

RECOVERY BILL.—Senator Cranston, of Lane county, has introduced a bill in the Senate, requiring persons to register their names before a precinct Registrar, before voting. The following is the oath to be taken:

"I, A. B. do solemnly swear (or affirm) that I will bear true faith and allegiance to the Constitution and Government of the United States, and of the State of Oregon, and that I will support, protect and defend the same against all enemies, both foreign and domestic, and that I do this of my own free will, without any mental reservation or exception whatsoever, and I do further swear (or affirm) that I have never given voluntarily aid or assistance, either directly or indirectly, to the rebellion against the United States, presented under the assumed title of 'Confederate States of America,' by bearing arms, furnishing aid or supplies, or encouraging others to do so, nor have I been guilty of what was called 'aid and comfort' to the rebellion, and I have never been a member of any secret order, society or organization, the object of which was to encourage, assist or strengthen the rebellion, nor have I, in any way, given voluntarily aid, counsel or continuance, to said rebellion; so help me God."

INSTALLATION.—The MEXICANS will have a public installation at the M. E. Church, on Wednesday evening, December 27th. O. J. Smith, Esq. is engaged to deliver an address, and we are informed that Mr. Brooks, aided by several ladies and gentlemen in town, are practicing music to be used upon the occasion.

INCORPORATED.—The discoverers of the silver lead on Jackson Creek, incorporated this week under the name of "The Original Fairplay Gold and Silver Mining Company." Incorporators J. Burnett, T. G. D. Evans, E. Smith and J. S. Howard.

PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE.—We copy from the Sacramento Union a synopsis of the President's Message, to-day, and hope to get a more full report next week.

TABLE OF STAMP DUTIES

[As amended by Act of June 20, 1864.]

Observations on Stamp Duties.

It is not lawful to record an unstamped or improperly stamped instrument, document or paper, and if recorded, such record shall be void, and shall not be used in evidence; but the instrument, document, and paper shall not, in consequence, be deemed invalid and of no effect; and all such papers of an official nature, issued or used by the officers of the United States government, are exempt from stamp duty.

No deed or mortgage of real estate shall be required to pay a stamp duty exceeding $1,000.

Income. The Internal Revenue Law requires every person to pay income tax on all income for the past year over and above $600 derived from any source whatever. The tax is five per centum on the first $5,000, in excess over $600, and ten per centum on the excess over $5,000. Income should be made up by the 31st day of January, from the first day of January to the last day of December, both days inclusive. The sooner this is made up after the expiration of the year, the more correct it will likely be.

Acknowledgement of deeds or other instruments. Exempt. All bills, $9.65. Agreement or appraisement, for each sheet, 65.
