TO THE EFFICACY AND PERMANENCY OF YOUR UNION, A GOVERNMENT FOR THE WHOLE IS INDISPENSABLE.—Washington.

JACKSONVILLE, OREGON.

SATURDAY MORNING, JAN. 7, 1865

Table listing agents for the Oregon Sentinel in various locations such as San Francisco, Portland, and Albany.

Deadwood who killed Meeks, has been found guilty of murder in the first degree...

O'Meara has retired from the editorial chair of the Eugene City Review...

RECRUITING.—We are informed by Serjt. Stearns, that the number of enlistments during the week, up to yesterday, is eleven...

BOUNTY.—The County Commissioners, at their last meeting, made an appropriation for the County Volunteer Bounty...

The weather, that old standing "foe," has behaved very well this week. During the last day or two, however, it has shown symptoms of uneasiness...

THANKS to Mr. Post Master for Madam Desroches Illustrated Monthly, and Frank Leslie's Ladies Magazine, for December. He keeps them for sale.

LETTER-BOX STOLEN.—On last Saturday night, some low thief breaks loose the letter-box in front of the Post Office, and carried it off.

Those remarks we made some time ago about new crossings near the SENTINEL office were somewhat premature. The crossings have not made their appearance yet, but the mud has become some deeper.

INSTALLATION.—On the 27th inst., the following officers were installed in Warren Lodge, No. 10, F. & A. M. for the ensuing Masonic year...

ELECTION OF OFFICERS.—At a regular meeting of Jacksonville Lodge, No. 10, L. O. O. F., held at the Masonic hall, on Saturday, 31st of Dec., the following officers were elected for the ensuing term...

A GOOD OFFER.—Sergeant Duolap, being anxious to encourage enlistments in the matrimonial corps, offers to give to every couple who will marry and settle in Jacksonville, a quart of sweet potatoes and a bushel of strawberries.

QUOTAS.—The Regiment now being raised in Oregon is to consist of 963 men, rank and file. The whole amount of votes cast at the Nov. Election, was 18,845.

Taking this vote as a basis for each county's quotas, it will be found to closely approximate to that based on the enrollment made nearly eighteen months ago.

The following table will show the difference in the quotas, based respectively on the enrollment, and vote.

Table with columns for Counties, Vote, and En't. Lists counties like Jackson, Josephine, Multnomah, Curry, Douglas, Clatsop, Wasco & Grant, Folk, Yamhill, Linn, Washington, Benton, Marion, and Lane with their respective vote and enrollment figures.

It will be seen that Josephine County is called on for 66 2/3 per cent. than her quota would be, if based on her last vote.

Our Obligations to Enlist.

In response to a requisition from the commanding General of this Department, our loyal Governor has appealed to the Citizens of Oregon for "one regiment of Infantry, in addition to the Volunteers now in the service of the United States, to aid in the enforcement of the Law, suppress insurrection and to chastise hostile Indians in this Military District."

This is the first direct appeal to the people of Oregon, since the inauguration of our gigantic National strife, for the support of the Constitution, the maintenance of the Law, and the fundamental principles of our Republican Fabric.

Other States have been called upon to bear their burdens of war, and nobly have citizens, from time to time, buckled on their armor, and periled their lives on the bloody field of conflict. On more than one occasion have they valiantly and amply testified their unswerving devotion to the land of Liberty.

The page of history unfolds with pride and admiration the daring valor and immortal feats of nations, long since slumbering in the Mausoleum of conquering time. Leonidas, at Thermopylae, with his chosen few, hurling back, drinking death before the invincible march of victorious thousands.

In yet more lofty instances does it record the heroic sacrifices, the unparalleled bravery and sublime ardor of the American patriots, battling to-day for a National existence.

Life is sweet; but without liberty, where are its charms? What is it worth? What is the value of a once glorious Nation, to be distracted, into petty, distinct sovereignties, with naught but an imaginary line to divide one from another?

Our bleeding country, tossing in the throes of dissolution feelingly cries in this hour of emergency to her faithful, loyal sons. Are we faithful, are we loyal? Then let us respond, to enjoy in after years that proud consciousness the dutiful patriot alone feels.

conceive the upbraiding of our conscience, when reflecting that we had never summoned the courage to avert the dire catastrophe ourselves.

What must be in after years the infancy of him, who like the Tory of '76 rejoiced in the adverse fortune of his struggling government, denied a friendly hand for its salvation, and with an Arnold sink into the narrow grave of oblivion, bearing the unenviable epithet of Traitor, followed with the scorn and scorching contempt of an indignant posterity.

Aside from our patriotic obligations in a National view, we are summoned to protect the frontiers of our own State from incursions of a foe whose known mode of warfare our citizens are conversant with.

"We'll rally round the flag boys, we'll rally round the flag boys, we'll rally round the flag boys, we'll rally round the flag boys, we'll rally round the flag boys."

HOOD'S LOSS IN KILLED, WOUNDED AND PRISONERS.

Bombardment and Assault on Fort Fisher—Fort Much Damaged.

CONGRESSIONAL INVESTIGATION IN COLORADO. HOOD CROSSING THE TENNESSEE FROM REBELS.

