Mr. B has been the agent in the Yr-ka office for several years, and seems to wear his new honors with becoming dignity.

THE COUT HE HAD HIM. - A friend of ours, a "dead" languages is rather imperfect, visited the Dring Store and sat gozing at the mystical labels on the bottles. At last he struck it; he saw an a large jar, the catalestic words. Radix Serpentia. He interpreted it Radical Serpent and rushed round to inform us that Democracy was goue in. for the druggist had the old original copperhead in a bottle. We smiled and re-marked that Mrs. Malaprop would have consid-ered his interpretation a "jew de bowsprit."

MAN Su T.—On Saturday hight last Wm. Burchdorff better known as "Drity Bill," shot James Spears at Logtown, in this county. The weapon used was a flenry rifle. The ball entered under the right shoulder blade and comout at the right side of his breast, breaking a rib and wounding his lungs. The w unded man is in a dangerous situation and not expected to live. The cause of the shooting is a mystery. Spears says he was on his horse leaving Bill's grocery, while Bill says he and another man was trying to break into his house. Bill's clothes are cut with a knife, but whether by himself or by other parties is hard to determine. Whiskey is probably the foundation of the difficulty. The accused is in jail awaiting the action of the Grand Jury, now in session.

Home Manufacture.—A good joke is to'd on an old genticinan of this county who a few weeks ago was coming to town with a load of apple brandy. Meeting an old friend a short distance from here he stopped his team and drawing his jug" he pressed him to sample it "It's the best you ever drauk" said the old gentleman; "smooth as oil, and got the 'chipper' of the old fashioned truck" "Bost of all" he added; "it's home manufacture, and I ma e it myself. His friend was athirst; his eyes brightened, and he prepared for a vigorous pull. Taking out the cork he braced himself, his head was thrown gracefully back, his eyes half closed; a slight gargle was heard, but the thirsty man' countenance changed and the jug was hartily withdrawn. Eyeing the old gentleman suspic ionsly he handed back the jug and quietly remarked; "your manufacture seems rather week; try it yourself." The old gentleman's eye-snapp of fice at the ungrateful remark but he choked us rising choler with the neck of the border was sending to a daughter in town The old fellow chucked the jug in a corner od at home was sending to a daughter in towns.

ROYAL BALSAM

FROM MR. THOMAS.—We have used Henley's Royal Balsam is my family this winter. There is no use in talking: it throws everything in the shape of Cough Medicine in the shade that I ever saw. My wife was troubled with asthma or smothering spells for years, and could get nothing to have any effect until I struck this "Royal Balsam." She is now about well. It cared me of the worst cold I ever had in my life in night. Whenever our children have anything like a cough, a few drops given on going to bed, that is the last of the cough. I never intend to be without it in the house.
