WHAT KILLED HIM? Dr. HALL, in his "Journal of Health," speaking of the death of Washington Irving asks the above question, and adds: "He might well have remained with us for years to come, had it not been for advice kindly intended, no doubt, but given in thoughtlessness and reckless ignorance."

HE HAD A COLD! the world never saw a better remedy, and never will, until Nature presents some new ingredient out of which to prepare it.

Better Family Medicine! Keep it in the house, use it freely, give it to your children upon the slightest indication of a cold, and you will think and speak of it as all do that have become acquainted with its merits.
