MARCH 24th 1866
Douglas County Union Convention.

The County Union Convention met at Roseburg on the 17th and nominated their county ticket. Our address from there speak of great unanimity in all the proceedings of the Convention, and that the delegates met determined to fight Copperheads. Resolutions were introduced, declaring the mission of the Union party incomplete until the pacification of the late rebellious States has been effected—advocating all proper and constitutional measures for the advancement of harmony and a satisfactory reconstruction of the lately rebellious States; that every attempt to sow discord in the Union ranks is the work of our enemies for the destruction of the Union party and the downfall of Republican institutions; favoring the strictest economy in the management of State and County finances, and providing for the taking of the sense of the people on the question of the division of Douglas county to be submitted at the county election.

Seven delegates were elected to attend the Union State Convention, at Corvallis, viz: Jesse Applegate, John Fallerton, James Watson, Wm. R. Willis, John Kelly, James Cole and Thomas Deal.

The delegates were instructed to vote and use their influence for the nomination of R. F. Mallory, of Salem, for Representative to Congress.

The Union party has always been successful in Douglas county, and the canvass is entered this year with the full determination to gain a larger majority than ever before, and we believe they will do it.

For the nominations of the county ticket see another column.

BOOK & STATIONERY AGENCY.—Our readers will notice O. A. Davis' advertisement in another column. He has started a General Book & Stationery Agency, which we think is urgently needed in this part of Oregon, for it will enable people to get anything in that line they have a mind to order, delivered right at their own doors, and we have no doubt the people of this section will appreciate and improve the opportunity. This is truly a reading age, and the man who fails to supply himself and family with useful books will find in a few years that he has made a great mistake. Mr. Davis is agent for a great number of works which are sold exclusively by subscription, among which is one that he is now canvassing for—Grant and Sherman and their Campaigns, by J. T. Headly. We do not hesitate to say it is one of the very best and most popular works ever offered to the public. Mr. Headly is, without exception, the most successful military writer now living, as thousands of readers of "Napoleon and his Marshals" and "Washington and his Generals" will testify, and he has treated his present subject with his rarest genius. The style and fire of his descriptions will touch a popular chord, and we think this work will meet with a large sale.

DEMOCRATIC ORATORY.—We publish the following synopsis of Fay's speech, delivered on Saturday evening last, and reported especially for the SENTINEL. "The distinguished Copperhead was mounted on a dry goods box in front of a 'big' whisky mill, and being pregnant with his duty as a democratic citizen, his now born admiration for President Johnson was delivered as follows: Constitution, Old Constitution—New Constitution—Johnson 'or any other man'—Office—Democracy—Greenbacks—Seven thirties—Ohio—Leaves and Fishes—Constitutionally or any other way—Democracy—Thieves—Swindlers—Jubilee—Hall (oh! oh! Glory) when the Union party bask. Old Colver—Niggers—Colver's friends—More nigger—Old Thompson—Not so much nigger—Contracts—Union leader—Empty pockets—Hungry Democrats—Andy a bark (just here the orator seemed to have a crick in his hat, and swallowed a glass of 'ten-cent rot-gut' to balance it). The harangue lasted an hour or more, and was loudly cheered by the audience. We have only to say that while language that too plainly indicates the frequenter of grogeries, and unworthy the parlous of a fish market, is cheered on the public streets, copperhead reptiles will still linger among us."

TO SAN FRANCISCO.—Mr. A. Fisher went out on Thursday morning's stage for San Francisco. He will return with a new stock of goods.

DEMOCRATIC.—The delegates to the Democratic State Convention at Portland, started down on Wednesday morning last.

FOR CORVALLIS.—Messrs B. F. Dowell and J. D. Applegate, delegates to the Union State Convention, started down Thursday last.

DEMOCRATIC.—The delegates to the Democratic State Convention at Portland, started down on Wednesday morning last.

County Union Convention.

JACKSONVILLE, March 17, 1866.
Pursuant to a call of the Chairman of the County Union Central Committee, the delegates from the various precincts met in Taylor's Hall, on 1st street, in caucus with closed doors, at 10 1/2 A. M.

H. Root, of Eden Precinct, was elected Chairman, and D. M. C. Gartz, Secretary.

Several speeches were made by the different delegates, on the course to be pursued by, and the prospects of the party. On motion, the Chair was instructed to appoint a committee of three on credentials and instruct them to report at the opening of the afternoon session. B. F. Dowell, (Chairman) Albert Rockefeller and I. M. Wagner were appointed.

On motion, the convention adjourned to meet at half past two in the afternoon.

AFTERNOON SESSION.
Convention called to order by H. Root, in the Chair.

On motion, H. Root was elected permanent Chairman, and in the absence of the Secretary A. Rockefeller was chosen Assistant Secretary.

