

FOR THE PRESIDENCY IN 1868, ULYSSES S. GRANT, BY THE UNITED STATES. "Well done, thou good and faithful servant..."

D. M. C. GAULT, EDITOR.

SATURDAY MORNING, AUGUST 31, 1867.

Oregon Sentinel.

VOL. XII.

JACKSONVILLE, SATURDAY, AUGUST 31, 1867.

NO. 32

HALF SHEET.—We are unable to give our readers but a half sheet this week, owing to delay in receiving our paper from Crescent City.

The following blood and thunder extract is from the Southern Oregon Press:

Whenever the party in power exceeds its constitutional authority, the occasion demands an appeal to force. We dislike as much as anybody the idea of another civil war...

Concerning the above, the Dramatic Chronicle suggestively remarks, "give the fellow a dose of castor oil." On the contrary, we recommend a mild anti-cathartic.

Governor Woods.—The Union press of California is teeming with well deserved eulogiums of our Governor. He addressed a large Union meeting at Grass Valley, on the 16th ult., and the Nevada Transcript remarks of him:

Governor Woods, of Oregon, then followed in one of the strongest and most eloquent speeches that has been delivered in the county during the campaign.

THREATS AGAINST LIFE.—On Saturday last, J. H. Howard was arrested on complaint of Wm. Justice, who charged said Howard with hostile intentions towards him.

SCHOOL BOOKS.—We notice in Beckman's Express Office a fine stock of school books, just received by Mr. Hoffman.

ASSAULT.—On Tuesday, Wm. Edgings was bound over in the sum of three hundred dollars, by Justice Hayden, to answer the complaint of W. H. Myers, who charges him with assault with a deadly weapon.

EDITORIAL CHANGE.—W. W. Fiddler has dissolved his editorial connection with the Press. It is a fair "stand off" neither the Press nor the retiring editor losing anything by the change.

GOOD SALE.—This week the Tucker farm, lying on the stage road, about four miles south of Jacksonville, was sold for five thousand two hundred dollars.

HAY CONTRACT.—We learn that the contract to furnish Ft. Klamath with hay has been awarded to Nourse and Sprague, at reasonable figures, they being the lowest bidders.

Too Much Democracy.—Whisky is one of the great levers of Democracy—the lever hit the Southern Oregon Press in the eye this week, and put its light out.

ADMINISTRATOR.—Mr. B. F. Myer has been appointed administrator of the estate of Ezra B. Rhinehart, who was lately killed at Ashland.

New Goods.—Messrs. Muller & Brentano will open a stock of new and fashionable goods on Monday next, and the ladies are invited to call and inspect them.

SEVERE OPERATION.—Quite an interesting surgical operation was performed on Monday, by Dr. Cabiness, assisted by Drs. Robinson and Davis. The patient was Mrs. Butler who was so dreadfully burned about the neck and face, on Antelope Creek, last March.

ASSAULT ON AN OFFICER.—On Saturday afternoon last, one Archie Chrisman, and some other parties, had made a race, to be run over the Bybee track, when their sport was interrupted by the appearance of Deputy Sheriff Reames, with an attachment for the horse Chrisman was backing.

BOOK KEEPING.—A rare chance is offered the young men of Jacksonville, by James R. Wade, to acquire a thorough and practical knowledge of book keeping.

LIVELY TIMES.—Our town has been unusually vivacious the past week. One arrest for threatening to kill an officer. Another for playfully chasing a fellow down California street with a big knife.

BACKED OUT.—We understand that Mr. Wortley, of Oregon City, who was to have purchased the machinery for the Ashland Woolen Mill, has concluded not to go East.

HOME INDUSTRY.—Mr. A. Prater, of Applegate, presented this office with a specimen of his skill in the broom manufacture, a few days since.

LEG BROKEN.—On Monday last a little son of James Barnett, living on Ward's Creek, had his thigh broken. The little fellow was playing in the bed of the creek, and falling among some loose rocks received the injury.

NAUGHTY ADAM!—The Adam family ought to be ashamed of itself. It seems bound to give the world a heap of trouble. The first of the family was turned out of doors for misbehavior; and now, several thousand years afterwards, comes a descendant of the first family of Eden, named Adam, also, and with a few sturdy blows literally "busts" out our warlike cotemporary.

MOUNT HOOD.—Our northern cotemporaries seem to be wonderfully exercised just now about the height of Mount Hood. A common city surveyor has had the impudence to kick several thousand feet off of the top of the giant of the Cascades.

AN INTERESTING FACT about this road is that it is to climb from the sea level to an elevation of 8,400 feet within a distance of 125 miles—Vera Cruz is 182 miles from Mexico.

ANNEXATION IN A NEW SHAPE.—The last number of the Vancouver Register has an article urging the addition of Northern Idaho to Washington Territory copying into its columns some editorial remarks of a similar purport, from the Lewiston Journal.

CHINESE FIGHT.—Some belligerent Chinamen were engaged in a regular knock-down fight, in one of their houses in town, yesterday morning.

THANK YOU.—This week our friend R. S. Dunlap pushed into the office and made a violent assault on us with a pail of peaches.

SLIPPERY HORTON.—Yesterday morning Deputy Sheriff Reames discovered that his boarder had secreted some shackle keys, a knife, and the identical piece of iron he used to make his escape before, inside of his cell, and was apparently making preparations for another "break."

CURIOUS STORY.—The Bank of Idaho possesses some singular traditions and experiences. We heard the other day an anecdote from an authentic source, although it related to something that happened many years ago, here the lifetime of the present generation.

A MEXICAN RAILROAD.—The Journal of Mexico gives the following brief account of the Mexico and Vera Cruz Railroad: An interesting fact about this road is that it is to climb from the sea level to an elevation of 8,400 feet within a distance of 125 miles.
