

SATURDAY MORNING, April 4, 1888.

LAST SUMMER'S FRIENDS.—On Saturday last, while engaged about the office, we heard a familiar cheery sound, and looking out, found that the little house-martin, that were with us last summer, had come again. We know they were the same little fellows; for they skinned and twittered about their last year's haunts, and seemed glad that their little clay habitations had not been usurped by any others of the feathery tribe. Who can tell where the little fellows have been so long? Who can say what islands, in some summer sea, they have visited, where among their bright plumaged kindred, they might have forgotten their friends in the North. They cannot tell us themselves, they can only tell us with their joyous little voices, that they have come again to show us by their skill and patience, in rebuilding their little houses, that, big as this great world is, it is made up of trifles.

DRAMATIC.—We learn that the Jacksonville Amateur Minstrels have been reorganized under the efficient management of Johnny Graham, and will give an entertainment to the citizens of this place on Friday evening next, on which occasion Mr. Graham will take a benefit. The well known ability of Graham will insure a good programme, and one too that will be certain to please. His talent is of that peculiar character that the audience is pleased without noticing the immediate cause. He goes on the stage with confidence, and does his acts with promptness, thus not allowing a feeling of weariness to come over his hearers. There will be a dance after the performance.

RETURNED.—Mr. J. J. Comstock, who cast the whole vote of Jackson and Josephine counties in the Union Convention, has returned. He reports that the greatest enthusiasm prevails among Union men in other parts of the State, and the election of Mr. Logan is counted on as certain. It is untrue that any difficulty existed in procuring Congressional candidates—there were three who were very anxious to take the chances. We believe that Mr. Comstock is the only gentleman who has ever been honored with every proxy from two counties, and there is general satisfaction expressed with his discharge of the trust.

A PUBLIC DONATION.—Visit will be paid to Rev. G. W. Rook, at the Parsonage, on Wednesday evening, April 4th. Visitors are expected to contribute any such articles, useful in a household, as they may see fit. A collection will also be taken at the house. All persons who are friendly to the church, whether members or not, old and young, of both sexes, are invited.

WILL SOON LEAVE.—Traver, the enterprising Book Agent, is soon to leave for Portland on business. He has appointed Walter E. Patton, Agent in this county, to canvass for Handy's work on the Navy, and Woman's Work in the Civil War by Mrs. Vaughn. He will finish Mr. Traver's subscribers for these works according to contract.

THOSE WHO OVER-TAX THE VOICE in singing or Public Speaking will find "Brown's Bronchial Troches" exceedingly useful, enabling them to endure more than ordinary exertion with comparative ease, while they render articulation clear. For Throat Diseases and Coughs the Troches are of service.

FIRE ALARM.—Tuesday, about one o'clock, the Union Hotel caught fire from one of the stove-pipes, and caused quite an alarm for a few minutes; but, by the energy of the citizens, it was soon extinguished.

ANOTHER FIRE.—Thursday morning last our office caught fire on the roof from the stove-pipe, but a bucket of water timely applied, saved the building. A new arrangement for the stove-flue will be put up to prevent the like again.

BELLIGHERY.—T. Beall and Haskel Any had some high words in town on Saturday last, and even came to blows. The cause of the difference, as we learned, was about school matters in their district.

BUTTER CREEK.—We learn that the grazing on Butter Creek is good now. Cows are gaining rapidly, and the dairies are beginning to make butter and cheese in quantities.

GRAIN PROSPECTS.—The certainty of having an abundant harvest this summer is more flattering than it has been at any previous time at this season of the year.

POLITICAL SPEAKING.—The candidates for Congress will address the people of Jackson county in Jacksonville, on Monday, May 18th.

FOR SAN FRANCISCO.—Mr. Max Muller, of the firm of Muller & Brentano, left this week for the Bay City, to purchase a stock of goods.

Resolved. That it is the highest duty of every American citizen to maintain against all their enemies the obligations of the Constitution, and the integrity of the Union under it.—Democratic Platform.

Well, blast such infernal impudence! We would like to know how many dirty rebels, stinking with the slime of the "last ditch," endorsed the above in the Democratic Convention?

ST. MARY'S ACADEMY.—The fourth quarter at the Sisters' School commences on Monday, April 6th inst.

BORN.

March 30th, to the wife of Francis Plymale, a daughter.

DIED.

NEW ADVERTISEMENTS.

Stockholder's Meeting.

THE ANNUAL MEETING OF THE STOCKHOLDERS OF THE ROGUE RIVER VALLEY WOOL MANUFACTURING COMPANY will be held at Ashland, on Tuesday, the 28th day of April, 1888, for the purpose of electing a Board of Directors for the ensuing year, and taking into consideration the propriety of increasing the capital stock of the Company, and the transaction of such other business as may come before them.

C. K. Klem, Secretary.

The Celebrated Horse, CAPT. SLIGART

WILL STAND AT THE LIVERY STABLE of Comstock & Cawley, in Jacksonville, on Tuesday and Wednesday, and at the ranch of the subscriber, near Ashland Mills, Jackson County, Oregon, on Friday and Saturday, the ensuing season, commencing April 7th, and ending July 1st, 1888.

