THE FOWLER CASE.—This case, involving the ownership of a valuable quartz vein, situated on Applegate Creek, in this County, has been decided by the Supreme Court of the State of Oregon in favor of the Plaintiff;—that is, in favor of Fowler & Co.

THE REV. FATHER BLAN. The Rev. Father Blane has bought, Saturday last, the fine property of Dr. Thompson, close to the Methodist and Catholic churches. It is the intention of the Rev. Pastor to buy, soon, the other remaining lots belonging to M. M. McDonald and Clugge. This splendid block will be quite suitable for the future Academy. If the Sisters of Charity do well, within one or two years, a two story house will be erected, and the present buildings will be used as an Orphan Asylum, a hospital and a kitchen. All who subscribed to the Sisters school are respectfully invited to pay the amount set opposite their names. When the collection will have taken place, an accurate account of the receipts and expenses shall be given.

L. L. Williams, of Roseburg, furnishes the following abstract from the Assessment Roll of Douglas county, for 1864: Acres of land, 233,597; horses and mules, 3,290; cattle, 10,657; hogs, 12,031; sheep, 40,553; heads of bees, 447; taxable property, after deducting individual indebtedness, $1,410,724; voters, 879; population, 3,583.

It will be seen, by reference to our special column, that the Hon. I. D. Haines will be on hand, at the Post Office Building, to sign up any little legal bills which the people may be heir to.

Also, from the same source, it may be seen that G. B. Dorris, Esq. is prepared to take sides with debtors or creditors, and see that they have justice done there. We have heard each of them plenty of clients with long lines.

From all accounts the Sato Fair was a partial failure owing. It is claimed to bad management. The Sanitary Fair however was a fine success.

Headquarters, Army Potomac, 2d.—

Enemy attacked a division of the 5th corps yesterday morning, and were repulsed with a heavy loss. This was the only fighting on the left yesterday, except an attack by cavalry on Gregg's cavalry, when they were driven back with considerable loss.

Washington, 3d.—Passengers from City Point, yesterday morning, state that there was heavy firing on the right and left of Petersburg, and none in front. There are indications of a general engagement.

Fortress Monroe, 2d.—At City Point heavy firing heard all morning on the north side of James river. Nothing important has been received in regard to the results.

New York, 31.—The Tribune's special says our lines of battle now extend from Chapin's Bluff to White Oak Swamps, a distance of five or six miles from Richmond. The front of the Bluff commands the enemy's tower and bridge across James river. Our entire loss is seven hundred.

It is reported that a force of rebel cavalry has taken possession of Grafton. At Staunton Early had two batteries, of three pieces each, in reserve. His troops had lost all organization.

Herald's special says rebel prisoners state that Davis and Cabinet have fled from Richmond. The Waig was the only Richmond paper published on the 30th. Lee is said to be acting independent of all instructions, and, in fact, is military director of the rebellion. As his retreat in the direction of Weldon is cut off, it is thought that he will concentrate forces at Richmond, and make a life or death struggle there.

New York, 2d.—Peruvian from Liverpool, has arrived. Latest American advices are regarded as so favorable to the North, that the Confederate loan has declined a quarter less than nine per cent. in one week.

New York, 2d.—The Herald's 18th corps correspondent, gives the following account of the part taken by that corps: Hickman's and Stannard's divisions crossed James river at Aiken's Landing, and marched a mile before they came into contact with the enemy. They showed no desire to fight, and fell back rapidly from their line of rifle-pits, until they reached main line, when they opened with sharpshooters and every description of artillery.

Immediately in front of Stannard, commanding the road, was a large fort, mounting eleven guns. Preparations were made to storm it, and when ready, Gen. Ord gave the signal. Our men rushed across the field in the face of an artillery and musketry fire, and captured the fort and guns, and a number of prisoners. Gen. Ord was wounded just as he entered the fort. Gen. Barnham was killed as he was about to enter. After Ord was wounded, Cook took command of the corps, and made several desperate attempts to carry the second line of works, but owing to the fact that the 10th corps, and Payne's division of the 18th corps, did not join until noon, no further success was accomplished. Twenty-two guns were captured—nearly all heavy.