The Committee on Credentials reported the following gentlemen as entitled to seats in the convention: Kenneth Precinct—O. A. Stearns, and proxy for J. M. Harris and W. B. Marquis; Eden—H. Root, I. M. Wagner, S. Colver, E. E. Gere and D. E. Stearns; Table Rock—Chambers Nye; H'low Springs—S. P. Dean and Joseph P. Keene; Bushnell—J. Miller Sterling; John Wright; Route Creek—William Pritchard; Forest Creek—William Ray; Manzanita—J. Thompson and N. T. Leaver; Johnson—A. G. Forbyer, Frank Smith and A. G. Rockefeller; Johnsonville—George Brown, H. Duncas, B. F. Dowell, W. Bilger, M. Bellinger, J. K. Love, G. Karasid, L. S. Thompson and N. Langell; Rockaway—John C. Campbell and C. Bluffin; Union Town—M. D. Sturgis and R. H. Armstrong; Applegate—James Wilson.

On motion, the Report was received and the committee discharged.

On motion, O. A. Stearns was empowered to cast the whole six votes to which Kenneth Precinct was entitled.

On motion, A. H. Chapin was admitted as delegate from Pleasant Creek, and H. Depudist from Steamboat City.

Moved and seconded that one delegate from each precinct be appointed on a committee to select the delegates to the State Convention, to be held at Corvallis on the 29th of this month.

After a short address the Committee reported the names of the following persons as delegates: B. F. Dowell, Jacksonville; C. Nye, Table Rock and Bette Creek; I. D. Applegate, Fort Klammath; G. L. Todd, Peckinville; N. T. Leaver, Manzanita, and M. H. Drake, Applegate.

On motion, the report was received and the committee discharged.

Moved and seconded that the Report be adopted—carried.

The convention instructed their delegates not to urge the claims of L. S. Thompson and J. C. Tolman to a nomination on the State ticket.

On motion, the convention adjourned.
H. ROOT, Chairman.
D. M. C. GARTZ, Secy.

REMOVED.—We have to chronicle the departure of the family of Mr. Wm. Hunter from Jackson county. They left their old home, on Rogue River, on Wednesday last, bound for Albany, which is to be their future residence. Mr. Hunter was a staunch and devoted Union man, and his interesting family will be a valuable acquisition to Linn county. Miss Hattie has long been an agent for the SENTINEL, and she will please accept our thanks while we express deep regret that our only lady agent is leaving us.

A MISTAKE.—We committed an error last week in saying that McDougall, of California, was drunk on the floor of the United States Senate. It was Saulsbury, of Delaware, who had received such an over dose of Democracy, and not the Senator from our neighboring State, who generally goes to bed when his "leg is full." We will make amends by not mentioning the fact next time. McDougall gets drunk, and expect to balance the account very shortly.

JENKINS IS COMING.—The little red-mouthed Copperhead, Fay, who spoke on Saturday evening last, said that if Dowell were elected there would be a carnival among thieves and criminals. Wouldn't the Democracy have a good time, then? Wouldn't there be a jubilee—a general jail delivery and a glorious re-union of Fay and his democratic friends. The orator seemed to be thankful that even this crumbs of comfort was left them, and wisely concluded that it was an ill wind that blew good to no one, as the election of Mr. Dowell seems to be inevitable.

NEW MONTHLY.—We have received the first number of "The Miner," a monthly magazine devoted to the promotion of the mining interests of the Pacific States and Territories. It is published by, and is the organ of the Cal. Mining Bureau Association, San Francisco, Cal. Terms of subscription, $3 00 per annum in advance.

CAMPION PAPER.—The second number of the Eugene City News has made its appearance. It is neat, typographically, but politically, very democratic, and exhibits its lack of education by the use of such words as "lawyalo," "yanyun" &c.

From J. H. D. Henderson.

Dr. W. H. HANCOCK, DEAN FRIENDS—
I presume you see by telegraph all important movements of Congress, and know about as well as we do what is going on.

I have tried to get since I came here consistent with the positions I took while a candidate before the people. I have advocated and voted for every measure proposed for the welfare of the colored people, except giving them the right of voting among the whites in the District of Columbia, and this I felt bound to oppose. If there should be any measure proposed to appropriate territory to their benefit, I shall favor it; and if they are to be permanently located here, I shall favor the extension of the right of suffrage to them so soon as they are sufficiently enlightened, as a class, to enable them to vote intelligently.

I suppose there is beginning to be considerable canvassing for candidates to present to the people at the June election, in Oregon. I suppose the question will naturally arise in the minds of the people whether I will be a candidate for re-election or not, and I will say to you as to one whom I regard as a friend, that I am a candidate just to this extent, that is: If the people should think proper to sustain my course and re-elect me I will accept the position and serve one more term in Congress, but no longer; as I have no wish to consecrate the remainder of my days to the care and anxiety of political life. But I would like to serve a second term, from the fact that no man can wield his full strength the first term. First, he has to become familiar with parliamentary proceedings to be expert, and then he must be conversant with his fellow members in order to command their confidence.

I believe I have the respect and good will of all as far as I have taken what is considered a conservative course, and expect in the general to sustain the President's policy.

This is a private letter and intended for yourself, but you are authorized and requested to explain my position to our friends on proper occasions.

Yours truly,
J. H. D. HENDERSON.
New York, Jan. 30, 1866.

