

Our Darling.
Another weary pilgrimage,
Only just begun,
Another battle to be fought,
Another race to run.

The way is rough and thorny
For the little dimpled feet;
Often the winds will gather,
Or will the tempest beat.

Who knows what bitter trials
Will lie along her way,
What night of thickest darkness
Will usher in her day?

The cross is not yet lifted
That will prove so hard to bear;
The pure child here is throbbing
Unchecked, unchilled by care.

This is a world of changes,
Of mingled joy and tears,
Where the light and shadow blending,
Form the warp and woof of years.

But still we bid the welcome;
Whate'er thy lot may be,
Where'er thy path may lead thee,
We can but welcome thee.

God bless our little darling,
And keep her for his own,
Until she join his children
Around the great white Throne.

Curious.
By the lake where drooped the willow,
Row, vassal, row!
I want to be an angel
And jump Jim Crow.

An old crow sat on a hickory limb,
None named him but to praise;
Let me kiss him for his mother,
For he smells of Schweitzer kase.

The minstrel to the war has gone,
With the banjo on his knee;
He woke to hear the sentries shriek
There's a light in the window for thee.

A frog he would a wooing go,
His hair was curled to kill;
He used to wear an old gray coat,
And the sword of Bunker Hill.

Ott in the stilly night,
Make way for Liberty he cried,
I won't go home till morning,
With Peggy by my side.

I am dying, Egypt, dying,
Susanah don't you cry;
Know how sublime a thing it is
To brush away the blue-tailed fly.

The boy stood on the burning deck,
With his baggage checked to Troy,
One of the few immortal names,
His name was Pat Molloy.

Mary had a little lamb,
He could a tale unfold,
He had no teeth to eat a corn cake,
And his spectacles were gold.

Lay on, lay on, Macduff,
Man wants but little here below,
And I'm to be queen of May,
So kiss me quick and go!

WHEN Jenner discovered cow-pox in England, the world of science hurled an avalanche of fame upon his head; but when the most scientific school of medicine in the world—that of Paris—published this recipe as a panacea for small-pox, it passed unheeded. It is as unfailing as fate, and conquers in every instance. It is harmless when taken by a well person. It will also cure scarlet fever. Here is the recipe, and I have cured the small-pox with it when learned physicians said the patient must die: Sulphate of zinc, one grain; fox-glove, (digitalis purpurea), one grain; half a teaspoonful of water. When thoroughly mixed, add four ounces of water. Take a spoonful every hour. For a child, smaller doses according to age. If counties would compel their physicians to use this, there would be no need of pest-houses. If you value advice and experience, use this for that terrible disease.

What is the use of talking about the decrease of the colored population in the South, in the face of the following fact, vouched for by the Jasper (Texas) News Boy: "The wife of our worthy colored fellow-citizen, Bill Hadnot, presented him with four children the other day, one eight pounds, one twelve, one thirteen, one fifteen—forty-eight pounds of baby at one birth. In the language of Bill, we say: 'Beat dat, white man! If you can't, say no more about negro inferiority.'"

A little boy had a wooden horse, and in course of time his tail, ears and legs got knocked off, and the toy presented rather a ragged appearance. One day says he: "God sees everything, don't He, mother?" "Yes, my child." "Well, I guess He'll laugh when He sees this horse."

The Lancet Literary Gazette is edited by a lady of a bewitching turn who says "She would as soon needle her nose in a rat's nest of swingleto as allow a man with whiskers to kiss her." We admire her taste.

WOMAN'S WORK
In the Civil War.

A Record of Heroism, Patriotism and Patience, prepared under the sanction and approval of the United States Sanitary and Christian Commissions, by L. P. Brocketh, M. D., author of "Palms and Olive Branches of the War," "Our Great Captains," "The Camp, the Battlefield and the Hospital," etc., etc., and Mrs. Mary C. Vaughan, with an Introduction by Henry W. Bellows, D. D., President U. S. Sanitary Commission.
This interesting work will contain sketches of nearly TWO HUNDRED LADIES, distinguished for their labors in behalf of the Soldiers, Refugees and Freedmen, with incidents of their lives, and lists of notices of about four hundred others; while a brief tribute will be paid to the thousands of nameless Heroines who braved every danger and privation, or quietly toiled and sacrificed time, health, and many of their life, to give aid to our suffering soldiers. In all ages and countries, it is true woman has been patriotic. The Spartan mother could say to her son, "Come back with thy shield, or on it." Carthaginian women could sacrifice themselves in the name of their ruined city; but history has no precedent to the work of woman in our late terrible civil war—such calm, deep, enlightened, wide-spread patriotism, such cheering sympathy and sacred trust; such a force of personal activity at home and in the camp. The preparation of the work was commenced more than three years ago. Some of the ablest pens in the nation were employed to write the sketches, the material being furnished by the friends and families of the subjects. All the benevolent people of the country, who contributed so liberally of their means, to enable these noble women to carry on their labor of love, will gladly embrace the first opportunity to peruse this record of the great work they accomplished. Every true American patriot will find here how exalted has been the patriotism of AMERICAN WOMEN.
An eminent divine says: "Such a work is called for by patriotic and grateful people. It is an honor to our country, will become a household treasure and a joy and blessing to future times." The work contains about 200 pages, beautifully illustrated with numerous Fine Steel Engravings, executed in the highest style of the art, and will be furnished to subscribers in neat and substantial binding. Energetic Co-operators (male or female) wanted immediately for Southern Oregon.

REDINGTON & CO'S
ESSENCE OF JAMAICA GINGER.

This valuable preparation, containing in a highly concentrated form all the properties of Jamaica Ginger, has become one of the most popular domestic remedies for all diseases of the stomach and digestive organs.
As a tonic, it will be found invaluable to all persons recovering from debility, whether produced by fever or otherwise, for whilst it imparts to the system all the glow and vigor that can be produced by brandy, it is entirely free from the re-actionary effects of spirits of any kind.
It is also an excellent remedy for females who suffer from difficult menstruation, giving a most immediate relief to the spasms that so frequently accompany that period. It gives immediate relief to Nausea, caused by riding in a railroad car, or by sea-sickness, or other causes.
It is also valuable as an external application for gout, rheumatism, neuralgia, etc.

Stop that Coughing!
Some you can't; we pity you. You have tried every remedy but the one destined by its intrinsic merit to supersede all similar preparations. It is not surprising you should be reluctant to try something else, after the many experiments you have made of trashy compounds touted on the public as a certain cure; but
Newell's
PULMONARY SYRUP
Is really the VERY BEST remedy ever compounded for the cure of coughs, colds, sore throat, asthma, whooping cough, bronchitis and consumption. Thousands of people in California and Oregon have been already benefited by the surprising curative powers of

Newell's

and with one accord give it their unqualified approbation. We now address ourselves to all who are unacquainted with this, the greatest Panacea of the age, for the healing of all diseases of the Throat and Lungs, assuring you that Newell's
PULMONARY SYRUP
has cured thousands, and it WILL CURE YOU if you try it.

This invaluable medicine is pleasant to the taste; soothing, healing and strengthening in its effects; entirely free from all poisonous or deleterious drugs, and perfectly harmless under all circumstances.
