TO THE EFFICACY AND PERMANENCY OF YOUR UNION, A GOVERNMENT FOR THE WHOLE IS INDISPENSABLE.—Washington.

JACKSONVILLE, OREGON.

SATURDAY MORNING, JAN. 14, 1865

- List of Agents for the Oregon Sentinel, including E. F. Russell, J. P. Fisher, J. J. Knowlton, etc.

End of Volume IX.

With this number of the SENTINEL, ends the 9th year of its publication. Of its past career its patrons are sufficiently acquainted.

When we took charge of its columns, as we have before stated, we did not expect, short of two years, to make the SENTINEL a first class paper, but to improve it from time to time as its increased patronage would warrant.

Glad Tidings.

The Telegraph brings us glorious news this week. News calculated to send a thrill of joy to every heart.

On the first page of this issue will be found some valuable tables, giving the distances from Jacksonville on various routes through the mountains to the gold fields east of the Cascade Mountains.

FORT KLAMATH.—Several of the Fort Klamath boys arrived in town on Thursday. They report about 4 feet of snow when they left there.

DAILY OREGONIANS.—We have missed the regular visits of this valuable Daily since the storms set in, until this week, when we received a basket full of them.

JACKSON COUNTY MINES "PETERED."—We have been informed that Mr. Williams, last week picked up in his ground slates on Farmers Flat, two thousand dollars.

CEMENT HOUSES.—We have been informed by Messrs. Howard & Smith that they will soon be prepared for building the celebrated cement houses in Jacksonville.

THE WEATHER.—In the early part of the week we had some dense fog, something very unusual in this part of the country.

Mr. E. P. Starr, who has come through on the telegraphic line from Olympia, left here on yesterday, for Marysville. He is thoroughly repairing the line as he goes.

Recruiting in Josephine.

A meeting of the citizens of Josephine county was held in Keshyville on the 3d inst., to take into consideration means to raise a bounty for recruits to fill the quota of the county.

The meeting was called to order by J. C. Weston. Geo. E. Briggs was chosen chairman and Gustaf Wilson Secretary.

A committee of five, consisting of G. T. Vining, J. C. Weston, W. M. Evans, B. F. Holschaw, G. W. Mathewson, were appointed, who reported the following resolutions:

- 1. Resolved, That this meeting be organized as an association to be known as the Josephine county Volunteering Association.
2. That this association have for its object the raising of $2,500 as a bounty to induce volunteering to fill the quota of this county.
3d. That a President and Secretary be elected as permanent officers of the association.
4th. That a committee of one in each precinct be appointed to call a meeting of the citizens, as soon as possible, to raise subscriptions, and report at the next meeting of the association.
5th. That this Association hold its next meeting at this place, on the 21st day of January, 1865, and that each precinct be earnestly recommended to report at that time the amount of money it will raise for the purpose stated.

On motion, the resolutions were adopted. On motion, the meeting proceeded to elect a President and Secretary.

Geo. E. Briggs was chosen President, and Gustaf Wilson Secretary.

The chair appointed the following as the committee for each precinct:

- Waldo, J. C. Weston; Althouse, Wm. M. Evans; Briggs, A. H. Platter; Keshyville, David Kendall; Deer Creek, E. N. Tolle; Canon Creek, S. G. Hart; Illinois river, H. G. Blanchard; Slate Creek, B. F. Sloan; Vanyos, Wm. A. Gibson; Galilee Creek, Wm. M. Crow; Leland, Jas. Twogood; Applegate, Wm. Harriet, Wil liamsburg, C. Meesterger.

On motion, the proceedings of the meeting be furnished the SENTINEL, and Oregon Reporter, for publication.

GUSTAF WILSON, Secretary.

The Occidental, a traitor sheet published at San Francisco, by Zack Montgomery, devotes an entire page in eulogizing Carroll, the private who killed Col. Baker.

The following are the closing paragraphs: "He fired with unerring aim, and Baker fell. It was not long ere, in unequal strife, he fell, overpowered, pierced with the balls of an avenging God."

"O fatal change! become in one sad day A senseless corpse! insinuated clay." Poor youth, we can only drop a tear over thy premature grave and lament the cruel fate which called thee to those scenes of blood. No one to mourn thy untimely death; no one at vespertine to breathe a requiem for thy soul and train the ivy over the green sod which covers thy pallid form.

But I will not renew the memory of such sorrowful scenes. Three long years have since flown by; three vernal robes by nature's hand have decked his hallowed grave and still the bloody work goes on. O, when shall the bloody sacrifice be done? when shall America be purified in fratricidal gore? when shall the wrath of a retributive God be appeased by the tears of childless mothers and fatherless orphans? when shall smiling peace unite again in fraternal love the once prosperous, free and independent people of America?"

Is there an American who can read such a barragane and not feel an overflow of patriotic indignation. If there be, they deserve not the name.

RECRUITING IN JACKSON COUNTY.—The SENTINEL says Messrs. Fay and Dowell, of Jacksonville, are engaged in canvassing for volunteers to fill up the quota of Jackson county. Mr. Fay's Democracy must differ from that of some of the leading Democrats of our city.

ELBERT.—They got ashamed of his conduct—ashamed of the old man's drive and slobber in the "Intelligencer"—as he pronounces it—and came to the conclusion to take the office from him.—Reporter.

"Is true—they took it from the old man," but many of them wish now that they had left him, malone.

CLOTHING.—We would call attention to Badger & Lindenberger's new advertisement of Winter and Spring goods.

IMPORTANT.—New recruits or veterans wishing to obtain their State Bounties would do well to call on Jacobs & Russell See their notice.

