

Trying the Blind Side.

Copperheads of this County at their County Convention, adopted some resolutions in favor of paying the soldiers in gold coin. That is all right...

These generous Copperheads said that the Indian War scrip for $400,000 to be paid in full in gold...

There are four articles in of the SENTINEL, which should be read by every Union man, and carried to his neighbor. "The Union Compromise," and "Douglas' speech," on the outside, and "Negro property," and "Who began the War," on the inside. Who are too good to be lost. Please send, and you can reply to every article that will be made by the Sentinel.

Oregon Railroad Survey.

We are informed by Col. Barry that he has his party nearly ready, and will start for the Colopsoa Mountains within the next ten days, where he will commence again on the Railroad survey, for an Oregon branch of the Pacific Railroad.

The party will be composed of eight men, the names of all of whom we do not now remember. W. J. Plymale Esq., will accompany Col. Barry as an assistant, and his well known energy and extensive acquaintance in the Willamette Valley will render his services valuable.

The President's Gun.

The following poem, by W. D. Gallagher, Esq., was read at the meeting held in St. Louis to ratify the President's Proclamation: Ratify! ratify!—ratify what? The President's Proclamation! The heaviest gun that has yet been fired...

Henceforth let the President's gun advance

With the armies of the nation; And morning and evening they'll all salute The "rifled" Proclamation.

PHOENIX, May 13th, 1864.

Ed. Sentinel: I write this, that you may put Union voters on their guard against Copperhead tricks, on the day of the election.

THE WRONG HYMN.—A private letter from Alabama, says: Our minister nearly got himself into a scrape the other day; and whether he is a bit of a wag, or a very careless fellow, or an abolition traitor, is now the topic of discussion with us. At the meeting on the fast day he gave out Dr. Watt's hymn, commencing— "And are we wretches yet alive, And do we yet rebel? 'Tis wondrous, 'tis amazing grace, That we are out of hell."

The Candidates at Albany.

The Albany Journal makes the following notice, of the Congressional discussion at Albany:

On Monday, 2d inst., Col. Kelly, and Mr. Henderson addressed a large audience at this place. The Colonel led off in speech of two hours, showing up in the usual Democracy style, the wrongs and outrages practiced upon the South, driving them, as it were, into secession as a measure of defense and self preservation.

We are not disposed to do Col. Kelly any injustice. We believe he has erred, and that he will soon, if he does not already, see it. He has accepted a position, and has taken upon himself issues, in which he fails; and in which he cannot but continue to fail through the canvass.

CANDIDATES ON THE STUMP.—Don't fail to turn out en masse. We presume that Messrs. Jacobs and Fay will make the principal speeches; and if Jacobs don't hold up our end of the cause in a satisfactory manner, we will give up beat.

HON. I. D. HAINES.—This gentleman has declined to run as an Independent Candidate for the Legislature. A card will appear next week.

WILLOW SPRINGS.—A good letter for Union men to read, written by a gentleman at the above named place, will appear next week. It came too late for this issue.

$50 REWARD!

Estrayed from my ranch, on Cottonwood Creek, California, in April, 1864, five head of horses—the last heard of them was at Mr. Griffin's, four miles from Jacksonville, Oregon. One light bay horse seven or eight years old, with collar marks plain, very heavy mane and tail, a little shy about the head to strangers; one bay mare, seven or eight years old, with saddle marks, one off fore and off hind foot white, small white spot on near fore foot, white stripe down the face, had on, when last seen, a cast bell with nothing but a wire for a clapper; one bay horse colt, three years old; with a cross in the forehead, and his right foot white up to his pastern joint, and white on the nose; one brown or bay horse colt, one year old, with fore white feet and a white stripe in the face; one light bay or sorrel horse colt, one year old.

STOP THAT COUGHING!

SOME of you can't, and we pity you. You have tried every remedy but the ONE destined by its intrinsic merit to supersede all similar preparations. It is not surprising that you should be reluctant to try something else, after the many experiments you have made of the trashy compounds foisted on the public as a certain cure; but

Newell's Pulmonary Syrup

Is really the very best remedy ever compounded for the cure of coughs, colds, sore throat, asthma, whooping-cough, bronchitis and consumption.

Thousands of people in California and Oregon have already been benefited by the surprising curative powers of

Newell's Pulmonary Syrup,

And with one accord give it their unqualified approbation. We now address ourselves to all who are unequalled with this, the great panacea of the age, for the healing of all diseases of the throat and lungs, assuring you that

Newell's Pulmonary Syrup

Has cured thousands, and will cure YOU, if you try it.
