THE copartnership heretofore existing between White & Hart, in the saloon business, is dissolved by mutual consent. I. L. White collects all debts and pays all liabilities of said firm. I. L. WHITE. F. G. HART. Canyonville, Dec. 1, 1864. dec19m4

No one can estimate its value until they have used and tested it, as I have done. Indeed, for this work it is invaluable. GEORGE GULLIS, Carson City, N. T.

I have used a Florence Sewing Machine for two years; I brought it across the Pacific. It has never yet been out of order, and I can truly say it excels all other machines that I have ever used.

I am familiar with the Howe, and several of the small machines, but I never used one that would do all kinds of work to equal the Florence. I do not think it can be too highly recommended.

After having a Florence machine in use nearly a year, I feel that I can truly recommend it as being all that is claimed for it. I have used Singer's, Grover & Baker's, and the Wheeler & Wilson machine, and consider the Florence superior to any.

We could refer to many others who are using the Florence, if it were necessary to do so, to convince the public that these machines are what is claimed, the BEST FAMILY SEWING MACHINE IN THE WORLD.

Over Seven Hundred FLORENCE MACHINES have been sold on this coast in the short time the Agency has been established here, and we make this strong assertion, so convincing proof of their worth, that no person can be found who has a Florence that would exchange it for a family sewing machine of any other manufacture.

For the sale of the Florence Family Sewing Machines.

Sessions, Jackson, Ore; M. Wolheim, Grynias, Oregon; L. P. Collins, Traveling Agent; Jas. E. Claves, Traveling Agent; Thornton Westly, Traveling Agent.

Machines will be supplied by all local agents at San Francisco prices, with addition of freight.

CURE YOUR COLD SAVE YOUR LUNGS.

NEWELL'S PULMONARY SYRUP. Has Cured Thousands. It Will Cure You.

"A cough is generally the effect of a cold, which has either been improperly treated or entirely neglected. When it proves obstinate, there is always reason to fear the consequences, as this shows a weak state of the lungs, and is often the forerunner of consumption."

STOP THAT COUGHING! Some of you can't, and we pity you. You have tried every remedy but the one destined by its intrinsic merit, to supersede all similar preparations. It is not surprising you should be reluctant to try some thing else after the many experiences you have made of trashy compounds foisted on the public as a certain cure; but Newell's Pulmonary Syrup, is really the VERY BEST remedy ever compounded for the cure of coughs, colds, Sore Throat, asthma, whooping cough, bronchitis and consumption. Thousands of people in California and Oregon have been already benefited by its curative powers.

WHAT KILLED HIM? Dr. HALL, in his "Journal of Health," speaking of the death of Washington Irving asks the above question, and adds: "He might well have remained with us for years to come, had it not been for advice kindly intended, no doubt, but given in thoughtlessness and reckless ignorance."

HE HAD A COLD! which, by some unjudicious prescription, had been converted into an asthma. Who gave that prescription, or what it was, the outside world may never know. Let me say to Dr. Hall, that that "prescription" was not Newell's Pulmonary Syrup. Keep it in the house, use it freely, give it to your children upon the slightest indication of a cold, and you will think and speak of it as all do who have become acquainted with its merits.

I believe I can fully and conscientiously endorse each qualification claimed for the Florence Sewing machine. To me it seems more than a machine—an almost intelligent, willing helper. Its use is easily learned, and its construction is certainly simple. I know something of the other first class machines, having learned to operate several. This is the only sewing machine I have found reliable.

Friendship.

BY FRANCIS H. MURPHY.

'Mid the ups and downs of varied life, How strong is Friendship's tie; How sweet to have one loving heart, To share each tear, each smile and sigh. When 'neath the weight of care and toil, Hard fortune make us bend, There's naught can soothe or comfort like A true, unchanging friend.

A heart to share our every sorrow, When all around in dark is night, To smile at care and fickle fortune, And whisper words of future bright. When the star of hope seems set in gloom, And foes abound where e're we move, 'Tis then we can appreciate True Sympathy and Love.

It is reported that Gen. Connor, Gov. Evans, Gov. Carney of Kansas and the Governor of Nebraska are about to organize themselves into a committee, visit the President at Washington and place the condition of affairs on the frontiers correctly before him. Gen. Connor believes it will require 15,000 men well armed and mounted, to open an effective campaign against the combined tribes of Indians. It is now patent to every mind in this western country that a war of extermination must be waged against the savages before we can hope for peace or cessation of present difficulties.—Colorado Mining Journal.

WEIGHING AN OFFENSE.—A lady once consulted Dr. Johnson on the degree of turpitude to be attached to her son's robbing an orchard. "Madam," said the Doctor, "it all depends upon the weight of the boy. I remember my school-fellow Davy Garrick, who was always a little fellow, robbing a dozen of orchards with impunity; but the very first time that I climbed upon an apple tree, I was always a heavy boy, the thought broke with me, and it was called a judgment. I suppose that is why Justice is represented with a pair of scales.

Hearing a physician remark that a small blow would break the nose, Daniel exclaimed, "Well I dunno 'bout that! I've given my nose many blows, and I've never broke it yet."
