

THE OREGON SENTINEL

THE ATLANTIC NEWS. BY CALIFORNIA AND OREGON STATE TELEGRAPH.

Telegraphed from Yreka to Jacksonville expressly for the Sentinel.

[From the Sentinel Extra, Feb. 1.] Dates to January 27th.

Headquarters, West Virginia, 26th.—Gen. Sullivan has just informed Gen. Kelly, from Harper's Ferry, that his scouts have just returned with Richmond papers of the 22d. These papers say Jeff Davis' house was robbed and fired. This is significant. Fire was discovered in time to save the building. Major Quantan of 1st New York cavalry, who commanded the scouts, reports that bands of men are forming to resist rebellion in the neighborhood of Woodstock. The scouts took nine prisoners. Gen. Early is reported to be at Harpersburg with three mounted regiments. Fitz Hugh Lee has gone back to Gordonsville with his command. Col. Mulligan, who has just returned from Portonsburg, West Va., reports no enemy in force in South Branch.

New York, Jan. 26th.—A Washington special dispatch to the Times says: Prominent Germans from the West had arrived here, who report that the Germans have resolved to put into the field for the Presidency a candidate irrevocably committed to the destruction of slavery.

The House Committee will report, tomorrow, a bill establishing substantially the Post Office money order system of England. Gen. McPherson has been ordered to report to Gen. Banks. A special dispatch to the Tribune says: A continuous stream of deserters from the rebels. 30 deserters came in to-day.

The Herald's Army of the Potomac dispatch says Gen. Meade, who is ill at Philadelphia, is recovering, and will soon resume command. It is said that the firing heard on the 23d across the Rapidan was caused by the attempt of one or two rebels to desert.

New York, 27.—An explosion occurred at 55-Maiden Lane. The upper part of the building was entirely destroyed—loss $75,000. One man killed—one wounded.

Nashville, 26th.—Gen. Roseau lately received information that a brigade of rebel cavalry under Forrest, with a battery, was about to cross the Tennessee river at Florence, for the purpose of a raid through Middle Tennessee. This evening Columbia telegraphs that the enemy had left Athens, and were about to move on Columbia. This morning the pickets at Columbia were attacked, the enemy arriving from the direction of Mount Pleasant. It is thought Forrest is moving around Columbia, and will endeavor to destroy Nashville and Western Railroad and obstruct navigation.

Cincinnati, Jan. 27th.—Dispatches from Bridgeport, Ala., says Rebel desertions are unusually large. Last vote for Senator in Kentucky Legislature stood: Guthrie, 51; Bell, 42; Houston, 38. Buckner was withdrawn.

New York, 27th.—A dispatch to the Post, says: It is thought that Garrett Davis will be censured but not expelled from the Senate. Ways and Means Committee have agreed to recommend an appropriation of $100,000 to defray expenses of calling out troops in the several border States.

Montreal, 27th.—James B. Clay, son of Henry Clay, died in this city last night. Leavenworth, 27.—Troops at Ft. Smith are on half rations, owing to defective system of supply. Forage is also very scarce.

The difficulty between Gen. Halleck and Gen. Fremont threatens to delay work on the Pacific Railroad.

Louisville, 27th.—The Nashville Union says deserters who came in yesterday with several well informed parties, one of whom is a refugee from East Tennessee, states that every train from Northern Virginia comes loaded with troops from Lee's army. It is believed that Lee himself, feeling the absolute necessity of the reconquest of East Tennessee, will leave his old command and take charge of the campaign in the region of Nashville. He and Jeff Davis argue that, if Tennessee be not reconquered, Richmond must be abandoned.

New York, 27.—Gold 157.

Dates to January 28.

[From the Sentinel Extra, 2d Feb.] New York, Jan. 28th.—The New York correspondent with the Army of the Potomac, says he had a long interview with an officer high in rank in the army, who has opportunities of frequent conversation with deserters, and he believes there is a general distrust of the fidelity of rebel pickets; that soldiers in Lee's army will grasp, at the earliest possible period, the olive branch of peace held out by the Amnesty Proclamation; that there is actual desertion in the rebel army; that the supply of rations is extremely short, and with the greatest difficulty reaches the army, to make even the smallest allowance; that the supply of forage is so short that cavalry horses are cared for very tenderly, and nearly all picketing is done by infantry. The object is to keep the horses in condition for service, when the spring campaign opens.

Army Potomac, 27th.—It was a Mississippi regiment that opened the ball on Saturday last, by attempting to fight their way out of the rebel lines for the purpose of taking the oath of allegiance. Unfortunately they did not succeed, though they made a brilliant attack. It is expected that full information will reach here shortly by which some idea will be formed of the loss. Twenty to 40 deserters come in to the ranks of the 2d corps daily, and as many to the 3d corps.

A special to the N. Y. Times says a letter from a General from Knoxville, received here, says: "The Rebels here are gathering together all their cavalry, preparatory to a grand raid through Tennessee and Kentucky, to get horses and supplies." If they are successful in Kentucky the writer says they may be tempted to cross the Ohio.

Cincinnati, 27th.—A Chattanooga dispatch says several unimportant cavalry raids have been made recently to cover rebel movements. The Gazette's Nashville dispatch says a persons that left Knoxville on Saturday, Jan. 23d, report skirmishing between Longstreet's cavalry and ours. No doubt is felt that Knoxville can be held. Gov. Johnson issued a proclamation for the election of county officers in counties under the Union flag. Disloyal persons are not allowed to vote, and a very rigid oath is prescribed. It is reported that John Morgan, with several regiments of cavalry, will make a raid in Ky., and through the gaps of the eastern part of the State.

