THE OREGON SENTINEL.

JACKSON COUNTY AHEAD.—Heretofore Oregon horse raising has been principally confined to the rearing of 1:59 stock for the purpose of competing for some "six-bit" purse, hung out by some county Jockey Club. Among the few who have turned their attention to raising draft horses, Mr. Myer of this County has probably arrived the nearest to perfection. His Coburg colts created quite a sensation at the State Fair. They took the first and second prizes, as best for all work; the 1st and 2nd, as best draft horses; 1st and 2nd as best without reference to blood. The Review, State Journal, Advocate, Oregonian and Statesman all spoke in the highest terms of these colts. We clip the following extracts, which will give a good idea of the colts:

"About the nicest thing of all, were 3 yearling colts shown by Mr. Myer of Jackson county. These were got by "Coburg," an English draught stallion, weighing 2300 lbs., out of fine blooded mares, were much admired and generally considered to be the nearest to a perfect animal for all work seen in Oregon. Good horsemen unite without dissent in thinking this will prove the best cross ever introduced into the State, and Californians modestly acknowledge this to be the only thing seen here they cannot beat at home.—Oregonian.

W. Myer, from Jackson county, had on exhibition at the Fair three colts of the Coburg stock, two sorrels and a black. They were rising one year, and stood about fifteen hands high. They were the finest stock of the kind exhibited, and drew several premiums, as will be seen by the list They were sold for five hundred dollars each, one to Mr. Newton of Corvallis, one to Mr. Mays, of Dayton, and the other to S. H. Miller, of Lebanon."—Statesman.

WHAT KILLED HIM?

DR. HALL, in his "Journal of Health," speaking of the death of Washington Irving asks the above question, and adds: "He might well have remained with us for years to come, had it not been for advice kindly intended, no doubt, but given in thoughtlessness and reckless ignorance.

HE HAD A COLD!

which, by some injudicious prescription, had been converted into an asthma. Who gave that prescription, or what it was, the outside world may never know." Let me say to Dr. Hall, that that 'prescription' was not for that is an article that does not engender heart disease, nor is it productive of any asthmatic affections. On the contrary, it will cure such affections; and as for the world never saw a better remedy, and never will, until Nature presents some new ingredient out of which to prepare it. Don't be afraid to use it freely. Every article in it is from Nature's own Laboratory—the same to-day as they were a thousand years ago—all calculated to soothe, heal and strengthen. There is no Better Family Medicine!

Newell's

Pulmonary Syrup,

Keep it in the house, use it freely, give it to your children upon the slightest indication of a cold, and you will think and speak of it as all do that have become acquainted with its merits.
