

JOHN BILLINGS ON PERINOLGY.
"Prof. John Billings" lately manipulated the bumps of that distinguished citizen, Mr. Mark Milbury, Esq., in his "office," and the following is the truthful result:

Amativeness—Big, sticks out like a hornet's nest. You ought to be able to lay the hole human familie tu onct, with yure bump. You will never be a widower long. Not enny.

Pollytik—You hev got the natrual way. A splendif bump! It feels like a dimmokrafk bump, tu. Menny a man has got to be konstible with hall yure bumps.

Kombatfiness—Sleightually, very much. You mite fite a woman, but it'd be a tuff rub. I should like tu bet on the woman. This origin wants poultisin.

Vittels—Bi thunder! what a bump! I'd think yu kood etc a boss and cart, had chase the driver tu or 3 miles without enny praktis. Thunder and lightning! what a bump! what a bump! Let Barnum get his hand on this bump and yure fortin iz made. What a bump! What a bump!

Musik—A sweet, pretty bump, about the size ev a Lima bene. If I had this bump, I wud bi me a juse harp, and wandir among the rocky mountains. Pon mi wurd, mistur Milbury, mi advis is, nuss this bump.

Greenbacks—Will devellup. A gorgis bump! A fortin tu enny man. Yu kant possibl hev but di ritch, if this bump don't go back on yu. Gorgis bump! Happe man? Di when yu feel like it; deth won't hev enny sorrows for yure relashuns that this bump won't heel.

ADVICE TO WIVES—Extract from Madame Maintenon's advice to the Duchess of Burgundy, in relation to the married state:

"Do not hope for perfect happiness; there is no such thing in the sublunary state.

Your sex is more exposed to suffer, because it is always in dependence. Be neither angry nor ashamed of this dependence on a husband, nor any of those in order of Providence.

Let your husband be your best friend, and only confidant. Do not hope that your union will procure your perfect peace. The best marriages are unhappy.

Do not expect the same degree of friendship that you feel. Men are generally less tender than women; and you will be unhappy if you are too delicate in friendship.

Beg of God to guard you from jealousy. Do not hope to bring back a husband by complaints, ill-humor and reproaches. The only means which promise success are patience and softness; impatience sours and alienates the heart; softness leads them back to their duty.

Those are most happy where, with softness and patience, they bear by turns with each other. There are none without some contradiction and disagreement."

KIND WORDS FOR A MOTHER.—Despise not thy mother when she is old. Age may waste a mother's beauty, strength, limbs, senses, and estate; but her relation as a mother is as the sun when it goes forth in its might, for it is always the meridian, and knoweth no evening. The person may be gray-haired, but her motherly relation is ever in the flourish. It may be autumn, yea winter with a woman, but with a mother it is always spring. Alas, how little do we appreciate a mother's tenderness while living! How heedless we are of all her anxieties and kindness! But when she is dead and gone, when the cares and coldness of the world come withering to our hearts, when we experience how hard it is to find true sympathy—how few will befriend us in misfortune—then it is that we think of the mother we have lost.

A MAN recently broke off a marriage because the lady did not possess good conversational powers. A cynical editor, in commenting on the fact, says: "He should have married her, and then refused her a new bonnet, to have developed her power of talk."

DR. J. H. JOSSELYN
STILL CONTINUES TO TREAT the afflicted with his valuable and never failing remedies at the

ELECTROPATHIC INSTITUTE,
645 WASHINGTON STREET.
It is seven years, up to February 12th, 1867, since the Institute was established. The Directors challenge the world to show a more successful medical institution. There has been over TWENTY-FIVE THOUSAND consultations and nearly TWENTY THOUSAND contracts made, with only eleven failures to cure; (in those cases the fee was returned.) A large number of cures prescribed for, which, from the nature of the disease, could only be temporarily relieved.

