

THOSE CIGARS.—Isidor Caro, the prince of toy men, gladdened the printers of this week by the presentation of a box of his finest cigars. They are nice and no mistake. If there is anything that will touch the sympathies of the amateur smoker, it is the burning of such smokers as Caro's. By the way, not speaking of cigars brings to mind the fact that Mr. C. has not only a large amount of the best cigars of every brand for sale, but also a thousand other articles, to numerous to specify, but which are useful, or beautiful and ornamental. Liberal men are almost without exception liberal dealers. He issues an "Annual Proclamation" this week, more important to the people of Jackson county than A. J.'s.

AMERICAN EXCHANGE.—We to-day advertise this splendid house. It is located on Front Street, Portland, and we know from personal experience that the traveler cannot find better accommodations, or more pleasant and attentive people, than are found at the American Exchange Hotel. Quimby, the proprietor, has made hotel keeping his speciality, and he understands the business well. Guests and their baggage are drawn to and from the steamer landings in a new and splendid hotel coach, and are spared the vexations incident to public conveyances.

ON THE MOVE.—Mr. T. G. Devens informs us that everybody out on Butte Creek is getting into a fever to move out into the Klamath Lake country. Mr. D. has just returned from there, and says claims are being staked off every day.

A GOOD TIME COMING, BOYS.—In to-day's paper will be found an advertisement of a ball, to be given by Louis Herling, on the 14th inst., and everybody knows that he never does things by halves. Come, boys, "grease your shirt bosom, starch your hair" and go, and our word for it, you will be as happy and light hearted as a flea on a dog's ear.

TO THE PUBLIC.—By request, the subscriber will give two discourses at the Court House, Jacksonville, on Sunday, October 6th, 1867. One at 10 o'clock A. M. and the other at 7 o'clock P. M. Subject of the first—"The Gospel of Health;" text, Luke, 9th chapter and 2d verse. Subject in the evening—"Nature's Plan in Accidents and Emergencies." All persons are cordially invited to attend.

WE owe the utilitarian poet of the City Drug Store an apology for not noticing his sparkling production last week. We will endeavor to make amends, however, by saying that it is still to be found in our advertising columns. They can sell goods as well as write poetry. It's your treat, Jaems.

LARGE STOCK.—Mr. John McLaughlin has just returned from San Francisco, whither he has been to purchase a winter's stock of liquors and cigars. His old customers are assured that his bar will now be furnished with the best in the market.

G. T. C. D. S.—We have received a line from the individual who gave us the above mysterious letters for insertion. He informs us that he will be in town next Saturday, from eight o'clock A. M. to eight P. M., to make explanation.

CHALK.—Mr. Devens informs us that on Lost River, about one hundred miles from here, he saw a large bed of superior white chalk.

ROSEBURG OCTOBER 3d, 1867.—On the evening of September 27th, this valley was visited by a severe hail storm, accompanied by a vast amount of thunder and lightning.

Solomon D. Williamson, one of our best citizens, and an old pioneer of the Umpqua valley, died at Oakland on the 29th ult.

S. F. Chadwick, has just returned from the "Bohemian" mining district, more firmly impressed than ever in the belief that those mines are the richest in gold and silver, of any yet discovered on this coast.

Among the scores of matrimonial experiments in this valley, of late, is that of our venerable City Father, Aaron Rose, of Roseburg, to the young Miss Frances E. Carrington, of Looking Glass, which marriage is said to have taken place about the middle of September.

ROSEBURG SEPT. 26th, 1867. Capt. R. A. Cowles died last night at Salem, where he had removed some time since, in hopes to recruit his feeble and fast declining health. Capt. Cowles was one of the old "Pioneers" of Oregon—came across the plains in the "Rifle Regiment," in 1847, settled in the Umpqua Valley in 1850, had an extensive acquaintance upon this coast, and was universally popular with all who knew him. He has filled several prominent and responsible offices. Was a captain in the "Oregon Cavalry" and at the time of his death was Clerk of Douglas county. His death is deeply felt by all who knew him. He died from an affliction in the hip, supposed to have been caused by a gun shot wound, received while in the Mexican war. He has been nearly helpless for three years.

Dr. Shrewsbury Again—Dr. Shrewsbury is in town, and has opened his office at Squire Hoffman's office, and will operate in his line for a few days only. Those desiring dental operations, in any of its various branches, will please not delay, but call, early as the Doctor will remain but a few days.

MARRIED. KAHLER—OGLESBY.—At the residence of Wm. Robinson, on Applegate, Oct. 24, 1867, by Rev. G. W. Rook, Mr. George Kahler and Miss Sylvia Oglesby.

DIED. MCKINICK—In Jacksonville, September 26th, Martha Ann, consort of W. R. McKinick, aged 28 years, 6 months and 27 days.

AN ORIGINAL POEM.

BY THE MAN WHO WROTE IT. Some write for fun, and some for fame, And some to make a splutter; But we, like all true poets, claim To write for bread and butter. Thus you see our very laudable object of doing good to ourselves, if we cannot do good to anybody else.

We only wish to have it known, That all our goods must sell, And then the people all will come— You bet they will. Thus giving us a fine opportunity of making money.

We're fancy Soaps and good Colognes, And Hair Oils by the dozen— An endless lot of good Perfumes, Put up by old H. Bazin. Thus giving all the young folks an opportunity of becoming "sweet-scented."

We have Restorers for the Hair, Much better than your dye; We've preparations for the Ear, And lotions for the Eye. Thus giving old maids and crusty bachelors an opportunity of fixing up for the matrimonial market.

We're Drugs and Books; we're Oils and Paints, And trinkets of all kinds; We've Nostrums good for all complaints, And sell to suit the times. Thus giving old and young an opportunity for speculation.

Now, all who have the ready cash Can call around to-morrow, For they can find just what they want Much cheaper than to borrow. And will thus give the City Drug Store fellows a fine opportunity to display their extensive stock of NEW GOODS to much better advantage than they could possibly do on paper. They will say, however, that they have a fine assortment of PHOTOGRAM ALBUMS, from $2 25 to $4 50—for 50 pictures, Gold pens, Ink Stands, Rules, Fancy Pen holders, Paper weights, Letter Clips, Bored Clips, Ink Erasers, Paper Splitters, Sealing Wax, Portfolios, Portmonies, Wallets, Purses, Pocket Books, Crayons, Pencils of every description, Red, Blue, Black and Copying Inks, Chalk Lines, Fishing Tackle, Violin Strings, Tail boards and Raws, School Books of every variety at reduced prices, Copy Books in variety, Slate, Parlor Games, and a thousand other things in this line, that can be seen by calling at the City Drug Store.
