THE EFFICACY AND PERMANENCY OF YOUR UNION: A GOVERNMENT FOR THE WHOLE IS IMPERISSABLE.—Washington.

JACKSONVILLE, OREGON.

SATURDAY MORNING, SEPT. 17, 1864.

List of Agents for the Oregon Sentinel.

- List of agents for the Oregon Sentinel in various locations including San Francisco, Portland, and other Oregon cities.

THE ISSUE.—The National Union Committee have laid down the following distinct platform as the issue of the forthcoming Presidential contest:

THE UNCONDITIONAL MAINTENANCE OF THE UNION, THE SUPREMACY OF THE CONSTITUTION, AND THE COMPLETE SUPPRESSION OF THE REBELLION, WITH THE CAUSE THEREOF, BY VIGOROUS WAR AND ALL APPROPRIATE MEANS.

NATIONAL UNION CONVENTION NOMINEES.

FOR PRESIDENT, Abraham Lincoln.

FOR VICE PRESIDENT, ANDREW JOHNSON, OF TENNESSEE.

For Presidential Electors, JAS. F. GAZLEY, of Douglas county. H. N. GEORGE, of Linn county. GEORGE L. WOODS, of Wasco county.

THIS AFTERNOON

A meeting of Union Men

Will be held at the COURT HOUSE, at two o'clock P. M., for the purpose of forming a Lincoln and Johnson Club.

Who is to be Cheated?

McClellan has accepted the nomination tendered to him by the Chicago Convention. He has thereby lost the only opportunity that he will ever have to render his name illustrious and immortal.

Their Organ.

If their organ is an exponent of the Democracy of this county, they are truly in a deplorable condition. Out of the many printers who want employment on the coast, and notwithstanding the oft repeated notice, inside and outside, of the Unintelligent Sir, that "we would be glad to employ one or two good printers," no one can be induced to embark in so doubtful a speculation as that of running the Copperhead machine of Jackson county.

Two classes of men are expected to support this military demagogue. Those who are known as War Democrats, and those who believe with old Buchanan, that the Government possesses no power to coerce a sovereign State.

Now nothing is more certain than that one of these classes in supporting McClellan will be deceived—shamefully deceived and sold by the result of the election.

Remember the Union meeting, at two o'clock, this evening.

ular, and to lick the hand which has so often, and so repeatedly smote them? Once more we ask, who is to be cheated?

A conglomerate mass of men, whose principles are diametrically opposed to each other are expected to elect McClellan. Come into the Democratic fold, is the cry, no matter what your principles are.

In conclusion, let us ask in all candor, can an honest man affiliate with this mob of conflicting opinions? Are his principles to be doffed and doctored at the mere beck and nod of a conclave of political demagogues?

A New Court House.

UP SALT RIVER, Sept. 9th, 1864. Ed. Sentinel: An impression has got out and is generally believed that the world moves. Consequently, Josephine must have a Court House. Yes, a Court House. And thereby hangs a tale.

Several other members gave notice of bills of minor public importance. On motion of Mr. Underwood, officers of the House were allowed the same number of newspapers as members.

Legislative Proceedings.

[From the Daily Statesman.]

MONDAY, Sept. 12.

ATTORNEY GENERAL.

HOUSE.—Mr. Moores, from Committee on Credentials reported names of members entitled to seats.

On motion of Mr. Moores, the Secretary of State was invited to administer the oath to members elect.

Secretary May came in and administered the oath, after which each member subscribed to the same.

On motion of Mr. Underwood, the House proceeded to the election of permanent officers.

[Result published elsewhere.]

Judge J. G. Wilson administered oath of office to officers elect.

Mr. Fay offered a resolution providing for a committee to inform the Governor of the organization of the House, which was lost.

Mr. Thornton offered a resolution inviting resident ministers of Salem to open each day's session of the House with prayer, &c., which was adopted.

Mr. Underwood offered a resolution to inform the Governor of the organization of the Legislative Assembly. The resolution was adopted.

The members then drew for seats by lot, delegates from counties being permitted to sit together.

On motion of Mr. Underwood, it was resolved that each member may have during the session five newspapers, published in the State, at the expense of the State Treasury.

TUESDAY, Sept. 13.

The session was begun by prayer by J. R. W. Sellwood.

Mr. Lawson, of Yamhill, offered a resolution directing the Secretary of State to furnish members with a copy of the unfinished code and session laws back to 1855, which was adopted.

Mr. Underwood offered a resolution, inviting reporters for the press within the bar of the House, which was unanimously adopted.

Mr. Gingles, of DeWitt, offered a joint resolution providing for a joint convention for the purpose of electing a U. S. Senator, at 2 P. M. of Friday next.

On motion of Mr. Lawson, the resolution was amended, so as to postpone the convention to Monday and then it was adopted.

