OREGON SENTINEL. SATURDAY MORNING, JULY 20, 1867.

SCHOOL AT LAST.-After many months of annoying and unavoidable delay, the Directors of this district have at last succeeded, with the assistance of a generous public, in getting under way such a district school as we believe no other portion of the State can boast. On Thursday last they made a contract with Prof. Dewitt, to whom is given the entire control of the school for a term of six months-dating from the 22d inst. They also wisely incorporated a provision in the contract, that the teacher should have, and should exercise, control over the scholars from the moment they left their homes un-til the moment they returned to them. We hope this wholesome regulation will be heartily sustained by the pa-rents, and that they will give their full and earnest co-operation in preventing turbulent, quarrelsome and disgracetul behavior, so commonly occurring among scholars when released of the restraint of the school room. The Directors, with the approbation of Prof. Dewitt, have selected the follow-ing text-books, which are cheap and accessible to all: Wilson's Readers; Quackenboss' Grammer ; Davie's Common, Mental and Intellectual Arithme-tics; Cornell's Geographies; Wilson's Speller; Lossing's History, and Davie's Algebra. The price of tuition has been reduced to five dollars per quarter, being two dollars less than last vear.

RoseBURG OREGON, JULY 15th, 1867. -Although our town is somewhat dilapidated, and apparently in the decline, yet the Methodist and Southern Methodist are building churches, each of which will be completed this summer, and it is generally believed that no place in Oregon is as much in need of genial church influence as Roseburg.

Judge Williams appeared in town on to pay that debt. the 10th inst, creating quite a sensation among the chronic, old-line rebels. He left in the evening for Jacksonville, to return and speak at this place on the 20th.

John Fitzhugh, one of the convicted Ball-room murderers, instead of a telon's cell, is now occupying a promi-nent place in the Roseburg Ensign Office

According to the County Clerks exhibit, the total liabilities of the county for the year ending June 30th, 1867, including former debt ing created in the abortive attempt to punish crime, and to secure the community against rioters and murderers.

Circuit Court is in session to-day. Seven causes are on the docket. The business will probably be disposed of in three or four days. -__š

THE END .- Last week we published an account of the discovery of the pu-

FARMHOUSE BURNED .- The dwelling house of Mr. John Nichols, on Butte Creek, was burned on the 12th inst. The fire caught in the roof of the house, from the stovepipe, as is supposed. Mrs. Nichols was not well, and the men folks came from work about noon of Chinese mining license, 60 pr. cent. on that day, and started a fire in the stove with dry chips, among which was quite an amount of pitch wood. The fire burn-ed very rapidly, and is supposed that blaze and sparks flew out at the the top of the stovepipe, and a brisk breeze blowing at the time, soon enveloped the whole housetop in a mass of flames. property was saved from the sec-No story, and but two beds and a ond small amount of wearing apparrel from the ground floor. The whole loss is estimated at twenty-five hundred dollars.

SUPERLATIVE MEANNESS.-On Monday morning last, some scoundrel entered the premises of Mr. Walker, near Ashland, and stole a saddle belonging to that gentleman, and a valuable mare belonging to the Rev. Mr. Hanna, with which he made good his escape. When it becomes necessary for thieves to appropriate the property others, they should discriminate in favor of poor should discriminate in favor of poor people; and the wretch who is mean enough to set a poor minister of the Gospel a foot, is mean enough to steal Gospel a foot, is mean enough to steal the diaper from a blind baby. It is not within the province of the victim in this case to "cuss" people-that is sup-posed to be the duty of Editors, and our severest wish is, that the skunk that stole that mare may be caught and tried by a Jackson County Jury.

CANYONVILE, JULY 13th 1867 .- Editor Sentinel :- In your last issue, July 6th I noticed in your Roseburg Correspondence, that T. H. Farrell, of Canvonville, Oregon, has sued Sol. I should like to have that correspond- Balance in Treasury..... fixing the damages at $60,000. ent's name, and likewise know where we are sued. If sued in Germany, "Sour Krout" would be a Legal Ten-SOL ABRAHAM.

THE LONGEST POLE .- The Yreka Journal says that the Union men of that place will raise a liberty pole 150 feet in highth, on the 1st of August, which will be 40 feet higher than the Copperhead pole in Yreka. As "the longest pole knocks the persimmons," it is fair to presume that the Unionists will get the fruit.

NEW WEEKLY .- A new weekly is to be issued by the proprietor of the Daily Record, about the middle of next month.

Payment will be made on completion of the contract, or as soon after as funds may be re-ceived or that purpose, in cola or its equiva-ient in U. S. currency at time of payment. Proposals to furnish fractional parts, not less than one hundred thousand pounds, of the above amount, will be considered. Bidders are invited to be present at the open-ing of the bids.

Persons of sedentary habits, troubled with weakness, lassitude, paipitation of the heart, lack of appetite, distress after eating, torpid liver, constipation, etc., deserve to suffer if they will not try the celebrated PLANTATION BIT-TERS, which are now recommended by the high-cat medical anthorites, and warranted to produce an immediate beneficial effect. They are exceedingly agreeable, perfectly pure, and must supersede all other tonics where a healthy, gen-tle stimulant is required.

LYON'S KATHAIRON.

It is a most delightful hair dressing. It eradicates scurf and dandruff. It keeps the head cool and clean. It makes the hair rich, soft and glossy. It prevents hair turning gray and failing

It restores hair on prematurely hald heads. It restores hair on prematurely baid heads. This is just what Lyon's Kathairon will do. It is pretty—it is cheap—durable. It is liter-ally sold by the car-load, and yet its almost in-credible demand is daily increasing, until there is hardly a country store that does not keep it, or a family that does not use it.

E. Thomas Lyon, Chemist, N. Y

We since learn that the name of the deceased was Mullen, that she was a person of more than ordinary education; was formerly a teacher at the Overbeck Grove, in this county; but for several years past was completely under the control of opium and intoxicating drinks. Mulford who was brought into town on Friday last, greatly emaciated and partially deranged from an habitual use of the same stimulants, died on Sunday evening, the shattered wreck of what once was a refined and educated gentleman.