Breckinridge, Vaughn and Burke Whipped. Raid into Alabama—Inhabitants' leaving Charleston—Great suffering.

Proceedings of a meeting of the citizens of Savannah. Governors of New York and Missouri Inaugurated.

New York, 26th.—Herald's special dispatch says: Official information from Nashville states Hood's losses from the 13th to the 22d, were, killed, 2,675; wounded, 9,720; prisoners, exclusive of wounded, 5,870; with the wounded, the prisoners will amount to about 15,000.

Fortress Monroe, 27th.—Steamer from off Wilmington has just arrived. The commanding of Fort Fisher opened about noon on the 14th, and continued all day, being returned. Thursday it was kept up vigorously.

Washington, 28th.—The affair in Colorado Territory, in which Col. Cushing destroyed a large Indian village and all its inhabitants, is to be made the subject of Congressional investigation.

New York, 28th.—Tribune has the following from Columbia, under date of the 28th: The advance of Hood's army reached Florence on the evening of the 26th. During the whole of the next day his infantry were crossing the river.

Cincinnati, 29th.—Commercial has a dispatch from Louisville, Ky., which says the raid of Stoneman and Barbridge was a perfect success. Breckinridge, Vaughn and Burke were whipped and their forces scattered.

Cairo 3d.—The steamer Mollie Able, from New Orleans the 26th, has arrived. A force of about two thousand, under Col. Robinson, left for a raid into Alabama on the 13th, to sever the railroad and communications at Pollard, and destroy such property and stores as might be found there.

the fleet, says: Refugees from Charleston and other points in S. C., state that all the inhabitants who could do so, have removed into the country. Great distress prevails. Scarcely any flour or other necessaries can be obtained at any price.

Fortress Monroe, 3d.—The stormy weather still continues with unabated fury. No arrivals from the South or Wilmington to report.

New York, 3d.—A Hilton Head correspondent says: The obstructions in the Savannah river are being rapidly and successfully removed.

New York, 4th.—World's Hilton Head correspondent, from Beaufort, S. C., under date of the 28th, says increased preparations are being made in Sherman's army to resume the offensive.

The storm through which Porter's fleet rode in safety, is said to be the most terrible that has occurred on the coast for years. The rebels regard it as a special act of Providence, in their favor, as it gave them time to fortify.

New York, 20th.—The Times' special dispatch says it has authority for stating that the cotton captured at Savannah will be taken and sold by the Government.

Albany, 2d.—The newly elected Gov. Renben E. Fenton, was inaugurated to-day. St. Louis, 2d.—Thomas H. Fletcher, the newly elected radical Governor was inaugurated to-day.

A RECEIPT FOR MAKING SOAP. SUCH AS NOW USED BY CERTAIN PARTIES. We have received the following receipt, from one who knows, who are assured is founded on the most scientific principles.

Take five pounds of hard soap, dissolve it in ten gallons of water, distilled at the factory of arrogance; then dissolve fifteen pounds of lye in fifteen gallons of water.

Why is it that "big strikes and rich diggings in Southern Oregon do not excite people abroad? Because big strikes and rich diggings are so common here that they have ceased to be a novelty.

On last Saturday, Mr. V. S. Roll picked up, in his diggings, about one mile beyond the Willow Springs, a little "seed" weighing 23 oz., valued at $375 50.

GRAND RALLY.—Everybody who feels the least interest in having our county fill her quota, and thereby avoid a draft, should attend the grand mass meeting in Jacksonville, on next Saturday, January 14th.

MINES.—From every mining camp in Southern Oregon, the most cheering news comes in regard to the mines.

IMPORTANT TO DONATION CLAIM HOLDERS.—All those having Donation claims, who have not made their final proof, would do well to read the advertisement of the Register of the Land Office, in another column.

In Justice's Court, before U. S. Hayden, J. P., Dec. 31st: Civil action—T. A. Johnson vs. J. Dier.

Judgment in this case set aside on motion of defendant, and a new trial ordered on the 14th inst.

Civil action—Action in replevin Jan 2d: Wm. Halbin vs. W. Beeson. Trial day set for the 9th inst.

In Recorder's Court, Jan. 4th—Miller charged with drunkenness and disorderly conduct. Fined ten dollars and costs.

We wish to call attention to the very excellent article, on the subject of recruiting, by Binger Herman, which appears in to-day's issue. It will doubtly repay perusal. It abounds in fine patriotic sentiment.

Wm. M. Stewart and ex-Governor Nye have been elected U. S. Senators from Nevada.

Born.—In Jacksonville, on the 2d inst., to the wife of Christian Ulrich, a daughter.

Died.—At Waddo, Oregon, December 27th, 1864, of botchery, JAMES ELMON, son of A. B. and Lydia A. McIlwain, aged 2 years and 10 months.

"Yes! thou art fled, ere guilt had power To stain thy cherub soul and form. Closed is the soft ephemeral flower That never felt a storm!"

"On January 4th, at half past 19 o'clock, A. M. REMBA, daughter of N. C. and Ann Deen, aged 11 years and one month. "No bitter tears for thee be shed, Blossom of being! Seen and gone! With flowers alone we strew thy bed, O bluest departed one!"

Whose all of life a rosy ray, Blushed into dawn and passed away."
