

THE OREGON SENTINEL

Particulars of the Port Neuf Murders.

Our readers will remember that some days since the telegraph informed us that a terrible tragedy had been enacted by some stage robbers in a canon this side of Salt Lake, near Port Neuf. We copy the following particulars of the terrible affair from the Salt Lake Telegraph.

Before the coach entered the canon, a man passed by the party and repassed them in about twenty minutes, from the opposite direction. Suspicion being aroused, all in the coach got their guns and pistols ready, and in a few minutes, Mr. Parker, who was sitting with his back to the front of the coach, perceived the robbers in the brush, and gave the alarm by saying, "Robbers! Fire!" They instantly fled, and the robbers fired at the same time and killed Messrs. Dian, Mers and McCausland, and wounded Mr. Carpenter, who fell in the bottom of the coach, with the dead bodies of two of the murdered men upon him. Mr. Brown, another of the passengers, then jumped from the coach, holding up his hands as required by the robbers, and while in that defenceless position, one of the villains took aim at him to kill him. Charley Parks, one of the party, observing this, fired at the robber, and he fell on his knees wounded, and while in that position made another attempt to shoot Brown, who escaped, a dozen shots being fired after him as he went. Parker also jumped from the coach, and was immediately shot, and then dragged by the hair of his head across the road and shot again. Charley Parks who was wounded, was also fired at again. One of the robbers then jumped in the coach on the bodies of the two dead men, and threw out Dian's body, with an oath; and placing a pistol at Carpenter's head, demanded to know where the money was, declaring, with curses, that they had been "watching for them a long time, and now had got them," and would kill Carpenter instantly unless he directed him to the money, which he did: one robber coming back two or three times to the coach, threatening to kill Carpenter, as he was not satisfied to leave him alive. While engaged in plundering, the robbers intimated to Frank Williams, the driver, that they would kill him also as soon as they were through. One of the gang remarked: "Don't kill him, for one of them (meaning Brown) is out." Carpenter and Parks also plied so hard for the life of the driver that he was spared. Of the killed men, W. L. Mers belonged to the Overland Stage Line, A. S. Parker to Atchison, Kansas, A. J. McCausland to Virginia, Montana and David Dian to Nevada, Montana. It appears that the coach was perforated with about seventy shots. The robbers were painted black, and had black handkerchiefs round their heads.

GREAT FIRE AT WALLA WALLA.—Letters received here last night inform us that a very destructive fire occurred in Walla Walla last Tuesday morning. It was thought the fire originated in the kitchen of the City Hotel. After the flames got under way they spread above and below the City Hotel, and across the street, destroying forty or fifty buildings. The burnt district extends from the Oriental Hotel to Kraft's stable. The loss is estimated to reach above $200,000. The people of Walla Walla are going to work energetically to rebuild. As early as Saturday considerable lumber had already been placed on the ground. Mr. Kraft, it is said, would have a new stable ready in a few days. He saved his horses, buggies, &c., from the fire. Many of the merchants saved a large portion of their goods.

The following is a list of the losses by the fire:

C. Jacobs & Co.	$15,000
Kelhauff & Guelhard	6,000
C. Winsor	4,000
John Clisholm	4,000
E. Everett	450
Oriental Hotel	15,000
Fred. Stone	5,000
L. Revonough	5,000
W. J. Terry	20,000
Jos. Coulon	6,000
Dr. Tilhodo	8,000
Jas. McAuliff	4,500
Kraft (estimated)	4,000
J. Berger	2,000
Jas. Galbreath	6,000
Elias & Bro.	20,000
J. Baum	5,000
City Hotel	15,000
Bank Exchange	15,000
Court House	6,000

Other losses not here mentioned will probably swell the total amount to over $200,000.—Daily Oregonian, Aug. 8th.

A NEW FEATURE IN THE P. O. DEPARTMENT.—The Postmaster General has given notice that hereafter all stamped envelopes sold by the Department will have a blank form printed across the left end, as follows: "If not called for within — days, please return to — — —", leaving the number of days and writer's address to be filled in before mailing. The object of this is to decrease the number of "dead letters" forwarded every month, and to obviate the injurious effects of mistakes which are liable at all times to occur in any business house, to the great detriment of trade, as well as in matters of a purely private nature.

To still further carry out the objects of the Department, notice is given that any party ordering from the Postmaster of the city one thousand stamped envelopes can have the name, business and full address of the writer, as a merchant, banker, hotel keeper, attorney, or other occupation printed in full on the envelopes, leaving no blank to be filled up, without extra charge for printing; or in other words, the envelopes thus finished for individual use, will be furnished at the regular cost of stamped envelopes.

The address or card so printed, must not exceed four lines across the face of the letter, and all of the work will be done in uniform style.

GEN. SHERMAN must do something to get the Copperhead papers down on him again, or he is ruined man. Their slobbers would kill the gentleman who has charge of the lower regions.

VERY FORTUNATE.—Mr. W. C. Tweedal, of Albany, Linn Co., passed through town the past week, on his way to Crescent City. His mother was one of the rescued passengers of the steamer Johnathan.

We have received a copy of the "Premium List" of the State Fair, in pamphlet form. It is now ready for distribution.

MORE, ACCORDING TO THE RATE LEVIED ON OTHER PROPERTY. The interest is payable in currency, semi-annually, by coupons attached to each note, which may be cut off and sold to any bank or banker.

The interest amounts to:
One cent per day on a $50 note.

Ten " " $500 "
Twenty " " $1,000 "
Eighty " " $5,000 "

Notes of all denominations named will be promptly furnished upon receipt of subscription.

THE ONLY LOAN IN MARKET now offered by the Government, and it is confidently expected that its superior advantages will make it the GREAT POPULAR LOAN OF THE PEOPLE.

Less than $300,000,000 of the loan authorized by the last Congress, are now on the market.

This amount, at the rate at which it is being absorbed will all be subscribed for within four months, when the notes will undoubtedly command a premium, as has uniformly been the case on closing the subscriptions to other Loans.

In order that citizens of every town and section of the country may be afforded facilities for taking the loan, the National Banks, State Banks, and Private Bankers throughout the country have generally agreed to receive subscriptions at par. Subscribers will select their own agents, in whom they have confidence, and who only are to be responsible for the delivery of the notes for which they receive orders.
