LITTLE WILLIE.

Poor little Willie, With his many pretty wiles . Worlds of wisdom in his looks, And quaint, quiet smiles; Hair of amber, touch'd with Gold of heaven, so brave , All lying darkly hid In a workhouse grave. You remember little Willie:

Fair and funny fellow ! he Sprang like a lily From the dirt of poverty, Poor little Willie! Not a friend was nigh. When, from the cold world,

He crouch'd down to die. In the day we wandered foodless, Little Willie cried for bread ; In the night we wandered homelels,

Little Willie cried for bed; Parted at the workhouse door, Not a word we said ; Ab. so tired was poor Willie, And so sweetly sleep the dead. 'Twas in in the dead of winter

We laid bim in the earth; The world brought in the new year On the tide of mirth. But, for lost little Willie Not a tear we crave;

Cold and hunger cannot wake him In his workhouse grave. We thought him beautiful; Felt it hard to part ; We loved him dutiful :

Down, down, poor heart ; The storms they may beat ; The wister winds may rave ; Little Wille feels not, In his workhouse grave.

No room for little Willier In the world he had no part : On him stared the Gorgon eye, Through which looks no heart. "Come to me," said Heaven; And, if Heaven will save, Little matters though the door