Chicago, 28th.—A Chattanooga dispatch says Johnston's army has fallen back from Dalton. Col. Burke, of the 10th Ohio, with a flag of truce, went out 45 miles but could find no enemy. He has sent in for provisions and followed on. The rebel advance pickets are near Kingston, 40 miles south of Dalton, probably to cover the retreat to Mobile, where Cleburne's division went last Monday, Jan 25th.

Nashville, 25th.—Later information from Gen. Drotge at Paducah, Tenn., date 26th, says the enemy crossed Tennessee river last night and attacked Athens this morning. They were defeated, and are now trying to get back. The troops at Athens had mostly gone to Florence to attack Johnson's forces, and crossing there Col. Harrison, with 600 rebels and two pieces of artillery took advantage of their absence. Rebels badly defeated.

Still later advices received—Dodge badly whipped, Johnston at Florence, in all probability the raid is ended.

San Francisco, 26th.—They commenced discharging the Aquila to-day, and the work proceeds steadily. A large lighter load of iron plates is already received, all the wood work is spoiled but can be readily replaced.

Gold in New York yesterday was 158. Yreka, Feb. 2nd.—The jury in case of Tom King, indicted for murder of a man, on South Fork of Scott river, some months since, returned verdict of guilty of murder in the first degree.

Dates to February 1.

[From Sentinel Extra, Feb. 3] Chicago, Feb. 1st.—The following has been received from Washington: "Washington, Feb. 1st.—It is ordered that a draft of 500,000 men, to serve three years or during the war, be made on the 10th of March."

Signed, ABRAHAM LINCOLN." Under call of Oct. for 200,000 men, about half that number have been filled by volunteering and re-enlistments. The call now made for half a million is interpreted to include the above mentioned call; being in effect a call for 200,000. Volunteering is supposed to furnish at present an average of 2,000 men [per day or week?]

New York, Jan. 28th.—The Herald's army dispatch reports that 130 deserters came into our lines in our squad on Wednesday.

New York, Jan. 31st.—Richmond papers have the following: Russellville, Ten. Jan. 16th.—Our cavalry is still in the vicinity of Knoxville.

Dalton, Ga., 23d.—Forrest is doing good service. He has whipped the enemy at La Grange, Colbyville, and German town. There is a large force in West Tennessee, ready for him.

Charleston, 20th.—The enemy have been engaged all day in hauling ammunition to batteries Gregg and Wagner. Several shells have been fired into the city since last report.

Disatisfaction in Lee's army, in consequence of the reduction of rations, has reached such a pitch as to require the Commissary to issue an order appealing to their patriotism and religion to prevent mutiny.

Fortress Monroe, 30th.—Richmond papers of yesterday, have the following from Charleston up to Jan. 28th. Five shells were fired into the city last night. Enemy still at work on the batteries at Cummings Point, and hauling ammunition to Gregg and Cummings Point batteries. No change in position of the fleet on the 24th, one shot an hour was fired in the city. One hundred and three fuse shells were fired into the city on the 21st.

Nashville, Jan. 29th.—The enemy, 600 strong, attacked our forces at Au (Ga.), but after a fight of 29 hours duration were repulsed. Our loss was 200; the enemy's was much greater. On the 20th, Col. Miller had a severe fight near Florence, Ala., repulsing the enemy. Our loss was 75 killed and wounded.

Washington, Feb. 1st.—From information received from the Navy Department, it appears that few of the obstructions at Charleston, have been washed away. About 100 feet of obstructions floated down at one time, and all that have drifted towards the fleet were rafts, built by the rebels for the purpose of crippling our vessels.

Chicago, Jan. 30.—A Knoxville dispatch of the 22d says our entire forces crossed Holston river to Strawberry Plains, and fell back to a new position. Our loss in stores at Strawberry was quite severe, and several caissons were blown up. Two hundred stragglers were picked up by the rebels after our crossing Holston river. Our corps burned bridges and everything likely to fall into the hands of the enemy, among other things a large lot of clothing. Early on the morning of the 23d the rebels and our sharpshooters were skirmishing across the river at Armstrong, six miles above Knoxville. A squad of Longstreet's men have since been reported within four miles of the city. The movements of the enemy are not clearly understood, and an impression gains ground that Knoxville is on the eve of a siege. Our cavalry went to Colbyville, but did not find any enemy. Dispatches of the 21st say Longstreet was within 25 miles of Knoxville. Heavy skirmishing had taken place, but owing to the indomitable firmness of the Federals, the enemy was compelled to fall back on their line, twenty-two miles from Knoxville.

Knoxville, 26th.—General Foster telegraphed on the 28th that our cavalry, under Gen. Sturgis, achieved a victory over enemy's cavalry, ten miles east of Steverville. Gen. McCook's division drove the enemy two miles, after a stubborn fight, lasting from daylight to 4 p. m. We captured two steel rifled cannon and 100 prisoners. Enemy's loss considerable, seventy-five being killed and wounded in the charge of Hodford's division, which came up in time to be sent in pursuit.

New York, Jan. 31.—The Herald's dispatch, dated headquarters West Virginia, says the garrison at Petersburg evacuated that place on Friday night, having received information that the enemy in large numbers would attack the place next morning. The enemy did attack the place as expected, making regular approaches, and finally charged the works when they found the place empty.

Washington, Feb. 1st.—Private dispatches dated Cumberland, Ga., yesterday, says there was an engagement on the 30th. Lasting four hours in Hardy county, near Williamsport, between part of Kelly's and Early's commands.

Louisville, Feb. 1st.—There was no ballot for Senator Saturday, it being ascertained that by the Constitution of Kentucky the election of Bramlette would require a new gubernatorial election.

New York, 31st.—A New Orleans letter says there are no signs of a forward movement of our army. Some correspondence says another fight is expected at Port Hudson, and large reinforcements have been sent there.