The Doctor makes it his study to help suffering humanity without regard to the amount of money the patient may be able to pay. His remedies are mild and gentle in their action. They are entirely free from all mineral poisons, or any substance that can possibly injure the most delicate system. The Doctor's mode of practice is the REFORMED or ELECTROPATHIC system, by which one-half of the diseases in the catalogue can be cured without medicines.

In all cases he warrants a cure or asks no pay for his services. It has been too common with persons calling themselves Physicians to treat their poor victims until their funds were exhausted, and then turn them away, half cured, to die by the wayside or become a burden to the public while he lingers out a life of suffering and misery.

To those afflicted with unmentionable complaints, the Doctor would say that he can cure the worst possible case in a very short time, without the persons afflicted being exposed to their most intimate friends.

To those whose constitutions have been injured by youthful excesses, the Doctor offers a positive and speedy return of health and manly vigor. To the Rheumatic, almost instantaneous cure.

To Females,
Either sick or in trouble, the Doctor wishes to say that he is thoroughly conversant with their delicate and sympathetic systems, the disease and troubles incident thereto, and can assure them a perfect cure, or relief, as the case may require.

THE FEMALE MONTHLY medicines are unsurpassed by any other known. They are pleasant to the taste, and will be warranted safe and sure. [The utmost secrecy observed.]

All you that are afflicted, Male and Female, no matter what the case may be. I will give you relief or a cure, or ask nothing for my troubles. Persons residing at a distance whose business or domestic affairs prevents their visiting the city, or those who feel a delicacy in personal consultation, can correspond with the Doctor, and have advice or remedies sent, which will be warranted to effect the result required, and the letters will be destroyed. In writing, care should be taken to describe symptoms correctly. State how long the disease or trouble has been running, together with sex and age.

Always address thus: J. H. JOSSELYN, M. D., San Francisco, Cal., Box 1943; or, if sent by Express, 645 Washington St., instead of the number of the box.

Advice by letter or otherwise gratis. Office hours from 9 A. M. to 9 P. M. J. H. JOSSELYN, M. D., Resident Physician Electropathic Institute. [dec14-1y]

STOP THAT THIEF
It is stealing from you your health, which is dearer to you than all your wealth. Nine-tenths of the diseases prevalent in this climate spring from Colds and Coughs.

Henley's ROYAL BALSAM
Challenges the World

To produce anything in the shape of Medicines that will remove and eradicate a Cough or soreness in the Chest, as prompt, no matter what form the disease might assume. "Henley's Royal Balsam" is the best Medicine in the world for Bronchial or Pulmonary affections. For Croup or Hooping Cough, there is nothing on earth that can equal it. All mother's and nurses ought to have a bottle close by them—it will give a child relief in two minutes. It is entirely vegetable, and will prove a blessing to the human family.

For the Benefit of Suffering Humanity.
FROM MR. THOMAS.—We have used Henley's Royal Balsam in my family this winter. There is no use in talking; it throws everything in the shape of Cough Medicine in the shade that I ever saw. My wife was troubled with asthma or smothering spells for years, and could get nothing to have any effect until I struck this "Royal Balsam." She is now about well. It cured me of the worst cold I ever had in my life in eight days. Whenever our children have anything like a cough, a few drops given on going to bed, that is the last of the cough. I never intend to be without it in the house.
R. THOMAS, the paper man.

From Judge Marquam.
I have used "Henley's Royal Balsam" myself and in my family, and find it a first-rate medicine for Coughs and Colds. I hereby recommend it to the public.
F. A. MARQUAM.

From Mr. Pittock.
We have used some of "Henley's Royal Balsam" in my family, and think it is a splendid medicine for children, as well as for grown persons. For Coughs and Colds, I freely recommend it to the public.
R. PITTOCK.

From F. DEWITT, Merchant.
To the Public.—I had a bad cough for a long time. A friend urged me to get a bottle of "Henley's Royal Balsam." He said it cured him. I got a bottle, and sure enough it had a splendid effect. It dried the cough up in a short time. I hereby recommend it to the public.
