

THE OREGON SENTINEL

A FARE.

When President Lincoln issued his first proclamation, calling for 75,000 men to subdue the rebellion, and commanding all persons in arms against the United States to disperse within twenty days, the announcement was received by the rebel Congress at Montgomery with "roars of laughter." The president's order was deemed a bit of the choicest pleasantry to be thus reminded of their duties as citizens and to be asked to relinquish the new Government which they had adopted, and under whose benign protection they expected to live in the full enjoyment of the rights they had at last found. They affected to regard the command of the President as a wholly impotent one and deemed his order for their dispersion the broadest farce that could be devised.

But a more complete farce than they made of that which finally turned out to be a matter of some seriousness, was lately enacted in the State of Georgia. The grand magnate of the imaginary Confederacy, abandoned by all his retainers, and hunted as a fugitive from one swamp to another, was at last overtaken by his pursuers. And what of his retinue? Where the assembled courtiers that wait on the head of State? Where the "dignity that doth hedge" a President? Where the panoply of his power? Let us descend from such inquiries to the contemplation of his actual condition. Let us place before the imagination the spectacle of a "President" clad in feminine habiliments and endeavoring by long strides to evade his agile pursuers. But not so could he escape. Crinolines itself could not avail. The unlucky display of his bowed leg, caused by his hasty flight, revealed his disguised chief of a "nation" which had long boasted of its inviolability, and which was the only true type of "civilization" among degenerate men.

The climax is at last reached. Never again need the example of the ridiculous or the farcical be sought in vain. A "President" in woman's apparel, running with the speed of Achilles, yet not toward his enemy as Achilles did run! The end of the drama is as farcical as its beginning and middle were tragical. Yet after all it is a fitting end to a scheme whose irrationality throughout has had no parallel in the history of the world.—Oregonian.

Communicated.

FARWELL CORRESPONDENT.—The Reporter in a recent number, mixed the name of Fred Robinson with that of Old Joe Lane and his family.

It will be remembered that Mr. Robinson was a delegate to the copperhead convention which met in March, 1864; and also was the candidate for County Clerk on the copperhead ticket, in Douglas Co., at the last June election. He has never been a Southern fire-eater to the same extent with Lane and his blowers and strikers. A desire to better his political and financial condition, induced him to leave Roseburg, leaving the impression that [possible though not probable] he would not stop until he reached Mexico.

I happened to see a letter from Mr. Robinson, now in the possession of a citizen of this county. A paragraph reads thus: "I was in San Francisco on the announcement of Lincoln's death. I think it the most damnable thing that ever the American people could resort to. It has made a good Union man of me henceforth and forever." Success to the fidelity, to the Union, to all such men as Fred Robinson.

We have strong reasons to believe that a large number in Jackson county, who voted the copperhead ticket at the last Presidential election, fearless of the scorpion lash of "pious" Pat of the Reporter, will join in the chorus, "farewell copperheads, I'm going home."

Go and SEE.—All who have music in their souls, go and see the original Swiss Bell Ringers. The five poetical couplets, "music hath charms to soothe, etc.," has been corrupted to "split a rock and burst a cabbage head." So all persons of that class are warned, for these Bell Ringers have power to split forty thousand cabbage heads.

It is said that the single tune of "Home, Sweet Home" is worth the price of admission.

We recommend old and young, sad and joyous, one and all, to attend. They play here on Friday and Saturday of next week, and in the afternoon on Saturday for the schools. If we are allowed to judge of the whole company by their agent, we will pronounce it good and well worthy of patronage. See their advertisement in another column.

ATTEMPTED TO ESCAPE.—On Wednesday evening last, Mulkey, the person who was confined here for harralung for Jeff Davis, attempted to escape. Four sentinels were on duty. The prisoner was in the yard near the quarters, and while three of the sentinels were out of sight behind the building, Mulkey knocked down the guard nearest to him who happened to be a boy, and made his escape to the garden of Mr. Laxon, a few rods distant, where he concealed himself among the shrubbery. He was soon found and marched back to his quarters.—State Journal.

THE GOOD TEMPLARS.—We learn that the Good Templars are fully organized and in working order at this place. There has been healthy lodges organized at Phoenix and Ashland.

