

FOR THE PRESIDENCY IN 1868, CLAYTON S. GRANT. "We'll do it, then good and faithful servants." The people have rewards for patriots—punishment for traitors.

D. M. C. GAULT, EDITOR.

SATURDAY MORNING, OCT. 19, 1867.

Unequal Taxation. There is still another phase of the taxation question, no less important to the present generation than those discussed in previous articles. We have shown that a war burden in time of peace is unnecessary. We have denied that any principles of enlightened justice approve or demand the liquidation of the national debt during the present generation.

The Noble Party. A call for a mass meeting, published in a Democratic paper at Portland, says: "Our noble party has beaten the enemy in three more States." Long ago, childhood delighted to contemplate the charming fables about the noble and generous instincts of the "king of beasts," but naturalists have dissipated the charm, and proved him not only mean, cowardly and treacherous, but willing to share the carrion left by more ignoble plunderers.

ILLEGAL ARREST.—Last week Lieut. Henderson, of Fort Klamath, arrested H. Casey, a citizen of this county, and took him to the Fort, upon the charge of having aided a deserter to escape. It appears that the deserter had traded his horse, arms and clothing to Casey, and that the property was found in his possession—some of the clothing being on his person.

ROSEBURG, OCT. 10, 1867.—Solomon Abraham's dwelling house, in Canyonville, was destroyed by fire, on the night of the 8th. It is supposed to have been the work of an incendiary, as there had been no fire in it for ten days—household goods and furniture mostly saved.

Oh!—The Herald complains that justice, a Democratic practice, has become "Radical policy." The fellow doesn't like the idea of being fought with his own weapons.

"If They Dare." "Let the Radicals try the impeachment game if they dare," says the Oregon Herald. The Herald is getting saucy, and forgets how much the Radicals have dared and done against other foes than the empty braggarts of the Democratic press. The Radicals dare do anything, knowing it to be right. They dared to fight the battles of their country, and save the heritage of freedom and unity, that Democracy would have bartered for a longer lease of power.

THE RECENT ELECTIONS. While the news from the East is yet doubtful as to the positive result of the late elections, enough is known to show that the Democrats have made very large gains. There is no cause for despair among Union men. The defeats of the war, disastrous and disheartening as they seemed at the moment, had their salutary effects, and, ultimately, led to victory. Blundering commanders were displaced, the material of our armies was reorganized, errors once committed were avoided, weak points strengthened, and our men went into battle with stronger faith in the cause for which they were fighting.

DISTRICT SCHOOL.—The second term of the District School will commence a week from next Monday, and it is the desire of the teachers that parents will send their children on the first day of the term. The rate bills for the last term have been made out, and will be presented by the District clerk (Mr. Day) during the coming week. It is to be hoped that parents will be prepared to make prompt payment, in order to insure the successful continuance of an institution of which this town may justly be proud.

KEEP IN THE FASHION.—"Out of the fashion, out of the world," is a proverb; and our friend Mr. Pfeiffer is determined to keep everybody in the fashion that wants to stay. If Mr. F. makes garments as well as he does rhyme, (and we know he does) every one is assured of a good fit. Read his announcement and try him.

REWARD OF MERIT.—Vallandigham's claims to a seat in the U. S. Senate, are being pressed by his friends, in consideration of his valuable services to the Democracy in the camps of the Ohio volunteers. Democrats insist that J. Wilkes Booth is alive, and we expect to hear of his hat being "chalked" for the Senate by some admiring Democratic Legislature.

