

RICH IN SPITE OF HIMSELF.—A Scotch tradesman, who had amassed, as he believed, 4,000l., was surprised by his old clerk with a balance-sheet showing his fortune to be 6,000l. "It canna be," said the principal; "count agen." The clerk did count again, and again declared the balance to be 6,000l. The master counted himself; and he also brought out a surplus of 6,000l. Time after time he cast up the columns; it was still a 6, and not a 4, that rewarded his labors. So the old merchant, on the strength of his fortune, modernized his house, and "put money in the purse" of the carpenter, the painter, and the upholsterer. Still, however, he had a lurking doubt of the existence of the extra two thousand pounds; so, one winter night, he sat down to give the columns "one count more." At the close of his task, he jumped up as though he had been galvanized, and rushed through the streets in a shower of rain to the house of his clerk. The clerk's head, capped and drowsy, emerged from an attic window, at the sound of the knocker, to inquire the errand of his midnight visitor. "Who's there?" he mumbled, "and what d'ye want?" "It's me, ye scoundrel!" exclaimed his employer; "ye've added up the year of our Lord among the pounds!"

TIMBER ON HOMESTEAD LOCATIONS CANNOT BE SOLD.—In answer to calls for information as to the rights of persons to use timber on Homestead entries, the Commissioner of the General Land Office has replied as follows: "A homestead settler has the privilege of using the timber upon the land settled on by him for the improvement of the premises, but not for sale or speculation. There is an erroneous impression that the Homestead law regulates the matter. The general law for the protection of public timber and punishment of trespassers thereon, as interpreted by the Supreme Court and department regulations thereunder, control in the premises until the homestead claimant shall have resided upon the land claimed for five years, and made final proof according to law, and obtained his patent, the fee simple title to the land is in the United States, and the timber growing thereon must be protected the same as other timber, subject only to the privilege of the actual settler, to use the same to the extent already stated, but no further."

ANOTHER NATIONAL DEMOCRATIC CONVENTION.—The New York World having suggested that a convention be held of those Democrats who suffered from arbitrary arrests during the "Lincoln reign," the Tribune says such a body could only be lodged and fed in New York City, and it would tax their resources to the utmost. It estimates that there were arrested during the war, without warrant or civil authority, not less than 450,000 Democrats. But if it is intended to exclude all who fought in rebel uniforms and admit only the St. Albans raiders, the burners of the New York Asylum, the agents employed by Blackburn to introduce yellow fever into New York, the conspirators to assassinate President Lincoln and his cabinet, the Tribune thinks the meeting had better be deferred until they all reach their final destination, so that it can be presided over by J. Wilkes Booth as Chairman, and where they would save a heavy expense in lights and fuel.

MARRIAGE IN HIGH LIFE.—The Los Angeles News says: "Just before the departure of the stages connecting with the steamer for San Francisco, Libado Gonzales, sentenced to fifteen years' imprisonment in the State Prison for murder in the second degree, was married at the County Jail, by Justice Wm. G. Still, to Mrs. Elizabeth Mendoza. The bridegroom was a native of Sonora, and the bride a native of England. The usual custom of wearing jewelry was reversed in this case—the groom dispensing with his jewelry (a heavy iron chain worn upon the leg) until after the ceremony, when it was resumed. After the ceremony, and congratulations of friends, the happy couple started upon their wedding tour—the bride to San Gabriel, and the groom upon a more extensive trip to San Quentin, from whence he expects to return to the loving embrace of his bride in fifteen years."

IMPROVED INSULATOR.—A new insulator for telegraphic purposes has been brought out in Philadelphia, which consists in giving the ordinary sulphur and glass insulator a coating of paraffine; this being a thorough repellent of water, is found to make the insulator more perfect in wet weather.

AN ORIGINAL POEM.
BY THE MAN WHO WROTE IT.
Some write for fun, and some for fame,
And some to make a splutter;
But we, like all true poets, claim
To write for bread and butter.
Thus you see our very laudable object of doing good to ourselves, if we cannot do good to anybody else.

We only wish to have it known,
That all our goods must sell,
And then the people all will come—
You bet they will.
Thus giving us a fine opportunity of making money.

We've fancy Soaps and good Colognes,
And Hair Oils by the dozen—
An endless lot of good Perfumes,
Put up by old H. Bazin.
Thus giving all the young folks an opportunity of becoming "sweet-scented."

We have Restorers for the Hair,
Much better than your dye;
We've preparations for the Ear,
And lotions for the Eye.
Thus giving old maids and crusty bachelors an opportunity of fixing up for the matrimonial market.

We've Drugs and Books; we've Oils and Paints,
And trinkets of all kinds;
We've Nostrums good for all complaints,
And sell to suit the times.
Thus giving old and young an opportunity for speculation.

Now, all who have the ready cash
Can call around to-morrow,
For they can find just what they want
Much cheaper than to borrow.

And will thus give the City Drug Store fellows a fine opportunity to display their extensive stock of NEW GOODS to much better advantage than they could possibly do on paper. They will say, however, that they have a fine assortment of PHOTOGRAPH ALBUMS,
from $2 25 to $4 50—for 50 pictures,

SEWING MACHINES,
Are the best in Use,
FOR THE FOLLOWING REASONS

They are more simple and durable, easier kept in order, make a stronger and more elastic stitch, a firmer and more beautiful seam than any other. They sew all fabrics from two common spools, require no re-winding of thread, fasten both ends of the seam by their own operation, and though every fifth stitch is cut the seam will not rip.