IT IS WELLS.—The California dailies have got a big thing on items and they are reading it. When everything else fails, they fall back on Wells, alias Donald McDonald, the Sacramento murderer. The present condition of the item market stands thus—The man arrested in Idaho has arrived at Sacramento, and is being exhibited daily to crowds of sheriffs, policemen, constables, jailors and divers disreputable characters for identification. Some think him Wells and others think him not Wells; while Donald swears he is neither Wells nor any relation of Wells, and feels very well at this being mistaken for a murderer. The majority of examining witnesses are one day pretty sure that he is Wells, and then the crowd about "is well," but the next day the preponderance of opinion goes the other way, and then Wells thinks "is well."

If the man really be Wells, then it is well. But while there is any reasonable doubt, it would be well to give the man Wells or not Wells, the benefit of it. "Fare ye well, Wells were hung, but not well to hang a man not Wells, for Wells' crime."—Oregonian.

A TERRIBLE MURDER.—One of the Albany papers says: "Mr. Smith and wife, living between Modoc and Calapoia, in Linn county, were both murdered on Friday, the 9th. Smith was shot through the head and was found lying in the yard. His wife was shot in the shoulder and was found dead in the smoke house. On some of the neighbors calling at the house, a brother of the murdered man made his appearance and declared that Smith had killed his wife and then committed suicide. It was observed that the bullet hole in the head of the dead man was not powder burnt, indicating that the weapon had been in the hand of some one at a considerable distance when the fatal shot was fired. This led to the belief that Smith's brother had committed the murder. It was rumored that this brother had been intending to run away with one of Smith's daughters—a girl about sixteen years old—and that she and a younger sister, about eight years old, implicated him as the murderer."

FROM THE EAST.—Mr. C. Myer returned home this week, bringing a very fine horse. We have not seen his horse nor do we know of what stock he is, but understand that he is very large and well built, which we are ready to believe, as Mr. Myer went to the States for the purpose of selling himself, and he is a good judge of horse-flesh, and nothing but a superior article would satisfy his fine taste.

DELEGATES FROM JOHNSON.—Messrs. William M. Evans and Campbell Caldwell, were elected delegates to the Union State Convention, by the county Union Convention, held in Korbville, on the 17th.

NOT TO SERVE.—President Johnson recently notified Gov. Wells, of La., that the rebel Monroe must not be permitted to serve as Mayor of New Orleans.

WM. B. CARTER, of Portland, has become associated with Judge Odensal in the publication of the Corvallis Gazette.

MONEY TO LOAN.—See advertisement of D. Linn, County Treasurer.
Greenbacks are on the rise.

TELEGRAPHIC.
[SPECIAL TO THE SENTINEL.]

Dates to the 23d of March.

WASHINGTON, 21st.
No conclusion has been arrived at by the Ways and Means Committee on the Finance Bill. The Committee will take a vote on the matter to-morrow with the probability of reaching the bill and again reporting the bill which came so near passing.

The Senate, yesterday, passed the bill authorizing the construction of a submarine telegraph between the United States and West Indies, with exclusive privilege for fourteen years.

The Senate, yesterday, confirmed a large number of appointments. Among them S. D. Ward McKee, of Colorado, Minister resident in the Hawaiian Islands. Wm. H. Sargent, of Oregon, Indian Agent in Wallington Territory. D. C. Oakes, of California, Agent for the Grand River Indians. B. L. Fairfield, Agent for Round Valley Indians. J. R. Houghton, of New Mexico, Associate Justice of New Mexico.

WASHINGTON, 21st.
Several Connecticut men had an interview with the President, among them Senator Foster and Gen. Hawley, Union candidate for Governor. The interview was of a personal and private nature, and it is reported to have been satisfactory to the editors. The President assured them he had given no intimation of a desire for the election of a Democratic Senator, but, on the contrary, desires the success of the Union nominees, and is glad to see a disposition by the people to support soldiers.

WASHINGTON, 21st.
The House Election Committee voted 6 to 3 that James Brooks is not entitled to a seat in Congress and that Dodge is.

WASHINGTON, 21st.
A Call has been issued by the National Union Committee, of which Alex. Randall, Asst. Post Master General, is President, for a grand mass meeting to be held at Washington next week to endorse President Johnson.

House passed the diplomatic apportionment bill, with an amendment authorizing the appointment of a Solicitor for the State Department, at an annual salary of $3,000. The House passed the bill to prevent railroads, which have received land grants, from receiving any compensation for Government business.

In the Senate, Brown introduced a bill to aid in the construction of a rail road from Kansas City to Galveston. Ramsey, of Minn., presented a memorial from the Legislature of Minn. for the establishment of a port of entry at the head of Lake Superior.

Julian introduced a bill to equalize the bounties of Soldiers and Sailors, which was referred to Committee on Military affairs.

Henderson, of Oregon, presented a joint resolution of the Legislature of Oregon, in regard to Oregon War Claims.

Ward, of New York, said that the friends of deceased soldiers buried at Arlington cemetery were apprehensive lest it should revert to the heirs of Gen. Lee; therefore, he desired to read a letter from the Secretary of War, which states that the Arlington property was bid in for the government at $20,000, at a sale for U. S. Taxes, Jan. 11th, the certificate of sale would soon be placed on file in the Treasury Department.
