

ROAD TO GOOSE LAKE.—We again call the attention of our citizens to the importance of taking some steps to open a wagon road to Goose Lake and Surprise Valley. It is not to be done by the county why not organize a joint stock company and put it through? It will be a profitable investment to any one who has the energy to go ahead, and in the event of the contemplated railroad from Eugene City to Centerville, Nevada, will be a mine of wealth to its projectors. If the Central Oregon and California railroad is built, and there is no doubt but it will be, we want to bring the trade of Northern Idaho and the immense region lying east of us, to Yreka, as it will be the proper shipping point to San Francisco, via railroad or the projected road to Humboldt Bay. In the meantime, our neighbors of Jacksonville, Ogn., are wide awake on this subject, and have organized a company to build a road from that point to Goose Lake with the intent to divert the trade from us, and make Jacksonville the center of trade for Northern California and Southern Oregon. It remains to be seen whether we will allow them to build the road and reap the benefits while we take a Rip Van Winkle snooze, or whether we will by a little enterprise, secure what is properly our own. — Yreka Journal.

WHAT IT IS TO BE A DEMOCRAT.—To be a Democrat is to be a defender of the rights of the minority; a respecter of the rights of others, a warrior for the weak, and a defender of the defenceless. — Zuch Montgomery.

Son! a "defender of the defenceless" freedmen, for instance; and a "respecter of the rights" of those to whom you even deny the right of liberty, to say nothing of the right to the ballot. "A warrior for the weak!" Yes, when you hunted your fleeing slaves with bloodhounds, and through southern swamps; when you whipped women, whose faces were nearly white from an admixture of Democratic blood; when you bred children for the auction block, and rioted in all the horrid barbarism of chattel-slavery, and would do the same again if you had the power. A sweet old "warrior for the weak" is your kind of Democrat. — San Jose Mercury.

A good woman is not thoroughly known before marriage. Of how many domestic virtues may she not be possessed, of which even he who values her most highly, is unaware until he has placed her in his own mansion to be the guardian angel of his household happiness.

During a recent slander case there was a large number of ladies present, who caused a gentle murmuring all the while. The usher called out repeatedly, "Silence!" when the judge mildly said: "Mr. Usher, don't you know better than to call silence when ladies are in the court!"

"Sir," said an indignant husband to a restless friend, "you have abused my hospitality, you have kicked me down stairs, and you have kissed my wife before my face. Beware sir! A few more such outrages, and by Jove you'll rouse the lion!"

An old coquette, looking into a glass and seeing her wrinkles, cried, "This new glass is not worth a farthing. They cannot make mirrors as well as they used to do."

It is extraordinary how many defects we can discern in a person after we have quarreled with him. The same remark applies to a woman after she has rejected us.

No lady will be admitted to the next "Female Suffrage" Convention in this city who does not "shave and wig bass." The officers are expected to wear moustaches.

A lady advertising for a husband, is very particular to have it understood that "none need apply who are under six feet." That female is strongly in favor of hy-men.

Bachelors are not entirely lost to the refinement of sentiment, for the following toast was given by one of them at a celebration: "The ladies—sweet briars in the garden of life."

DR. J. H. JOSSELYN
STILL CONTINUES TO TREAT
the afflicted with his valuable and never failing remedies at the ELECTROPATHIC INSTITUTE,
645 WASHINGTON STREET.
It is seven years, up to February 12th, 1867, since the Institute was established. The Directors challenge the world to show a more successful medical triumph. There has been over TWENTY-FIVE THOUSAND consultations and nearly TWENTY THOUSAND contracts made, with only seven failures to cure; (in those cases the fee was returned.) A large number of cases prescribed for, which, from the nature of the disease, could only be temporarily relieved.
The Doctor makes it his study to help suffering humanity without regard to the amount of money the patient may be able to pay. His remedies are mild and gentle in their action. They are entirely free from all mineral poisons, or any substance that can possibly injure the most delicate system. The Doctor's mode of practice is the REFORMED or ELECTROPATHIC system, by which one-half of the diseases in the catalogue can be cured without medicines.
In all cases he warrants a cure or asks no pay for his services. It has been too common with persons calling themselves Physicians to treat their poor victims until their funds were exhausted, and then turn them away, half cured, to die by the wayside or become a burden to (in those cases the fee was returned.) A large number of cases prescribed for, which, from the nature of the disease, could only be temporarily relieved.
To those afflicted with unmentionable complaints, the Doctor would say that he can cure the worst possible case in a very short time, without the persons afflicted being exposed to their most intimate friends.
To those whose constitutions have been injured by youthful excesses, the Doctor offers a positive and speedy return of health and manly vigor. To the Rheumatic, almost instantaneous cure.
To Females,
Either sick or in trouble, the Doctor wishes to say that he is thoroughly conversant with their delicate and sympathetic systems, the disease and troubles incident thereto, and can assure them a perfect cure, or relief, as the case may require. His FEMALE MONTHLY medicines are unsurpassed by any other known. They are pleasant to the taste, and will be warranted safe and sure. (The utmost secrecy observed.)
All you that are afflicted, Male and Female, no matter what the case may be, I will give you relief or a cure, or ask nothing for my troubles. Persons residing at a distance whose business or domestic affairs prevent their visiting the city, or those who feel a delicacy in personal consultation, can correspond with the Doctor, and have advice or remedies sent, which will be warranted to effect the result required, and the letters will be destroyed. In writing, care should be taken to describe symptoms correctly. *State how long the disease or trouble has been running, together with sex and age.
Always address thus: J. H. JOSSELYN, M. D., San Francisco, Cal. Box 1945; or, if sent by Express, 645 Washington St., instead of the number of the box.
Advice by letter or otherwise gratis.

AN ORIGINAL POEM.
BY THE MAN WHO WROTE IT.
Some write for fun, and some for fame,
And some to make a splutter;
But we, like all true poets, claim
To write for bread and butter.
Thus you see our very laudable object of doing good to ourselves, if we cannot do good to anybody else.
We only wish to have it known,
That all our goods must sell,
And then the people all will come—
— You bet they will.
Thus giving us a fine opportunity of making money.
We've fancy Soaps and good Colognes,
And Hair Oils by the dozen—
An endless lot of good Perfumes,
Put up by old H. Bazin.
Thus giving all the young folks an opportunity of becoming "sweet-scented."
We have Restorers for the Hair,
Much better than your dye;
We've preparations for the Ear,
And lotions for the Eye.
Thus giving old maids and crusty bachelors an opportunity of being up for the matrimonial market.
We've Drugs and Books; we've Oils and Paints,
And trinkets of all kinds;
We've Nostrums good for all complaints,
And sell to suit the times.
Thus giving old and young an opportunity for speculation.
Now, all who have the ready cash
Can call around to-morrow,
For they can find just what they want
Much cheaper than to borrow.
And will thus give the City Drug Store fellow a fine opportunity to display their extensive stock of NEW GOODS to much better advantage than they could possibly do on paper. They will say, however, that they have a fine assortment of
