PUBLIC SPEAKING.

GEORGE L. WOOD and JAMES K. KELLY Candidates for Governor...

The Ratification.

By two a clock last Saturday the crowd was lined with persons ready to "ratify."

Mr. James E. Fay was introduced and made one of his most eloquent addresses...

One of the best arguments made by Mr. Fay...

Our political opponents have been used of with courtesy by our party...

We make a paragraph or two from the masterly opinion of Chief Justice Marshall...

It will be remembered by those who have kept the eye of past events...

Resolved, That we are in favor of the Union...

Now the Constitution and the Supreme Court...

Resolved, That we are in favor of the Union...

Well Illustrated.

The general diffusion of education, the encouragement of morality and the highest civilization...

Such is the language of the text. Morality and intelligence began to flourish...

We were in hopes that the Democracy of Jacksonville would put the above principles...

Dreadful Explosion.

The Telegraph informs us that a terrible catastrophe took place in San Francisco on Monday, the 13th...

Immediately after the explosion, flying bricks and other missiles came raining down from every window...

At the time of the catastrophe, the building was in the vicinity of the city hall...

The rear wall of Bell's brick building, used as an assay laboratory...

The boxes containing the Nitro Glycerine which exploded were each 24 feet high...

Lying in the rear were three bodies, two not recognized were those of the third...
