National Union Platform. Mr. Raymond, from the Committee on Resolutions, reported the following:

Resolved, That it is the highest duty of every American citizen to maintain against all their enemies the integrity of the Union...

Resolved, That we approve the determination of the United States not to compromise with the rebels, or to offer any terms of peace except such as may be based upon an unconditional surrender...

Resolved, That as slavery was the cause and now constitutes the strength of the rebellion, and must be always and everywhere hostile to the principles of a republican government...

Resolved, That the next resolution thanks soldiers and sailors of the army and navy for their gallant and heroic achievements in the defence of the country.

The following resolution approves the practical wisdom and unselfish patriotism of Abraham Lincoln; indorses as essential to the preservation of the nation and the Constitution, the measures and acts by which he has defended the nation against open or secret foes...

Resolved, That the Government owes to all men employed in the army, without regard to color, the full protection of the laws of war, and that any violations of those laws by the rebels should be made the subject of full and prompt redress.

Resolved, That we are in favor of a speedy construction of a railroad to the Pacific. Resolved, That the National faith, pledged for the redemption of the public debt, must be kept inviolate...

Resolved, That we approve of the position taken by the Government, that the people of the United States can never regard with indifference the attempt of any European power to overthrow by force or supplant by fraud the institutions of any republican government on the western continent...

Resolved, That the Government owes to all men employed in the army, without regard to color, the full protection of the laws of war, and that any violations of those laws by the rebels should be made the subject of full and prompt redress.

The next resolution favors fostering and encouraging a foreign immigration.

Resolved, That we are in favor of a speedy construction of a railroad to the Pacific.

Resolved, That the National faith, pledged for the redemption of the public debt, must be kept inviolate, and for this purpose recommend economy and rigid responsibility in public expenditure, a vigorous but just system of taxation; and that it is the duty of every loyal State to sustain the credit and promote the use of the National currency.

Resolved, That we approve of the position taken by the Government, that the people of the United States can never regard with indifference the attempt of any European power to overthrow by force or supplant by fraud the institutions of any republican government on the western continent...

Resolved, That the reading of the resolutions was frequently interrupted by applause.

On motion the resolutions were adopted by acclamation.

Honor to the Brave Boys of Co. "C."

A COPPERHEAD HISSED OUT OF CAMP. FORT KLAMATH, OREGON, June 11th, 1864.

Ed. Sentinel: Having seen no communications in your paper from this place for some time, I thought that the relation of a few things that have transpired here within the last few days might be of interest to the readers of the SENTINEL.

The election passed off quietly, and out of ninety votes there was but one Secesh vote cast, and that was by Col. J. E. Ross, who was here in Government employ as guide and interpreter.

Accordingly, within an hour, Col. Drew was handed a petition, signed by the whole company, requesting the immediate dismissal of Ross from Government employ.

This was a stunner to both Colonels Drew and Ross. Col. Drew tried to argue the boys out of it, and said the expedition would have to stop if Ross was discharged, but the boys were firm, and the portly satellite must take his departure.

He no doubt will find sympathy among his coppery friends in Jacksonville.

Times are quite lively here now. We were paid off a few days since, and Greenbacks are circulating freely.

The steam saw-mill has commenced operations, and the sound of the mechanic's hammer, mingled with the notes of the bugle, the clang of sabres, and the tramp of horses, gives things an air of thrift and life, after our long and monotonous winter.

The weather is quite cool, and overcoats are comfortable.

PERSONAL.—C. C. Beekman, Esq., left on Tuesday morning last for San Francisco, carrying with him something over $1,000 for the Sanitary Commission, which he will deliver in person to Dr. Bellows.

Mrs. Tenbrook, wife of Mr. A. Tenbrook, left on Thursday morning for Hancock City, I. T., where she will join her husband, who has valuable mining claims up there. We wish her a safe and pleasant trip.

MARRIED. —In Crescent City, Cal., June 11th, by Rev. J. J. Cleveland, Mr. W. C. RANSON, of Jackson county, Oregon, to Mrs. E. M. NICKLE.

TO STOCK RAISERS. PERSONS owning no shares, who may desire to breed to the Thorough-bred Morgan Stallion Vermont, can make arrangements with the undersigned to do so, as he is the owner of a few more shares than he has mares to breed. The horse stands in Jacksonville, and the undersigned can always be found at his stable. R. S. BELKNAP. Jacksonville, April 22, '64. sp123w4
