Thursday's Dispatch.

San Francisco, 13th.—Currency exchange, 1:25; Coin, 2; Legal Tenders, 46@46 1/2. weak. Moses Taylor sailed this morning. Rain fallen steadily since yesterday evening. No eastern news today.

Washington, Dec. 9th.—Richmond papers publish a Frederickburg letter, date Dec. 5th, which says that 6,000 troops have just passed down the Potomac to reinforce Grant. Four thousand of these are from Sheridan, and two thousand new recruits. The Commercial's special says Richmond papers of the 7th contain no information of Sherman, but predict his defeat before he can reach Savannah or Darlen. The Richmond Examiner, of the 7th, reports that no new movements have been made in the direction of Grahamsville, South Carolina. The Federal troops engaged consisted of two regiments of whites and four of blacks. About 1,300 men were found on the field dead and wounded.

New York, 10th.—Sherman's movements still engross a large share of the attention of rebel newspapers. They say he remained with his principal force in the vicinity of Millen, for several days, for the purpose of gathering supplies, and that on the 2d of Dec. he resumed his march from the north of the town, and on the 23d his advance was some distance south of it skirmishing with the outposts of the rebel forces. On the 9th he would reach the coast. The Augusta Constitutionalist believes that since leaving Millen, Sherman had not determined as to the point to be attacked or the road. It says that on leaving Millen he would arrange his army so that he could move on Savannah without fear of attack on either flank.

Wheeler confesses that in his engagements with Killpatrick he has not taken many prisoners, because the Yankees refused to surrender. The Charleston Mercury learns that Foster has fortified the position which he took after the battle on the hills, where it is supposed he will remain until Sherman reaches within striking distance of the coast. It says that he has, for several days and nights, been sending up balloons and sky-rockets, supposed to be signals to Sherman's approaching hosts.

New York 9th.—The Port Royal Herald of the 5th, and the Savannah News of the 20th, report that Sherman is advancing on Savannah in three columns, one by way of Millen, one by the Cannonchee river, and the other across the Savannah river at Sister's Ferry, seventy miles above. He flanked Macon but did not stop to occupy it. He had whipped Wayne and Cobbs' militia at Oconee bridge, driving them in every direction.

Louisville, 9th.—The Journal's Nashville dispatch, dated the 8th, says no change in the material situation. There was skirmishing in front of the 4th corps, the enemy being driven back to his old line. A few casualties resulted. Prisoners report that Cheatham's corps is on the right and center; Stewart on the left. They say Lee has four batteries of four guns each in position. A rebel brigade has gone in the direction of Murfreesboro. It is not known whether for the purpose of foraging or attacking that place. Several batteries on Stedman's front opened this morning, but elicited no reply.

Nashville, 9th.—The weather is very cold. Heavy storm of snow and hail all day. The rebel line in our front appears to be intact. There are no indications of an attack. Some sharp musketry firing occurred in front of the 4th corps, and several were wounded on both sides. The excitement in town has nearly subsided. No apprehensions for the safety of the city need be felt. The new boats went down the river to the point where the rebel batteries are located, engaged them, drove the rebels back from the river, spiked the guns and returned to the city. Deserters who came in to-day, say Hood will soon attack the Union forces.

Louisville, 9th.—Gen. Burbridge's command was at Bean Station, East Tennessee, Dec. 6th. His force is well equipped and supplied. A movement of Burbridge in Breckinridge's flank compelled the latter to withdraw his entire force beyond Bull's Gap, excepting a small cavalry detachment. The Journal says it is our impression that Breckinridge will turn up in an unexpected quarter before long.

New York, 10th.—The Herald's Shenandoah valley correspondent says: Early and Breckinridge have been ordered to make a demonstration on the lines of Sheridan.

Head Quarters Army Potomac, 7th.—This has been a rather calm day along the lines at Petersburg; a little picket firing was indulged in on the right of our lines. The artillery on both sides was very quiet. Considerable activity prevails in our lines north of the James river to-day; but a rain storm which set in early this morning seemed to put a stop to all changes of any moment. The firing was kept up on Dutch Gap canal as usual, but not with as much success as yesterday. Richmond papers of to-day contain no news from Georgia or Tennessee. They have seemed to have anticipated a battle in front of Richmond during the past two or three days and have evidently been preparing to resist an advance on our part. 8th all quiet this morning.

New York, 10th.—The Herald's Army of the Potomac correspondent says on Wednesday last, 7th, owing to the advance of the rebels firing upon our working parties at the Dutch Gap canal, 3 regiments of colored infantry and a section of Martin's 5th regular artillery under Gen. Ludlow, crossed to the north side of the James, drove the rebels back and effected a lodgment at the upper terminus of the canal, where they entrenched themselves, thus protecting the laborers on the canal. A rebel battery subsequently opened on the position, but no harm was done.

Philadelphia, 9th.—The Press has a special from City Point, stating that the 2d and 5th corps recrossed the James, on Tuesday afternoon, 6th, and bivouacked at night near the Jerusalem Plank road. On Wednesday morning, 6th, they marched toward Stony Creek Station on the Weldon railroad. The troops are very enthusiastic, the army having been fully reinforced. The recent advance of these corps does not weaken.