Mr. Orey offered a resolution directing Secretary of State to furnish each member with postage stamps, or envelopes, not to exceed two dollars to each. The resolution was lost, by yeas 18—nays 19.

Mr. Lawson, of Yamhill, gave notice of a bill to abolish all distinctions in classes of evidence in courts of law.

Mr. Cartwright, of Marion, gave notice of a bill to make money due on contracts payable in such kind of currency as may be specified therein.

Several other members gave notice of bills of minor public importance.

On motion of Mr. Underwood, officers of the House were allowed the same number of newspapers as members.

Mr. Lawson, offered a resolution calling upon the Code Commissioners for an early report of their proceedings—which was adopted.

The Speaker presented a message from the Secretary of State, transmitting the veto of the Governor of a bill to create a Board of auditors for Marion county.

The Speaker announced the following committee: Elections—Messrs. Ireland, Glass and Souler.

A BIRD JOKER.—Over in Washoe a party of Copperheads were discussing national affairs in a grocery, where a man was lounging. Finally they appealed to him for his opinion, who he said: "Lem me alone, I'm drunk, I'm (hic) dirty, I'm a hummer, I believe I'd steal; but I (hic) ain't far gone gone to be a Democrat—you let!"

A FREAK OF NATURE.—Says the Calaveras Chronicle: We were shown a few days ago, at the ranch of Mr. Thorpe, in this township, a kitten three days old, with two distinct heads upon one body. It has two well defined mouths, four eyes and two ears. It appears as sprightly as other kittens of its age. An effort will be made to raise it.

Col. Maury sent a detachment of 25 cavalry and an equal number of infantry, on Tuesday last, in command of Lieut. Holtart to Fort Hall, with orders to scour the country in all directions from that place, for hostile forces. The expedition is composed of able, resolute men, well equipped who will do good service if they have good occasion.—Idaho Statesman, Sept. 7th.

Those appointed to make surveys and report upon the practicability of introducing waters of the Pacific river into the Boise basin, report that no line can be found on which a ditch of the contemplated size (twenty-ft wide hundred inches) can be constructed with less than an expenditure of one and a quarter million dollars. The shortest line that can be obtained will not be less than forty-five miles in length.—Evening News.

The Territorial Enterprise, of the 25th, says: By the coach of the California Line, which arrived in this city yesterday evening, at nine minutes past nine o'clock, copies of San Francisco papers were brought from that place to the city in twenty-one hours and nine minutes. The time from Sacramento to this city was thirteen hours and five minutes. Had it not been for the rain, which rendered the roads very bad, the drivers say they could have made much better time.

LADIES' DEPARTMENT.

"To have to say if greater want of skill appear in writing, or in judgment, that of the two, less dangerous to the office. To stir our patience, then, should our choice, those few in that, but numbers are in this. You cannot wrong for one who writes another."—Page.

How Folks Court.

Seeing in your last issue, that you have tendered to the ladies a liberal space in your paper, I avail myself of your generosity to contribute a few thoughts for our column.

I find it very difficult to decide between the many themes that present themselves to my mind; therefore, you must excuse me, if you find my essay somewhat scattering. Of course, ladies, like ministers, must not write on political topics. Neither must they choose obtuse, logical or scientific subjects; but according to established conventionalities, they must dip their pen in only that which borders on the sentimental, or soars in love sick strains—

"Soft as the strain when zephyr gently blows, And the smooth stream in smoother numbers flows."

But unfortunately, I am not gifted with a sentimental turn of mind; so I have come to the conclusion that nonsense is my forte, and have chosen a subject in accordance with that conclusion, to wit: "How Folks Court."

I will not presume to enter into this subject in detail, least it should be deemed personal. Neither do I expect to classify all the modes pursued in this hazardous business, in one short letter, but merely touch on some of the general principles.

The means generally relied on by the young lords to allure our sex to wedlock, may be classified according to their supposed potency as follows: First, money; second, good looks; third, intelligence; fourth, love. The experience of ages have proven this order, as a general rule to be nearly correct. He who can command the first, though deficient in all the rest, is indeed fortunate, and always pursues his suit with more confidence than any other class, and with much better success, from the simple reason, I blush to own it, that our sex has a peculiar weakness on money matters.

The extravagancies of the wealthy and well dressed spark are, alas! too often reflected on the retina of the ladies' eyes, as gems of sparkling wit. The buggy rides, rings, books and other costly offerings of the wealthy wooer achieves our conquests than the combined efforts of wit and wisdom.