DENTISTRY.—Dr. Hearn, of Yreka, has returned to Jacksonville, and will remain for three weeks. All who desire to have their teeth repaired had better call on him. See his card in this issue.

See Bradbury & Wade's new advertisement, in another column.

GREATER THAN THE LABORS OF HERCULES.

Our great and good and illustrious President has fallen a victim to his own humanity. In the heroism of his charity, he could not be persuaded that men were so bad, though, like Rabelais, "his castle swarmed with assassins." But, God be praised! though he fell fatally, his sudden fall shaking the nation from surface to center, he lived long enough to do more for freedom than did Caesar or Alexander, or any of war's helmeted demigods, who, at the head of swarming millions, strode among the ruins of nations. He lived long enough to wrench the galling chains from the limbs of four millions of bondsmen, and died in time to create another Mount Vernon, to be folded within the fond embrace of the same cemetery; to see the opening morning of the new creation, and the sinister hopes of rebellion descending the leaders that lead to their infernal caves!—S. F. Flag, May 11th.

NOVEL IDEA.—We heard a new plan this week for liquidating the war debt, and at the same time punishing J. F. Davis. Jeff is to be put into an iron cage, securely fastened and riveted, and taken through the country as a show, Barnum to go ahead as agent and advertiser, with Ben Butler and Horace Greely as Showmen to the animal. To further help the Showmen, they are to have a large nigger, with a pine pole from Maine, to stir him up. We think from the proceeds of such a menagerie, the war debt would be cancelled in about twelve months.

PROFESSOR DUBBS gave one of his entertainments in this place on last Thursday evening. He performs his tricks in a truly legitimate style. We have not space to notice the tricks in succession, but we must say the "Aerial Suspension Act" is incomprehensible, and worth going to see. The Professor gives another exhibition to night.

The Washington Council, No. 1, U. L. A., has passed resolutions recommending that a monument to Lincoln be erected in this city by the people of the Pacific Coast, and that $250,000 be raised for the purpose.—S. F. South's Companion.

RELIGIOUS.—Pursuant to the proclamation of President Johnson, Rev. M. A. Williams will hold religious exercises at Phoenix, on Thursday, June 1st.

Messrs. P. J. Ryan and U. S. Hayden started for San Francisco this week. Mr. Ryan intends purchasing a large and fine stock of goods while there.

U. S. 7-30 LOAN.

BY AUTHORITY OF THE SECRETARY of the Treasury, the undersigned has assumed the General Subscription Agency for the sale of United States Treasury Notes, bearing seven and three-tenths per cent. interest, per annum, known as the

SEVEN-THIRTY LOAN.

These Notes are issued under date June 15th, 1865, and are payable three years from that time, in currency, or are convertible, at the option of the holder, into

U. S. 5-20 Six per cent GOLD BEARING BONDS

These bonds are now worth a premium of nine per cent. including gold interest from November, which makes the actual profit on the 7-30 loan at current rates, including interest about ten per cent. per annum, besides its exemption from STATE AND MUNICIPAL TAXATION, WHICH ARISE FROM ONE TO THREE PER CENT. MORE, according to the rate levied on other property. The interest is payable in currency, semi-annually, by coupons attached to each note, which may be cut off and sold to any bank or banker.

The interest amounts to
One cent per day on a $50 note.
Two cents " " $100 "
Ten " " $500 "
20 " " $1,000 "
$1 " " $5,000 "

Notes of all denominations named will be promptly furnished upon receipt of subscription. This is now offered by the Government, and it is confidently expected that its superior advantages will make it the

THE ONLY LOAN IN MARKET

GREAT POPULAR LOAN OF THE PEOPLE.

Less than $300,000,000 of the loan authorized by the last Congress, are now on the market.

This amount, at the rate at which it is being absorbed, will all be subscribed for within four months, when the notes will undoubtedly command a premium, as has uniformly been the case on closing the subscription to other Loans.

In order that citizens of every town and section of the country may be afforded facilities for taking the loan, the National Bank, State Banks, and Private Bankers throughout the country have generally agreed to receive subscriptions at par. Subscribers will select their own agents, in whom they have confidence, and who only are to be responsible for the delivery of the notes for which they receive orders.