Ho! this way.—That crossway is completed.

LATEST TELEGRAM.

BUTLER REMOVED.

Hood is fortifying Corinth. Gen. Singleton gone to Richmond on a peace mission.

Southern peace commissioners on the way to Washington.

Blair goes to Richmond with the conditions on which the President will make peace.

New York, 11th.—The Herald's army of the James correspondent says: All in camp except Gen. Butler himself appeared greatly surprised at his removal.

The question was asked, "If the movement was caused by the Wilmington failure, why was it not made sooner?" The answer to this was that Gen. Ork, who temporarily succeeds Butler, was absent, and the authorities only awaited his return.

Gen. Butler received the order about half past 11 Sunday forenoon, and before three in the afternoon had made all his farewell preparations, turned the army over to his successor, and taken his departure for the North.

The Herald's Shenandoah correspondent says the inhabitants are suffering for food, and the rebel troops are quartered among them, rendering their condition still more deplorable. No new military movements have taken place in the Valley recently.

The Herald's Springfield (Mo.) correspondent says the Union garrisons have been withdrawn as far South as Fort Smith, Ark., by order of Gen. Canby.

New York, 11th.—Late rebel papers contain an interesting detailed account of the late Union raid of Gen. Stoneman, Barbridge and Gillen, in Tenn. and southwest Va., which was so damaging to the enemy in the destruction of Salt and Lead works, and a vast amount of other property.

The Richmond papers are all indulging in a glorification over the failure of the expedition against the Wilmington defences.

Moby is said to be still alive and in a place of security. His early recovery is anticipated.

A sharp discussion was going on between rebel papers, in which Jeff Davis' meddling is charged as the cause of all the recent disasters. Some of them in his defence are assailing Lee as the marplot.

Washington, 11th.—Richmond papers say that at last accoun's from South Carolina the enemy were still in front of Hardeeville.

New York, 11th.—A Washington Dispatch says Sec'y Fessenden has asked for a modification of the law, so as to enable him to issue two hundred millions more Seven-thirty notes. The vote on the Constitutional Amendment Bill—anti-slavery—will be postponed for several days to allow full discussion.

The Herald's Washington dispatch says a leading peace Democrat, who took a prominent part in the peace movements during the late election, and whose personal relations with the President have been very friendly, has gone to Richmond and will probably be heard of there in a day or two.

The remnant of Hood's army reported to be fortifying Corinth, with a view to going into quarters at that place. It is also said that he is repairing the Mobile and Ohio railroad.

New York, 12th.—The World's special says the leading politician who has gone on a peace mission is Gen. Singleton of Illinois.

It is reported that the rebel Senate, in secret session, adopted a resolution to appoint peace commissioners, and they have been selected and sent to Grant's headquarters. Orr, of S. Carolina, Gilmore, of N. Carolina and Alexander H. Stephens are of the commission. It is also said that Grant telegraphed that Stephens solicited permission to pass through his lines to visit Washington. It is at least known that Blair goes to Richmond with the full knowledge and consent of the President, and is clothed with authority to offer negotiations with Jeff Davis, with a view to restore peace, and the rebel authorities will feel assured of this when he shows his credentials. His instructions are embraced in the following propositions: First, amnesty to all, no matter what they have been since the war began; second, the Constitution as it is, the Union as it was, the South to return to the Union with all the rights and privileges which it had before any of the States seceded; third, the total abolition of slavery. From this point the President will not retreat one iota. He does not insist on its immediate abolition, but desires that measures may be taken to secure its extinguishment within a reasonable length of time. It is stated on what seems good authority that Jeff Davis is strongly inclined to peace measures, and will accept terms less liberal than was at first supposed he would. Lincoln, on the other hand, is disposed to be as lenient as possible, but insists that the first public action on the part of the Confederacy, must be to lay down arms and acknowledge the supremacy of the Union. There is no desire to humble the South. It is due to the Union, not to the North. As an evidence of the desire of the Administration to obtain peace, it is stated that General

Butler was removed not solely for incompetency or misdeemeanor, but also as an evidence that our government is disposed to treat with the South on liberal terms, and is willing to remove every obstacle that may stand in the way of a perfect understanding with that section. It is reported that ex-Governor Rives, and ex-Governor Orr are now on their way to Washington on a peace mission.

The Times' Washington special learns that the rebel peace commission consists of Vice-President Stephens, Judge White of Georgia, Messrs. Price and Orr of South Carolina, Gilmore of North Carolina, Rives of Va., and Smith and Singleton of Mississippi. This special says it is also feared there is no hope of passing a constitutional amendment abolishing slavery.

New York, 12th.—The Richmond papers, of Monday, contain a telegram, from Charleston, stating that a portion of Sherman's forces had occupied Grahamsville, S. C., thirty-five miles north of Savannah.

Hood's official report of his defeat has been received; He acknowledges a loss of 50 guns in one day. His account, the battle of Nashville was a bad business. The Dispatch thinks Thomas will turn and move his columns toward the Southwest.

New York, 12th.—The Herald's Shenandoah correspondent says there are rumors that the rebels have moved down to Strasburg, but its thought not in sufficient strength to annoy Sheridan.

Cincinnati, 12th.—Resolutions passed the Ohio Legislature, asking Congress to adopt the proposed amendment to the constitution for the abolishing of slavery.

San Francisco, 12th.—Gold in N. Y. Yesterday, 22 1/2 @ 220—Currency exchange 110—Coin bills 2—Legal Tenders 45 1/2 @ 30.

ISLAND.—August Rumpell has been found insane, and sent to Portland in charge of John S. Love, Esq.