San Francisco, 5th.—Legal Teachers closed last night at 5 3/4 @ 54.

FLOUR AND PRODUCE taken in exchange for Merchandise, at July 19.—27 MAX MULLER.

Academy for Young Ladies, JACKSONVILLE, OREGON.

This Institution will be conducted by the Sisters of Jesus and Mary, and will be situated in the healthy and accessible town of Jacksonville. The plan of education will embrace the various branches of instruction usually taught in the most approved seminaries or academies. Its aim will be to form young ladies to science and virtue, to accustom them to early habits of order and economy, and to cultivate in them those qualities which render virtue both amiable and attractive. The most conscientious and unremitting attention will be given to the advancement of the pupils in the principles and practice of christian virtue, as well as to their intellectual improvement. Particular care shall be directed toward the promotion of refinement of manners, and the constant maintenance of a polite and amiable deportment. The discipline shall be kind and parental, and the Sisters will use every endeavor to secure the health, comfort and happiness of those entrusted to their charge. Scrupulous attention will be paid to the personal neatness of the pupils. Pupils of any religious denomination shall be received. It is not in the plan of the sisters to interfere with the religion of the pupils, except with the Catholics. The Academy will be under the direction of an Order that has attained at French Prairie, at Salem and especially at Portland, a wide-spread celebrity as a teachers; then, it will not be wonderful that it shall be well patronized, nor that the advantages there enjoyed by pupils shall be appreciated by so many parents outside of the Catholic community. All the different denominations bear testimony to the bright character of the Institution, and point to the influence it has already exercised on the manners and morals of the community, and the greater influence it is destined to exercise hereafter, an influence which will not end with the present, but affect generations yet to come. If we want to have fruits in our garden, we plant and cultivate fruitful trees, in like manner, if we desire to see in this part of Oregon and in the vicinity, the happy results of such an institution as the Sisters' Academy, we must establish it and support it. For this purpose, we have only to consult our charity and generosity. The education of a multitude of children; the care of the sick; the distribution of assistance to the poor; in a word, all the treasures of christian charity are distributed with open hands, but with intelligence by the Sisters of Charity. Nothing, consequently, deserves more encouragement; nothing is more worthy of our patronage and protection than this charitable Institution. The example of our brethren of every religious denomination, who, on similar occasions, at Salem, at French Prairie and at Portland, seem to be actuated with uncommon zeal, should excite in us a holy emulation, to exercise our humanity and testify our charity to the establishment of the Academy.

Trustees in the great liberality shown to us, a collection shall be started for the purpose of purchasing a convenient ground, and building a comfortable house for the Sisters' school.

F. K. BLANCHET, Pastor, St. Joseph of Jacksonville.

HEIMSTREET'S Inimitable Hair Restorative. IT IS NOT A DYE. But restores gray hair to its original color, by supplying the capillary tubes with natural sustenance, impaired by age or disease. All instantaneous dyes are composed of harsh caustic, destroying the vitality and beauty of the hair, and afford themselves no dressing. Heimstreet's inimitable coloring not only restores hair to its natural color by an easy process, but gives the hair a Luxuriant Beauty, promotes its growth, prevents its falling off, eradicates the dandruff, and imparts health and pleasantness to the head. It has stood the test of time, being the original hair-coloring, and is constantly increasing in favor. Used by both gentlemen and ladies. It is sold by all respectable dealers, or can be procured by those of D. S. BARRETT, Proprietor, New York.

WHAT KILLED HIM? Dr. HALL, in his "Journal of Health," speaking of the death of Washington Irving asks the above question, and adds: "He might well have remained with us for years to come, had it not been for advice kindly intended, no doubt, but given in thoughtlessness and reckless ignorance.

HE HAD A COLD! which, by some unjudicious prescription, had been converted into an asthma. Who gave that prescription, or what it was, the outside world may never know." Let me say to Dr. Hall, that that "prescription" was not

Newell's Pulmonary Syrup, for that is an article that does not engender heart disease, nor is it productive of any asthmatic affections. On the contrary, it will cure such affections; and as for COUGHS AND COLDS, the world never saw a better remedy, and never will, until Nature presents some new ingredient out of which to prepare it. Don't be afraid to use it freely.
