Union State Convention.

Convention was called to order by Hon. Joseph N. Dolph, Chairman of the Union State Central Committee.

On motion, Thomas J. Dryer was chosen temporary Chairman, and B. Whitten, of Grant county, Secretary. Judge Willis, of Douglas, was also chosen Assistant Secretary.

Col. Curry moved that a committee of one from each Judicial District be appointed on credentials. Motion carried and the following were appointed: Palmer of Yamhill, Baker of Union, Fullerton of Douglas, Buck of Clackamas, and Comstock of Jackson.

Hogue, of Wasco, moved that a like committee be appointed on permanent organization and order of business. Motion prevailed, and the following were named by the chairman: Hogue, Stitzel, Cartwright, Underwood and Comstock.

Hogue moved that a Sergent-at-arms be chosen, whereupon Wiley Chapman was put in nomination and elected.

The chairman read a communication from Major M. P. Berry, inviting the members to visit the State Penitentiary before final adjournment of the convention.

Stitzel, of Multnomah, presented the cause of the Irish Republic newspaper, and requested members to use every exertion to extend its circulation.

Committees on credentials, and on permanent organization and order of business, retired.

Baker of Union, and Meacham, of Umatilla, addressed the convention in a few appropriate remarks.

On motion, reporters for the press were invited within the bar.

Vociferous calls for Meacham brought that gentleman forward again, when he delivered one of the most eloquent of speeches, which brought down the house with applause. Messrs. Baker, of Union, Mitchell of Multnomah, George of Polk, Allen of Marion, Gibbs of Multnomah, and others responded briefly to calls from the delegates and audience in very animating and appropriate remarks.

The committee on credentials being announced, the following report was presented:

Your committee to whom was referred the examination of credentials, have performed the duty assigned them, and beg leave to state that we find the following named gentleman entitled to seats on this floor as delegates from the various counties:

Baker—W. F. McCrary, J. H. Marshall (McCrary, proxy), J. M. Boyd (Merary proxy).

HON. THADEUS STEVENS.—The news of the dangerous illness of this noble old Apostle of human freedom is everywhere received with sorrow. His life has been characterized by that untiring energy, steadfast integrity and indomitable perseverance in the line of duty which in all ages has won their possessor the respect of both friend and foe. But few men have lived so long in public life and adhered with such undeviating and incorruptible devotion to conviction of right as has the brave and hoary Commoner of Pennsylvania who now, like the ancient pine swaying before the irresistable blast of the hurricane, is bending earthward under the fierce unsparing simoom of death.—Unionist.

"Miss Smith, I wish to speak to you in private. Permit me to take you apart for a few moments."

Miss Smith (who wasn't at all frightened): "Certainly, sir, if you'll promise to put me together again.

DR. J. H. JOSSELYN

STILL CONTINUES TO TREAT the afflicted with his valuable and never failing remedies at the

ELECTROPATHIC INSTITUTE,

645 WASHINGTON STREET.

It is seven years, up to February 12th, 1867, since the Institute was established. The Directors challenge the world to show a more successful medical triumph. There has been over TWENTY-FIVE THOUSAND consultations and nearly TWENTY THOUSAND contracts made, with only eleven failures to cure; (in those cases the fee was returned.) A large number of cases prescribed for, which, from the nature of the disease, could only be temporarily relieved.

The Doctor makes it his study to help suffering humanity without regard to the amount of money the patient may be able to pay. His remedies are mild and gentle in their action. They are entirely free from all mineral poisons, or any substance that can possibly injure the most delicate system. The Doctor's mode of practice is the REFORMED or ELECTROPATHIC system, by which one-half of the diseases in the catalogue can be cured without medicines.

In all cases he warrants a cure or asks no pay for his services. It has been too common with persons calling themselves Physicians to treat their poor victims until their funds were exhausted, and then turn them away, half cured, to die by the wayside or become a burden to the public while he lingers out a life of suffering and misery.

To those afflicted with unmentionable complaints, the Doctor would say that he can cure the worst possible case in a very short time, without the persons afflicted being exposed to their most intimate friends.