Next in order of success, comes the handsome knight; not having money, he is blessed with the next most potent commodity. He dare not deal in the extravagancies of his wealthy rival, least he might court the frown of his fairer. "Must" those beautiful curls or disarrange that finely turned moustache; hence, he usually has the credit of being a nice, quiet, and fascinating fellow. To this class belong those shallow-jawed beings, usually called fops. Those who possess the requisite, find courting in this order, attended with much less embarrassment than any other, as very little talking is required. The principal ingredients are a tasteful delectable, a graceful turn of the case and that ever present and interesting smile. Many of our sex are won and won by this order of courting, when might else but wealth could have accomplished so much.

The next order is the man of intelligence. Having neither wealth nor grace, his suit is often lost by his timidity. He starts out with but little confidence in the powers of his head, for his experience tells him that he is wanting in the two important auxiliaries—a heavy purse and handsome features. Like some forlorn hope, he sees the means at hand, and treats the object of his affections with some logical, metaphysical or scientific discourse, which would do him honor before an assemblage of sages. He usually wins respect, but seldom love.

But I fear I have already made my letter too long. I shall have to postpone the poor fellows, who are reduced to the extremity of courting for love sake, until my next communication. They being accustomed to suspense can all the easier bear the delay.

NETTIE NAILOR.

THE LITTLE JOKER.—The Copperhead Democracy are playing a game of thimble-rigging on an extensive scale. A war man on a peace platform is the "little Joker." Bet your money on whichever you choose and you are sure to be victimized.—Petatum Argus.

NEW TO-DAY.

Howard Private MEDICAL INSTITUTE

No. 532, Commercial Street, San Francisco.

Consultation by Letter, OR OTHERWISE FREE.

ESTABLISHED for the cure of diseases of a private nature. Such as Gonorrhoea, Syphilis, Spermatorrhoea, Mercerial Complaints, Gleet, Stricture, Seminal Weakness, Impotency, Rheumatism, Fever and Ague, Skin diseases, Seminal Emissions, and all diseases brought on by indulgence of vice.

THE HOWARD INSTITUTE

Is under the immediate charge of DR. P. HOWARD, who has become justly celebrated by his successful treatment of diseases of the above nature.

Without the use of Mercury in any form.

In re-opening this old and popular Institute once more to the people of the Pacific Coast, the Doctor is governed not only by a desire to afford an asylum for the afflicted, but to SUPPRESS QUACKERY, which has of late so boldly and impudently come before the public. They claim to have certifiable cures of venereal diseases, or some unheard-of distinctions of foreign testimonials, of European education, and European remedies; thus misleading the afflicted, who are not aware of the utter uselessness of foreign remedies and practice, when applied to diseases in this variable climate. Of such pretenders the Doctor warns those seeking medical relief to beware, for they seek but to deceive you and ruin your health.

To his old patients and the public in general the Doctor would say: They can rely on his known skill and integrity, as heretofore, with every assurance of a speedy and permanent cure, in all possible cases.

The Doctor's charges are moderate, and suited to the means of the patient.

THE HOWARD INSTITUTE

Is located in the center of the city, and is fitted up with every convenience for the comfort of the afflicted. The patient will have had everything to his wish, and can enter and leave the Institute without fear of observation.

Persons residing in the interior, who may prefer being cured at home, by sending a careful description of their disease, together with a statement of the length of time they have been afflicted, can have their medicine carefully put up and sent to any part of the Pacific Coast by Express or mail, together with full and explicit directions as to how to use them, to bring about a speedy and permanent cure, without entailing upon them the necessity of visiting the city.

All letters should be addressed, Dr. P. Howard, Howard Institute, No. 532, Commercial Street, San Francisco, California.

The Doctor himself opens and answers all letters, and correspondents can rely on the strictest secrecy.

Consultation by letter or otherwise, free.

TO THE LADIES!

When a Female is in trouble, of whatever nature, or afflicted with a disease such as weakness of the back and limbs, pains in the head, dizziness of sight, loss of muscular power, palpitation of the heart, irritability, nervousness, derangement of the digestive functions, general debility, all diseases of the Womb, hysteria, sterility, and all other diseases peculiar to females, they should go at once, or write, to Dr. Howard, at his Medical Institute. Let no false delicacy prevent you, but apply immediately, and save yourself from painful suffering, and premature death.

The Doctor's office is so arranged that he can be consulted without fear of discovery.

Dr. Howard's Female Pills

Are universally acknowledged to be the only compound to be depended upon for the removal of all cases of suppurative or irregularity, or of obstructions of whatever nature and of however long standing.

Ladies having reason to believe they are pregnant, should be careful to avoid using them, as they would surely cause a miscarriage. They will be forwarded to any part of the Pacific Coast, upon the receipt of $3 per box.

CONSULTATION BY LETTER, OR OTHERWISE FREE.

All letters must be addressed to DR. P. HOWARD, Howard Institute, No. 532, Commercial Street, San Francisco, California. sep17wt
