st Jan. an expedition went up James river and Ingran Creek to Smithfield; here a force under Captain Lee landed, to march to Choctaw Inlet and destroy provisions and supplies. Within four miles of that place it encountered a rebel force, 200 strong, with 2 pieces of artillery, and routed them; but receiving false information of a heavy force between them and Choctaw, they sent for an armed transport, which owing to heavy fog did not arrive until 12 o'clock Monday. Feb. 1st, the enemy, 500 strong with 4 pieces of artillery, attacked Capt. Lee, who was entrenched at Smithfield, and held out against several furious charges from the enemy until the armed transport, Smith Briggs, arrived. The enemy lost heavily in each attack. They sent three flags of truce demanding a surrender, which Lee refused. On arrival of transport they retreated on board, when the enemy opened a heavy fire of artillery on them. Chief Engineer was wounded and the second missing. This prevented the boat from working off, and she was finally disabled by a ball striking the boiler.

Captain Lee and a portion of his men escaped by going across the river. Among them Capt. Rowe, who was wounded. Our loss in killed wounded and missing was 80; the enemy's loss was 150. It was heavier owing to their superior numbers and making the attack. Soon after capture the Smith Briggs was blown up.

New York, 3d.—The America, from Bremen, via Southampton, has arrived. The rebel loan was 34 and 44 discount. The French Admiral Hamlin is dead. In Italy the Dissert was seized for publishing Garibaldi's address announcing the formation of a committee to promote the Italian Union. The Berlin journals assert that Denmark was ready to participate in the conference proposed by England, provided France will. Prince Charles leaves Berlin Jan. 30th, with his staff and 32,000 Prussian troops. They will be dispatched to Holstein via Hanover, and will cross the Rine without halting. In Austria troops for Schleswig were forwarded on the 20th by special trains carrying 1000 men each via Berlin. France asserts that Prussia and Austria's first act will be to order Prince Augustus to quit Holstein.

Nashville, 2d.—Gen. Dodge reports that on the 24th ult. our forces under Colonel Phillips drove the rebels under Roddy to Sontake, Tenn., and captured all their trains, consisting of over 20 mule teams, 200 cattle, 600 sheep, and 100 horses and mules.

John N. Goodwin has been appointed Governor of Arizona.

Washington, 3d.—500 rebel prisoners at Point Lookout have been enlisted in the U. S. Army. 300 more have petitioned to be allowed to take oath under the amnesty proclamation.

O. E. Bodge, the famous humorist, and E. Haywood the ballad singer, left for California to-day.

Washington, 3d.—Trade restrictions of West Va. have been removed.

New York, 3d.—Western Metropolis arrived from New Orleans. Fifty miles from Tortugas, she captured a blockade runner Rosita of Havana and took her to Key West.

LOCAL PAPERS.—The Boston Journal remarks: "Not a tenth part of the local news which transpires in any country town finds its way into a city paper, and he who takes the latter to the exclusion of his town or country paper, does not fulfill his duties as a citizen."
