

DR. J. H. JOSSELYN
STILL CONTINUES TO TREAT the afflicted with his valuable and never failing remedies at the ELECTROPATHIC INSTITUTE, 645 WASHINGTON STREET.

It is seven years, up to February 12th, 1867, since the Institute was established. The Directors challenge the world to show a more successful medical triumph. There has been over TWENTY-FIVE THOUSAND CONSULTAtions and nearly TWENTY THOUSAND contracts made, with only eleven failures to cure; (in those cases the fee was returned.) A large number of cases prescribed for, which, from the nature of the disease, could only be temporarily relieved.

The Doctor makes it his study to help suffering humanity without regard to the amount of money the patient may be able to pay. His remedies are mild and gentle in their action.
They are entirely free from all mineral poisons, or any substance that can possibly injure the most delicate system. The Doctor's mode of practice is the REFORMED or ELECTRO-PATHIC system, by which one-half of the diseases in the catalogue can be cured without medicines.

As all cases he warrants a cure or asks no pay for his services. It has been too common with persons calling themselves Physicians to treat their poor victims until their funds were exhausted, and then turn them away, half cured, to die by the wayside or become a burden to the public while he lingers out a life of suffering and misery.

To those afflicted with unmentionable complications, the Doctor would say that he can cure the worst possible case in a very short time, without the persons afflicted being exposed to their most intimate friends.

To those whose constitutions have been injured by youthful excesses, the Doctor offers a positive and speedy return of health and manly vigor. To the Rheumatic, almost instan-taneous cure.

To Females,
Either sick or in trouble, the Doctor wishes to say that he is thoroughly conversant with their delicate and sympathetic systems, the disease and troubles incident thereto, and can assure them a perfect cure, or relief, as the case may require. His FEMALE MONTHLY medicines are unsurpassed by any other known. They are pleasant to the taste, and will be warranted safe and sure. [The utmost secrecy observed.]

All you that are afflicted, Male and Female, no matter what the case may be, I will give you relief or a cure, or ask nothing for my troubles.
Persons residing at a distance whose business or domestic affairs prevents their visiting the city, or those who feel a delicacy in personal consultation, can correspond with the Doctor, and have advice or remedies sent, which will be warranted to effect the result required, and the letters will be destroyed. In writing, care should be taken to describe symptoms correctly. State how long the disease or trouble has been running, together with sex and age.

Always address thus: J. H. JOSSELYN, M. D., San Francisco, Cal., Box 1945; or, if sent by Express, 645 Washington St., instead of the number of the box.

Advice by letter or otherwise gratis.

Office hours from 9 A. M. to 9 P. M.

Resident Physician Electro-Pathic Institute.

AN ORIGINAL POEM.
BY THE MAN WHO WROTE IT.
Some write for fun, and some for fame,
And some to make a splutter;
But we, like all true poets, claim To write for bread and butter.
Thus you see our very laudable object of doing good to ourselves, if we cannot do good to anybody else.

We only wish to have it known,
That all our goods must sell,
And then the people all will come—— You bet they will.
Thus giving us a fine opportunity of making money.

We've fancy Soaps and good Colognes, And Hair Oils by the dozen—An endless lot of good Perfumes, Put up by old H. Bazin.
Thus giving all the young folks an opportunity of becoming "sweet-scented."

We have Restorers for the Hair, Much better than your dye;
We've preparations for the Ear,
And lotions for the Eye.
Thus giving old maids and crusty bachelors an opportunity of fixing up for the matrimonial market.

We've Drugs and Books; we've Oils and Paints,
And trinkets of all kinds;
We've Nostrums good for all complaints,
And sell to suit the times.
Thus giving old and young an opportunity for speculation.

Now, all who have the ready cash
Can call around to-morrow, For they can find just what they want Much cheaper than to borrow.
And will thus give the City Drug Store fellows a fine opportunity to display their extensive stock of NEW GOODS, to much better advantage than they could possibly do on paper. They will say, however, that they have a fine assortment of
