

Uncle Abe Right.

All distinctly remember how many times and how often the Copperhead press have changed, that had the President when Gen. McClellan was in front of Richmond...

From a private letter written by Lieut. Edward, dated Fort Klamath, July 15, we give the following items: He acknowledges himself indebted to the press for the news of his intention to resign...

On OREGON AREA.—The first number of the Journal, a copperhead organ published at Salem, and edited by G. B. Bellin, has just been received and placed on the newsstand...

Our opposition, effective as we believe, belongs to the twin imbeciles of Richmond and Baltimore. Our humblest wish for the Chicago nominee...

How many your chicks before they are hatched. Mr. Adams, when so many hens are set on the same nest, they set such a healthy chicken.

Next.—Thos. H. Pearce was yesterday Thursday last, on his return from the East. He will be in Jacksonville Monday evening, and address a public meeting in favor of Lincoln...

THE SEASON.—Our old friend of the most excellent water, "rusted" into our office one week, with one of those delicious dishes for which his farm is so celebrated...

an old and untamed resident of the Valley died at his residence near the house, on the 15th inst., after a long illness.

Thursday's Dispatch.

New York 18th.—Ninra Falls Telegram says O. C. Clay of Alabama, Jacob Thompson of Miss., Beverly Tucker of Va., and Gen. L. Sanders, are at that place devising a base of action for the Chicago Convention...

New York, 19th.—A correspondent of the Herald, under date of the 14th, says the rebels shelled R. B. Foster's headquarters at Steep Boston, for over an hour on that day. Their range was so accurate that the headquarters had to be moved several times...

Chicago, 19th.—A report says the rebel force invading Kentucky is estimated at from five to fifteen thousand. It entered the State via Pound Gap, two days since, and is now at Martinsdale Florida county...

Louisville, 18th.—The Journal is advised that on the morning of the 14th, a large rebel force, said to be commanded by Forrest, captured a stockade at Brownsboro, on the Memphis and Charleston railroad...

Further Point, 18th.—Steamer from Liverpool 7th, and London 8th, has arrived. Rumors, unfavorable to Grant, caused an advance of two or three per cent on the Confederate loan. The London Times says Grant's campaign is now reduced to the question of Petersburg or nothing...

San Francisco 20th.—Gen. McDowell issued general order, requiring all persons and their baggage, for Panama, to be rigorously searched for arms.

Friday's Dispatch. New York, 20th.—The Tribune learns from a credible source, that Gen. Hunter demanded to be relieved of the command of the Department of West Virginia, in consequence of all his available troops having been ordered to report to Gen. H. S. Wright...

Philadelphia, 19th.—The damage to the railroad has been fully repaired, and trains are running regularly to and from Washington.

ington. A correspondent from the Army of Potomac says the artillery fight of the 15th lasted two hours, when our shells burst directly in the rebel embrasures, destroying cannon and forcing them to retire. They lost six guns. Breastworks lately occupied by the enemy, bearing on our advance towards Petersburg have been destroyed.

Fortress Monroe 18th.—Our men as fast as captured by the enemy are removed to Georgia; privates to Andersonville, officers to Mason. Richmond, Englewood 16th, has the following: Atlanta 14th, 2 brigades of Yankee cavalry crossed the Chattahoochee at Morris' bridge nine miles from Newnan last night. They were met by Armstrong's brigade of cavalry, driven back and bridge burned; no change in situation in front, the enemy using artillery, occasionally across river.

Charleston, 15th.—Enemy are evacuating Johnson's Island. It is noticed that transports are quite busy moving troops, chiefly to Morris Island. Bombardment of Sumter still kept up.

Memphis, 18th.—We are indebted to an officer of Gen. Washburne's staff for the following: On the 5th of July, Gen. Washburne sent a force of infantry, cavalry and artillery to Lagrange, Tenn., under Maj. Gen. A. J. Smith, with Brigadier Gen. Mower and Grierson, with instructions to pursue Forrest, bring him to bay, fight and whip him. Their orders were to pursue him to Columbus, Mississippi, if they did not overtake him this side of that point.

Washington, 19th.—Sherman announces on the 18th, having previously arrived at Chattahoochee, that his whole army advanced five miles south of Beech Tree Creek. The advance was made without resistance, except a slight skirmish with the rebel rear as they retreated. This necessarily forces Johnston into the defenses at Atlanta, and places the city within the range of Sherman's guns. Subsequent to crossing the Chattahoochee, Sherman occupied his troops in tearing up the railroad, which was of great importance to the rebels. The 10th and 20th corps have been consolidated, forming the 20th corps, under Hooker.

Halifax, 19th.—European advices say the steamer supposed to be for the Confederates, has been sold to Prussia. Great Eastern left London on the 10th to take on Atlantic Cable.

San Francisco 21st.—Legal Tenders 40 @ 40 1/2.

Dove gone.—An Orange got very badly squeezed in Jacksonville on election day. They say it was a dark, thick-skinned, scurvy, very dry Orange, and much decayed. Bad fruit.—Eugene City Review.

Not so badly squeezed after all. Mr. Jacobs ran ahead of his ticket and was only defeated by two majority. Since the election two Democratic Justices of the Peace, each having received the same number of votes, and each claiming a certificate of election, had a pleasant (?) contest before Judge Tollman for the immortal honor of being esquire. The result showed that there were five illegal votes cast in one precinct, every one of which were cast against Mr. Jacobs. Such kind of voting—peculiar alone to modern Democracy—might possibly squeeze "the oldest man living."

Sudden Death.—Sam P. Strang, a private soldier, belonging to Co. C, of Fort Klamath, died very suddenly in the street, on Thursday afternoon. Running up towards Wetterer's Brewery for the purpose, as he said, of overtaking the butcher wagon, he fell down, apparently under the influence of liquor, and was removed to the shade, where he died in fifteen minutes afterwards.

Raid on Fort Klamath.—Judge Prim, J. T. Glenn, W. H. S. Hyde, J. D. Fay and John Steers, started yesterday for Fort Klamath on a rusticking tour.

May the spirit of hilarity, as it Steers them o'er each bill and Glenn, not Hyde its "Prim face among the lilies" like the culprit Fay, should mishap befall them on their way.