Idaho News. The following news was published in the Owyhee Avalanche, of Oct. 5th: INDIAN MASSACRE IN FLINT.—One more good man has been murdered, scalped and burned in our midst, and the savage perpetrators escaped unpunished with some booty, such as pistol, blankets, etc. This fresh atrocity was committed during last Tuesday night, within half a mile of Oro and Owyhee cities, near the road leading between there and here. The unfortunate victim's name is Joseph F. Colwell. He came to this Territory with Messrs. Bloom & Herd in 1865, from Jacksonville, Oregon. He was formerly from Missouri. The late hour yesterday at which we received this unwelcome item, prevented our obtaining information of the deceased. It may be well enough to state here for the Indian friends elsewhere—that they justly have none here—these red devils perpetrated the deed in their usual Christian(?) style, with unimportant variations, by shooting, scalping, and then throwing the body on a fire and partly consuming the breast and bowels. We may soon expect to hear of the Throne of Grace being besieged with orisons and supplications for "Lo! the poor Indian," by our Eastern countrymen, who are totally ignorant of his fiendish character.

DISCOVERY OF GOLD IN THE CASCADES.—The Vancouver Register says: It is reported that rich diggings have been struck in the Yakama country, about 60 miles from this place. A gulch has been discovered, about seven miles long, which yields from five to twenty cents to the pan. Some forty men are now at work. A number of our citizens started yesterday for that region. We hope to hear further particulars soon. Later.—In addition to the above we learn from Mr. Taylor, Representative from Clatsop county, that the mines so far as discovered are located very near the summit of the Cascade, so high up that even now there is snow in abundance. He advises everybody to wait until spring, as men ever have gone in already to prospect the country so far as it can be done before winter sets in. Mr Taylor had some of the gold with him. It is of a coarse nature.

OFFICERS.—The following are a list of the officers of the State Agricultural Society, elected at the State Fair, held last week, at the Fair Ground, at Salem: President—A. J. Dufur, of Multnomah county. Vice-Presidents—J. G. Basket, of Polk; W. J. Horton, of Marion. Corresponding Secretary—E. M. Waite, of Marion. Treasurer—John H. Moores, of Marion.

CALIFORNIA ELECTION.—The judicial election, held in California on Wednesday last, passed off quietly. Certain damaging charges made by Father Cotter against McKinstry, in San Francisco, created considerable excitement among the Irish-Catholics, but no serious disturbance occurred. Sprague, Democratic candidate for Supreme Judge, and Swett, Republican candidate for Superintendent of Public Instruction, are elected. There was a great amount of scratching in San Francisco in favor of Curry and Swett, the Democratic majority of over 4,000 in September being reduced to about 1500.

CONTRIVERSY.—The Autocrat of the Breakfast Table shrewdly says: "Contriversy equalizes fools and the wise—and the fools know it." That's the reason why the table-tippers are so anxious to "discuss" with the Christian clergy. It also accounts for the itching for controversy manifested by insignificant persons generally.—Dramatic Chronicle.

PONDEROUS MACHINERY.—Upon the wharf yesterday we noticed a large lot of ponderous machinery consigned to the Pacific Oil Company, Salem. It consisted of boiler, apparatus for grinding, and other necessary articles for an oil mill.—Oregon Herald.

CATARH.—The origin of Catarrh is in most cases a neglected Cold, which can be relieved by the use of "Brown's Bronchial Troches," by soothing the irritated and inflamed membrane extending from the nose to the throat. For Coughs and Throat Diseases, the Troches are of great service.

SEVERE INJURY.—A little child of Mr. Decker, living on Jackson creek, was badly kicked by a horse on Monday last. The scalp was torn from the child's forehead, and the skull raised up. It was attended by Dr. Greenman, and is in a fair way for recovery.

HEAVY FROSTS.—For several nights during the week, this valley was visited with heavy frosts. This morning, ice was formed about as thick as a window glass.

DIED. SMALL—In the Walls, Oregon, July 13th, Sarah A. daughter of Rev. T. H. and Elizabeth Small. She leaves a father, mother, brothers and sisters to mourn her loss, but they are consoled by the thought that their loss is her eternal gain. She was in her 25th year. Weep no more, father and mother. For her soul on earth has ceased, And beyond the land of danger, She is now with God in peace.
