

MINING.

We desire much to copy after the Press, but the powerful article in that paper last week, in behalf of the miners, suggests the propriety of saying a word for another hard-working class of people.

The mines in this vicinity have furnished employment to a good many men for a long time. The present season was not quite so favorable as usual, or else the number of big nuggets do not come up to the demand for them.

HOUSE BURNED.—Judge Tolman informs us that a small house on his farm, occupied by Mr. F. Morgan, was burned on the 16th inst.

FULLY EXPLAINED.—The Press man proves the old saw—"drunk men and fools tell the truth." He charges the Southern Oregon Democracy with being the cause of his issuing so miserable a paper on the 6th inst.

BRIDGE ACCIDENT.—While a drove of cattle was crossing a bridge over Little Butte creek, near J. J. Fryer's place, the 14th inst., it broke down, precipitating the herd into the water below.

NEW NAME.—Our unhappy contemporary announces that he has had a "big disgust on" for several weeks. We suppose that's a new name for getting "beastly," and, certainly, if his "disgust" is equal to that of this community for him, it is a heavy old dose.

HAY BURNED.—Mr. J. L. Wilder, living at the Junction house, on Slate Creek, in Josephine county, had about fifteen tons of hay burned on Saturday last.

Senator Williams.

This gentleman, on Tuesday last, addressed the citizens of this county, at length, on the political situation. The speech was a clear, compact and logical statement of the reconstruction policy of Congress, and the occasions, necessities and reasons for that policy.

In speaking of this clause, apparently so repugnant and distasteful, Mr. Williams showed that it was not only absolutely necessary that the cooperation of loyal votes should be secured in the work of reconstruction, but that it was eminently just that those who had bared their breasts to the storm of rebel bullets, should have the protecting power of the franchise placed in their hands, to shield them from the aggressive prejudice and hatred of those they had assisted to defeat on the field of battle.

The Senator throughout was listened to with marked attention. But few Democrats heard him through. The audience was a very large one, considering the fact that farmers are engaged in harvesting all over the valley.

O. Jacobs' Oration.

There appeared in the Press of last week an extraordinary criticism of Mr. Jacobs and the oration he delivered on the Fourth. In its total want of gentlemanly courtesy, in the bitterness of its little malice, and in the meanness of its insinuations, it is worthy of the precocious youth in whose brain it was hatched.

The starving of men by the thousand, contrary to the rules of war and the dictates of humanity, must be passed over in silence, or the speaker is vilified by such squibs as edit the Press. What makes these fellows so sensitive upon that subject? Do they think it right? Are they not willing to admit that it was a base and damning wrong?

DEATH OF LIEUT. RAND.—The Vancouver Register has received information from Victoria, to the effect that Lieut. Wm. M. Rand, late of the Oregon Infantry Regiment, died at Victoria on the 3d inst.

On!—The Press man says he copied an editorial from the SENTINEL in a fit of abstraction. Why don't he say he was drunk, and so shame the Devil by telling the truth once in his life?

THE Marysville Appeal has entered upon its sixteenth volume. It is one of the most influential and best conducted Union papers in California, and equal to any of them in point of Editorial ability.

EMIGRATION.—Mr. R. J. Forbes, County Clerk of Josephine Co., informs us that there are many emigrants moving into that county.

Proceedings of the Board of Trustees.

The Board of Trustees convened in regular session, at the usual hour. Members present—David Linn, President of the Board; John S. Love and John Orth.

The Town Attorney presented a bill granting certain rights to H. Judge and others, to open a water ditch, which was made "Ordinance No. 31," and passed. Licenses to retail spirituous liquors were granted to S. M. Farren and John Walters—each assessed $50 for six months.

The Board met July 15th, at the time appointed—full Board present, with the exception of A. Martin. The records of the last session were read and approved. The Board took up the matter of street crossings, and after disposing of the petition of McLoughlin and others, ordered that flag-stone crossings should be laid down, three feet wide, on seven of the principal crossings.

John Hall's bill of $22.25, M. Costello's bill of $8, and the Press bill of $1.50—warrants were ordered drawn for the same. Hopkins & Co's bill for bridge lumber was taken up, and, on motion, ordered to be sent back to the claimants.

The Town Treasurer made his quarterly report, showing cash receipts of $351.65, currency, and $49.00; expenditures, $21.54, currency, and $47.50; balance on hand, July 15th, $327.18, currency, and $1.50 coin. The report was ordered filed.

R. S. Dunlap, Sexton, made a full report on Cemetery matters, showing cash on hand from sales of lots to be $52, and $77 still due, a large part of which cannot be collected, and making many important suggestions. The report was accepted, but no further action taken.

The Town Attorney reported an ordinance, making it penal to remove any of the fire apparatus from the Truck House, etc., which was adopted. He also submitted an ordinance containing regulations with regard to side-walks, which was adopted.

INDIANS IN JOSEPHINE.—Our item last week, with regard to this matter, was substantially correct, except that the number of good Indians made has been reduced to one. Mr. Colwell (mail contractor to Waldo) reports having seen several bands of strange Indians on various portions of his route.

General Thomas Meagher, Acting Governor of Montana Territory, accidentally fell from the deck of the Steamer Thompson, at Fort Benton, on the evening of the 1st, and was drowned. At last accounts his body had not been found.

If you fail to read the ordinance regarding side-walks you will be loser.