PEDIGREE:

His sire was a large, beautiful "Sir Thomas Hunter," a fine well bred, turf horse, known as "Woodward's Sir Thomas," by the Diamond, Jr., and he by Imported Diamond. His dam was a well bred "Farmer's Delight," and in the county has ever stood unrivaled as a Roadster and mare for general purposes.

CAPT. SLIGART is a half brother of Capt. Fisher, now owned in California. No stallion of his size has equalled his time as a trotter. He is also a half brother to Moll-Brook, of Cincinnati, Ohio, who has shown a gall that stands unrivaled in the annals of trotting time; also a half brother to the celebrated Lady Lightfoot of Chicago, Polly White of San Francisco, and Wild Bill, of Buffalo. I learn that another half brother called Capt. Fairfield, was awarded the First Premium at the State Fair in Ohio, and was spoken of in their report as the best horse for general use. (See report now in my possession.)

Hence it is plain to be seen, that he is of a family of the best stock of horses for speed and style in Great Britain. His color, when grown, is large, well formed, with good action, and the style, and bring the highest price for the Eastern market.

TERMS:—$25 the season, in U. S. coin. P. O. address, Ashland Mills, Ore.

Christianna Staderoth, Plaintiff, vs. Henry Staderoth, Defendant.

Suit in Equity for Divorce.

To Henry Staderoth: You are required to appear in said court, and answer the complaint of said plaintiff, filed against you, within ten days from the time of the service of this summons on you, if served within said county, or if served on you within any other county in this State, then within twenty days from the time of the service; or if served on you out of the State of Oregon, then it is ordered by the court that publication be made for six weeks in the OREGON SENTINEL, prior to the second Monday in June, A. D. 1888.

And you are notified that, if you fail to answer said complaint as above required, the plaintiff will apply to the court for the relief demanded therein, to wit: for a dissolution of the bonds of matrimony, and the costs and disbursements of this suit to be taxed. A Case.

On Monday night last, some scoundrels broke into the Catholic Church of Allen Gulch, Josephine county, and took away about twenty-three articles belonging to the altar, viz: pictures, candle-sticks, altar-clothes, etc., all amounting to one hundred dollars. After this operation, the scamps deliberately broke the Tabernacle open, and carried away a fine silver case containing the sacred particles of the holy sacrament. In order that justice be done for such a profanation, I, the undersigned, Parish Priest, do promise one hundred dollars reward to any man who may procure the arrest of the culprit. EDW. F. BLANCHET.

AN ORIGINAL POEM.

BY THE MAN WHO WROTE IT.
Some write for fun, and some for fame,
And some to make a splutter;
But we, like all true poets, claim
To write for bread and butter.
Thus you see our very laudable object of doing good to ourselves, if we cannot do good to anybody else.

We only wish to have it known,
That all our goods must sell,
And then the people all will come—
You bet they will.
Thus giving us a fine opportunity of making money.

We've fancy Soaps and good Colognes,
And Hair Oils by the dozen—
An endless lot of good Perfumes,
Put up by old H. Bazin.
Thus giving all the young folks an opportunity of becoming "sweet-scented."

We have Restorers for the Hair,
Much better than your dye;
We've preparations for the Ear,
And lotions for the Eye.
Thus giving old maids and crusty bachelors an opportunity of fixing up for the matrimonial market.

We've Drugs and Books; we've Oils and Paints,
And trinkets of all kinds;
We've Nostrums good for all complaints,
And sell to suit the times.
Thus giving old and young an opportunity for speculation.

Now, all who have the ready cash
Can call around to-morrow,
For they can find just what they want
Much cheaper than to borrow.
And will thus give the City Drug Store fellows a fine opportunity to display their extensive stock of NEW GOODS to much better advantage than they could possibly do on paper. They will say, however, that they have a fine assortment of

PHOTOGRAPH ALBUMS,
from $2.25 to $4.50—for 50 pictures.
Gold pens,
Ink Stands, Rules,
Fancy Penholders,
Paper weights,
Letter Clips,
Bored Clips,
Ink Erasers,
Paper Splitters,
Sealing Wax,

of every description, Red, Blue, Black and Copying Inks, Chalk Lines, Fishing Tackle, Violin Strings, Tail boards and Rosin, School Books of every variety at reduced prices, Copy Books in variety, Slate, Parlor Games, and a thousand other things in this line, that can be seen by calling at the City Drug Store.
Among the staple articles may be found
Pepper, Allspice,
Nutmegs, Mace, Cloves,
Cinnamon, Cassia Buds,
Ginger, Mustard,
Cream of Tartar,
Saleratus,
Bread preparation
(something new) Extracts of Lemon, Vanilla, Cloves, Orange, Celery, etc.

PEARL BARLEY, BUCKING IN HALL, PLASTER PARIS AND COAL OIL.
We would call on our friends to give us a call. If we can't sell them anything, we will take great pleasure in showing them something new.
