ANOTHER RAILROAD BILL.—A bill has been introduced into the House of Representatives, providing for aid to construct a Railroad from Lake Superior to Puget Sound. The telegraph does not inform us, but from late movements among the Railroad men of Minnesota and Wisconsin, we are led to conclude that this new enterprise is projected by the Congressmen of those States. It is, to say the least of it, a matter of vital consequence to Oregon, no matter who is at the bottom of it. This new bill projects a road on the Northern route of the three proposed by leading Statesmen a few years ago. The Central route has already been recognized by Congress and grants made in aid of it. One of these two terminates at San Francisco and the other at Puget Sound, and between them and far distant from each, lies the State of Oregon. The building of both these Railroads, would help Oregon but little, and certainly be of no local advantage. If Congress should grant aid to this new Northern project, it would never grant anything to a middle route tapping Oregon, and hence it becomes a question involving the interests of every citizen, and the great future of the State. Before the next sitting of Congress, the wishes and interests of the citizens of Oregon ought to be consolidated upon some one enterprise that would give this State the direct advantage and benefits of a branch of the Pacific Railroad.

WILLOW SPRINGS, Jackson Co., Ogn., May 19, 1864. Mr. Editor Sentinel:—I think it about time that we, as Union men, should inquire who are Union men? Do the loyal men of Jackson county believe that a man is a sound Unionist who does all that he can to defeat the Union ticket, or any part thereof. From what I can learn, Mr. I. D. Haines is doing all he can to defeat our regular nominees for the Legislature, by allowing his own name to be used as an independent candidate. Certain it is, that Mr. Haines expects to draw some votes from all of the other candidates, and there by effect a triumph of the opposition. I also understand, from good authority, that our present sheriff is doing all he can in the way of electioneering for W. A. Owen, who is a candidate for Sheriff, and I hope no man will vote for him (Owen) who is not well coppered like himself.

Is this Unionism—standing in the way of the Union ticket and electioneering against it. These things are not to be winked at by the lovers of the glorious Union. I would say to the Union voters of Jackson county, be on your guard on election day. Examine your tickets, and vote for none but the regular nominees of the Union Convention. Those nominees are tried Union men, and are not found wanting. WM. KAHLER.

STRAWNS.—The carrier of the Intelligencer says that there is no truth in the telegraphic dispatches, because Col. Drew says so. Likewise the Intelligencer, Review, and all the rest say the same thing, whenever there is glorious news for the Union men.

Another: A reliable Union man informs us that Drew, in his street conversation, discourages all efforts to aid the noble and patriotic Sanitary Commission, and says that it looks as if the Government was a beggar, on the charities of the people.

THE DISCUSSION.—The political discussion in this county is now in full blast, and is going on hugely. On the first round, last Saturday at the Court House, Fay and T'Vault got badly cleaned out by Croxton and Dowell. T'Vault put on his dignity and leaned back in disgust at the idea of candidates for Prosecuting Attorneys, discussing the party platforms.

We advise everybody to turn out and hear for themselves. Listen patiently and without prejudice, and then vote your honest convictions.

TAXING THE MINES.—The Intelligencer charges that the Union party is in favor of taxing the mines, and that the Democrats are opposed to it. T'Vault and everybody else knows that the Union party of Oregon and California is opposed to taxing the mines, and is pledged to that position. The fact is that everybody of all parties on the Pacific coast, is opposed to taxing the mines. There is no sense in killing the goose that lays the golden egg.

BROUGHT TOO WITH A ROUND TURN.—The Copperhead orators hereabouts, and in fact throughout the State, have indulged themselves in any amount of abuse of the "New Code," and charging that it is in favor of Negro equality, Chinese equality, &c., by admitting these classes to testify in the courts; and they argue that as the last Legislature was largely Union, and that as it adopted the Code, therefore the Union party in Oregon is in favor of negro equality. As Mr. Fay was rehearsing the old story at Dardanelis the other day, Mr. Croxton brought him suddenly to a dead halt by blandly inquiring if (Col. Jas. Kelly, Democratic candidate for Congress was not one of the three Commissioners who drafted the said Code. An overwhelming necessity compelled Mr. Fay to weaken on that point, then and there.

PAY THE SENTINEL.—Those who are indebted to the SENTINEL must come forward and pay up. We want money to pay the printers, and those who are in arrears must furnish it, or their paper will be stopped. If Union men, and especially candidates and aspirants for office, do not wish to support the paper that supports their claims, it is their fault and their funeral. If the paper stops, not ours. The SENTINEL printers neither ask nor expect anything of the Union party, neither do they intend to work for nothing and board themselves.

