THE OREGON SENTINEL BY OVERLAND TELEGRAPH.

[REPORTED EXCLUSIVELY FOR THE SENTINEL.]

New York, 29th .- The Herald's special dispatch says that Secretary Stanton's order will dismide from the military service 50,000 men.

The latest advices show that there is a good prospect of capturing Jeff. Davis' specie and baggage train, if not himself and cabinet.

A report had been received from Bagdad, Mexico, that Cortinuss entered Matumoras with a few men. A skirmish took place, in which but few were killed on either side. An attack on Bagdad was expected. The foreigners in Mutamoras had been organized to defend the place by Mejia. Communication between Bagdad and Malamoras was interrupted.

New York, 27th .- We have New Orleans dates of April 22d. The news of the assassination of President Lincoln cast a pall of gloom and despondency over the sity, which was draped in mourning. Meet ings were held, and expressions of heartfelt public grief put forth. The city was never more shocked.

New York, 30th .- The Herald's New Orleans dispatch says Cortinas has captured Bagdad, Mexico. The garrison was Washington, 29th.-Information has been received here that the rebel pirate Stonewall left Teneriffe for the West Indies and it is supposed that by this time she is in that locality. The Government is establishing military posts in St. Mary's Prince George and Charles counties, Maryland. This is done to protect loyal people in that vicinity, and prevent any treasonable demonstrations by the disloyal. The troops are to forage on the country, and give returns of everything they take. which will be paid for to all persons proving their loyalty. New York, 29th .- The Herald's dispatch, says : Rear Admiral Porter is desucceeds him. The Commercial's special dispatch says, the surrender of Johnston to Sherman is regarded as marking the close of the war. It is not apprehended that tablishment has gained such an enviable any great difficulty will be encountered in reputation throughout the Pacific Coast. disarming the rest of the insurgents. Gen. Grant baving virtually ended the war will return to Washington, and apply himself to the reduction of the callitary. Initiatory measures have been taken for a large curtailment of the expenses. The policy to be adopted towards the rebels in civil life, who have not availed themselves of President Lincoln's Amnesty Proclamation, begins to excite attention. They may soon find it to late to avail themselves of its provisions.

New York, 29th .- The Herald's special dispatch says, the organization included in the force surrendered by Johnston is the military division of the first. The Army of Tennessee, Gen. Johnston, the army of Gen. Brugg, the army of South Carolina, Georgia, Florida, Lieut, Gen, Hardee, the Georgia militia and Maj. Gen. Howell Cobb. The only comaining rebel army east of the Mississippi unsurrendered is that of Dick Taylor's, which also, formed part of Johnston's command, but as Jeff Davis is probably making his way through that district doubtless declined to surrender it until Davis could get beyond the Mississippi.

New Work, 30th .- The Herald's Newbern correspondence, April 24th, says the lamentations of Sberman's army over the assassination of Lincoln auddenly changed to rejoicing at the appearance of Grant.

The surrender of Johnston embraces the surrender of four armies. Among the Generals surrendered is Beauregard. The principal among the Lieut. Gens. is Har dec. Bragg, lately relieved of command was not surrendered. Wade Hampton refused to be surrendered and is reported to have been shot by Johnston in an aftercation; but a more trustworthy report is that be fied in company with Davis. The num-ber of men actually surrendered is 27,400.

BEAUREGARD.

BY H. E. G. ABEY

"With mertar, Paixban and Peterd We tender you our Beauregard."
[Jeff Davis at the beginning of the war.

Where is the chief your challenge knew ! Where are your mortars, vaunted high? "He stole away, I tell you true,"-Seeking the "last ditch where to die." We've found, with "Paixhan and petard," How tender is your Beauregard.

Swift let him speed ! our conquering arms, Unwearied, press behind him hard! Far let him fly from war's alarms! Your first fair chieftain, battle scarred! Lest we, with "Paixhan and petard," O'ertake, and hang your Beauregard.