New York, 9th.—Richmond Dispatch of the 6th, says Sherman's army is becoming more and more exhausted; for 5 days up to last Friday, Dec. 2d, he made but 5 miles. He has lost so much time, and given the confederates the chance to gather so much strength, that he must of necessity, break for Savannah or Beaufort. He was expected at Savannah on the 5th, and all that night the shipping off the point threw up signal rockets for his guidance. Richmond papers say Grant is massing on the right of the army of the James. An attack by him there and on the left by the army of the Potomac is expected.

New York, 9th.—Richmond papers of the 7th, say Sherman's campaign is drawing to a close. He is approaching the coast by the way of Darlen or Savannah but we have formidable forces between these points, he will have to confront before reaching either. We think Sherman is done with strategy and will attempt to break through our forces to reach the sea coast. Things will culminate this week. We think Sherman is in a critical condition.

New York, 10th.—The rebel Senate, Dec. 6th, defeated resolutions introduced in to the House in condemnation of J. F. Davis' recommendation that various officers, exempted by State laws, should be forced into the rebel army. Another of the resolutions fiercely condemns the proposition to make soldiers of the slaves and give them freedom as a reward for their services, has been introduced. In the South Carolina Legislature, a bill has passed the House of Representatives, for the conscription of all men between the ages of sixteen and seventy.

Richmond papers continue to assail Gov. Brown of Ga. They say the reason he refuses to allow the seizure of various persons for service in his State, was that he desired to reserve a sufficient force to fight Jeff Davis.

Vicksburg, 4th.—General Dana, by a successful expedition from Vicksburg, destroyed the Mississippi Central railroad above the Big Black crossing, including the long bridge at that point. The enemy were found in force, but the work was thoroughly done, and our troops returned to Vicksburg with a loss of five killed and forty-one wounded and missing, $300,000 worth of cotton was destroyed.

San Francisco, 14th.—Private telegrams quote gold, on the 10th, 2:31, declining. Legal Tenders, 45 1/2 @ 47 1/2.

Friday's Dispatch.

New York, 10th.—Richmond papers of the 7th, are filled with speculations in regard to an immediate attack on Richmond, and explanations of what they expect. They are entirely confident that Grant has been reinforced by the sixth army corps, as well as other troops. Special dispatch says Rosecrans is to be transferred to some more important command. Richmond papers give further particulars of Wheeler's fight with Killpatrick, from which it appears that Wheeler was compelled to fall back, owing to Killpatrick's superior numbers. The rebel General Anderson was wounded at the battle of Grahamsville, and is censured for rashly driving his troops against breastworks. Every house in Grimsdenville was destroyed.

Headquarters Army Potomac, 8th.—Yesterday at daylight, the 5th corps, the 3d division of the 2d corps, with two brigades of Gregg's cavalry started south. When last heard from yesterday, they had crossed Nottaway river, on the Jerusalem plank road, without meeting opposition of consequence. They crossed on pontoons, which they took up after crossing. Deserters who came into our lines this morning, state that Maber's division was sent off yesterday to meet our advance force, but no firing has been heard in that direction, it is not believed that an engagement has taken place. December 8th a reconnoitering party went out on the left, fighting the rebel pickets on the Vaugh road, driving them to the Matchie river, a distance of 2 miles, where they had breastworks erected and where they made a stand. Skirmishing continued sometime, when the object of the expedition being accomplished, the party returned. Our loss was seven wounded. The enemy's loss is unknown. Some of those who accompanied the party, report that heavy firing was heard in the direction of Stony Creek, which indicates that fighting was going on between Warren and the enemy. Reports indicate that the evacuation of Petersburg by the rebels may be looked for soon.

Washington, 10th.—Richmond papers of the 8th, say nothing new has been received at the War Dept's regarding Sherman's movements. No exchanges of Georgia papers have been received of later date than the 3d.

New York 11th.—The Richmond Enquirer of the 8th, says the last accounts from Sherman represent him still at Millen, he has three points at about equal distances, Beaufort, Savannah and Darlen; it is yet believed by some, that he will endeavor to meet Foster at Grahamsville, S. G.; but falling in that, try to capture Savannah. Richmond papers of the 8th, say Grant has been reinforced by from 6 to 10,000 men from the Shenandoah valley, and that a battle is imminent Dutch Gap canal they say can be made ready for use in a few hours.

Nashville, 10th.—The Union loss in the battle of Franklin was greater than at first supposed. It is ascertained by official reports to be about 2,000, a large proportion of these being slightly wounded.

New York, 12th.—Richmond Dispatch of the 10th, says the news from Georgia yesterday was of exciting character. The enemy who were marching down the Ogeechee river, with three corps on the north and two on the south side, endeavored to unite their forces, and met with considerable resistance from the confederates. At last accounts they had not effected their object. All are invited to come, dance and be merry.