HAINES' PLATFORM.—The evening of the day on which the Intelligencer was published, Isaac called round to Maj. Glenn's office and received the congratulations of that distinguished functionary in the Copperhead camp. The Major told Isaac that he approved of his platform, that he was in favor of it, and by this we are to understand that Drew is in favor of it also. Union men, when such men as Glenn and Drew approve of a man's political platform, look out for Copperheads in the grass.

If there be a fiery depth to which no devil will descend, it should be the Traitors' reserve, the fearful abode of outcast ghosts, damned utterly beyond the economy of God's common wrath, and too foul to be preyed on by the worm that never dies.—Daily Flag.

That is what might be denominated "Chain Lightning."

RETURNED.—The Hon. A. M. Berry has returned to Jacksonville; the reason for which, we learn, is, that the party could not pass over the new Wagon Road, on account of the great depth of the snow. This is proving a serious obstruction to travel in that direction.

The Fourth Quarterly meeting of the M. E. Church for Jacksonville circuit will be held June 4th and 5th, in the grove about one hundred yards from Mr. Heber's residence. We invite all to attend and bring their lunch with them. Service at 11 and 3 each day. G. HINES P. E. P. M. STARR, P. C.

A SLANDER NAILED.—See E. F. Russell's card in another column, with respect to the slanderous canard put in circulation by certain Copperheads. Mr. Kincaid's sworn statement convicts certain gentlemen of engaging a very dirty business.

THE FOUR G's.—One of the prominent candidates for Congress at the next election, says that he has great faith in the four G's to settle the rebellion properly—God, Grant, Gunpowder and Greenbacks.—Daily Bee.

SENATOR HARDING, will please accept our thanks for copies of the Globe, and other valuable documents.

SPRIGHTLY.—The Daily Mountaineer for May 19th, contains only ten editorial items pitching into Judge Wilson.

Born.—To the wife of PATRICK DONEGAN, on Sunday, the 22d, inst. a son.

Final Settlement.—In the matter of the estate of James Tirrell, deceased: Notice is hereby given to all persons interested in said estate, that Tuesday, the 5th day of July, 1864, has been set apart for the final settlement of said estate, with Thomas Croxton, the administrator thereof.

By order of Hon. Benj. Holsclaw, County Judge. GUSTAF WILSON, Clerk of Josephine Co., Ogn.

N. B. The estate of Jerome Dyer, with Thomas Croxton, Administrator, will be settled at the same time. GUSTAF WILSON, Clerk.

SPECIAL NOTICES.

Academy for Young Ladies, JACKSONVILLE, OREGON.

This Institution will be conducted by the Sisters of Jesus and Mary, and will be situated in the healthy and accessible town of Jacksonville. The plan of instruction will embrace the various branches of instruction usually taught in the most approved seminaries or academies. Its aim will be to form young ladies in science and virtue, to accustom them to early habits of order and economy, and to cultivate in them those qualities which render virtue both amiable and attractive. The most conscientious and unremitting attention will be given to the advancement of the pupils in the principles and practice of christian virtue, as well as to their intellectual improvement. Particular care shall be directed toward the promotion of refinement of manners, and the constant maintenance of a polite and amiable deportment. The discipline shall be kind and parental and the Sisters will use every endeavor to secure the health, comfort and happiness of those committed to their charge. No tuition will be paid to the personal neatness of the pupils. Pupils of any religious denomination shall be received. It is not in the plan of the sisters to interfere with the religion of the pupils, except with the Catholics. The Academy will be under the direction of an Order that has obtained at French Prairie, at Salem and especially at Portland, a wide-spread celebrity as teachers; then, it will not be wonderful that it shall be well patronized, nor that the advantages there enjoyed by pupils shall be appreciated by so many parents outside of the Catholic community. All the different denominations bear testimony to the bright character of the Institution, and point to the influence it has already exercised on the manners and morals of the community, and the greater influence it is destined to exercise hereafter, an influence which will not end with the present, but affect generations yet to come. If we want to have fruits in our garden, we plant and cultivate fruitful trees in like manner, if we desire to see in this part of Oregon and in the vicinity, the happy results of such an Institution as the Sisters' Academy, we must establish it and support it. For this purpose, we have only to consult our charity and generosity. The education of a multitude of children, the cure of the sick, the distribution of assistance to the poor, in a word, all the treasures of christian charity are distributed with open hands, but with intelligence by the Sisters of Charity. Nothing, consequently, deserves more encouragement, nothing is more worthy of our patronage and protection than this charitable Institution. The example of our brethren of every religious denomination, who, on similar occasions, at Salem, at French Prairie and at Portland, seem to be actuated with unfeigned zeal, should excite in us a holy emulation, to exercise our humanity and justify our charity to the establishment of the Academy. Trusting to the past liberality shown to us, a collection shall be started for the purpose of purchasing a convenient ground, and building a comfortable house for the Sisters' School.

F. X. BLANCHET, Pastor, St. Joseph of Jacksonville.
