

GOVERNMENT.—The returns of the election, which we publish to-day, show that Salem has received a majority of 57 over all other towns. Portland is the next highest, has 3,860 votes, more than Salem by 2,217. When we consider the indifference to the Capital which the more important main branches of the people rendered their votes, we may congratulate ourselves that the people rendered their votes with such signal good sense and appreciation of the real interests of the State.

We offered some of our friends to set forth the many cogent reasons why Salem should be chosen in preference to all the other places proposed, they will pardon us now by uniting in rejoicing at the sensible decision of the people.

Notice that some benighted individual is enlisted in voting for Corvallis, Klamath, Granite Creek and Eugene City. These places were yet in the list of candidates. The same ones will not vote for Jackson for President in November, not being aware that he has been some time ago.—Statesman.

THE HANK MANUFACTURE MOVEMENT.—A letter from New York city says: The movement for the curtailment of foreign imports, in order to stop the afflux of a rapidly extending itself. At a meeting at the mansion of one of our wealthiest merchants, in Thirty-fourth street, Lexington Avenue, a neatly bound "pig" was handed around among the guests, thus committing them to buying, for the present, any more luxuries. Of course everybody present, and when the assemblage was dispersing, the hostess announced that at her entertainment, her guests would be expected to come, the ladies in calico, and the men in satin and corduroy.

McDOWELL.—The Washington correspondent of the Bulletin, under date of 11th, writes: Major-General McDowell has left the city to take his command for California, as Commander of the Department of the Pacific. Though he has been very unfortunate in his career during the last three years, nevertheless a thoroughly loyal citizen and accomplished soldier. The charge of intemperance and disloyalty freely leveled against him never had a shadow of just basis, as all who are in contact with him will readily testify.

A GOOD CHANGE.—Here is a rare chance to spend your money. The sheriff has offered the OREGON SENTINEL press, type, etc. for sale, and if you wish to get rid of your money in a hurry, just buy it and continue the publication of the paper. According to a rough calculation, a number of enterprising Union men have expended within the last three years, in labor and cash, about five thousand dollars, over and above the income of the office, in order to run the paper. They now propose to let go, and let some other man try it, if he wants to. We understand the paper will be continued under the auspices of Mr. Dowell. We would be glad to see him do so, and hope that he will be able to make it pay, and labor zealously for the election of Lincoln and Johnson.

The subscription books and accounts of the SENTINEL will remain in the hands of J. GASTON, for settlement, until further notice.

BROWN'S BRONCHIAL TROCHES FOR COUGHS AND COLDS. A neglected cough, cold, an irritated or sore throat, if allowed to progress, results in serious pulmonary, bronchial and asthmatic diseases, oftentimes incurable. Brown's Bronchial Troches reach directly the affected parts, and give almost immediate relief. For bronchitis, asthma, catarrh, and consumptive coughs, the Troches are useful. Public Speakers and Singers should have the Troches to clear and strengthen the voice. Military officers and soldiers, who overtax the voice and are exposed to sudden changes, should use them. Brown's Bronchial Troches, having proved their efficacy by a test of many years, are highly recommended and prescribed by physicians and surgeons in the army, and have received testimonials from many eminent men. SPECIAL NOTICES. Academy for Young Ladies, JACKSONVILLE, OREGON.

This Institution will be conducted by the Sisters of Jesus and Mary, and will be situated in the healthy and accessible town of Jacksonville. The plan of education will embrace the various branches of instruction usually taught in the most approved seminaries or academies. Its aim will be to form young ladies to science and virtue, to accustom them to early habits of order and economy, and to cultivate in them those qualities which render virtue both amiable and attractive. The most conscientious and unremitting attention will be given to the advancement of the pupils in the principles and practice of christian virtue, as well as to their intellectual improvement. Particular care shall be directed toward the promotion of refinement of manners, and the constant maintenance of a polite and amiable deportment. The discipline shall be kind and parental; and the Sisters will use every endeavor to secure the health, comfort and happiness of those intrusted to their charge. Scrupulous attention will be paid to the personal neatness of the pupils. Pupils of any religious denomination shall be received. It is not in the plan of the sisters, to interfere with the religion of the pupils, except with the Catholics. The Academy will be under the direction of an Order that has attained at French Prairie, in Salem and especially at Portland, a wide-spread celebrity as teachers; then, it will not be wonderful that it shall be well patronized, nor that the advantages there enjoyed by pupils shall be appreciated by so many parents outside of the Catholic community. All the different denominations bear testimony to the bright character of the Institution, and point to the influence it has already exercised on the manners and morals of the community, and the greater influence it is destined to exercise hereafter, an influence which will not end with the present, but affect generations yet to come. If we want to have fruits in our garden, we plant and cultivate fruitful trees; in like manner, if we desire to see in this part of Oregon and in the vicinity, the happy results of such an Institution as the Sisters' Academy, we must establish it and support it; for this purpose, we have only to consult our charity and generosity. The education of a multitude of children; the care of the sick; the distribution of assistance to the poor; in a word, all the treasures of christian charity are distributed with open hands, but with intelligence by the Sisters of Charity. Nothing, consequently, deserves more encouragement; nothing is more worthy of our patronage and protection than this Charitable Institution. The example of our brethren of every religious denomination, who, on similar occasions, at Salem, at French Prairie and at Portland, seem to be actuated with uncommon zeal, should excite in us a holy emulation, to exercise our humanity and testify our charity to the establishment of the Academy. Trusting to the past liberality shown to us, a collection shall be started for the purpose of purchasing a convenient ground, and building a comfortable house for the Sisters School. F. X. BLANCHET, Pastor, St. Joseph of Jacksonville.