To those whose constitutions have been injured by youthful excesses, the Doctor offers a positive and speedy return of health and manly vigor. To the Rheumatic, almost instantaneous cure.

To Females,

Either sick or in trouble, the Doctor wishes to say that he is thoroughly conversant with their delicate and sympathetic systems, the disease and troubles incident thereto, and can assure them a perfect cure, or relief, as the case may require. His FEMALE MONTHLY medicines are unsurpassed by any other known. They are pleasant to the taste, and will be warranted safe and sure. [The utmost secrecy observed.]

All you that are afflicted, Male and Female, no matter what the case may be, I will give you relief or a cure, or ask nothing for my troubles. Persons residing at a distance whose business or domestic affairs prevents their visiting the city, or those who feel a delicacy in personal consultation, can correspond with the Doctor, and have advice or remedies sent, which will be warranted to effect the result required, and the letters will be destroyed. In writing, care should be taken to describe symptoms correctly. State how long the disease or trouble has been running, together with sex and age.

Always address thus: J. H. JOSSELYN, M. D., San Francisco, Cal., Box 1943; or, if sent by Express, 645 Washington St., instead of the number of the box.

Advice by letter or otherwise gratis.

STOP THAT THIEF

Of a Cough!

It is stealing from you your health, which is dearer to you than all your wealth. Nine-tenths of the diseases prevalent in this climate spring from Colds and Coughs.

Henley's

ROYAL BALSAM

Challenges the World

To produce anything in the shape of Medicines that will remove and eradicate a Cough or soreness in the Chest, as prompt, no matter what form the disease might assume. "Henley's Royal Balsam" is the best Medicine in the world for Bronchial or Pulmonary affections. For Croup or Hooping Cough, there is nothing on earth that can equal it. All mother's and nurses ought to have a bottle close by them—it will give a child relief in two minutes. It is entirely vegetable, and will prove a blessing to the human family.

For the Benefit of Suffering Humanity.

FROM MR. THOMAS.—We have used Henley's Royal Balsam in my family this winter. There is no use in talking; it throws everything in the shape of Cough Medicine in the shade that I ever saw. My wife was troubled with asthma or smothering spells for years, and could get nothing to have any effect until I struck this "Royal Balsam." She is now about well. It cured me of the worst cold I ever had in my life in night. Whenever our children have anything like a cough, a few drops given on going to bed, that is the last of the cough. I never intend to be without it in the house.

D. THOMAS, the paper man.

From Judge Marquam.

I have used "Henley's Royal Balsam," myself and in my family, and find it a first-rate medicine for Coughs and Colds. I hereby recommend it to the public.

P. A. MARQUAM.

From Mr. Pittock.

We have used some of "Henley's Royal Balsam" in my family, and think it is a splendid medicine for children, as well as for grown persons. For Coughs and Colds I freely recommend it to the public.

P. PITTOCK.

From F. DEWITT, Merchant.

To the Public.—I had a bad cough for a long time. A friend urged me to get a bottle of "Henley's Royal Balsam." He said it cured him. I got a bottle, and sure enough it had a splendid effect. It dried the cough up in a short time. I hereby recommend it to the public.

PACIFIC

BUSINESS

COLLEGE,

MECHANICS' INSTITUTE,

POST STREET,

Between Montgomery & Kearny,

SAN FRANCISCO.

The importance of a thorough and practical business training for those who contemplate entering the mercantile profession, is too well known to require much comment. Without such knowledge, the young merchant will become involved in many embarrassments which might otherwise be avoided. The youthful aspirant will find himself surrounded by inextricable difficulties, both in seeking a situation, and in the discharge of its duties after employment is obtained. To have received instruction at a mercantile college, endorsed by the leading merchants of the city, is more effective in winning the favor and confidence of a business firm, than all the letters of introduction which friends can give. The maintains a reputation for thoroughness and systematic training, far surpassing that of any other similar institution on the Pacific coast. Most of the leading merchants of this city have employed graduates from this College, and bear testimony to the practical efficiency of the course here prescribed. The system of actual practice embraces all the varied operations of real business. A LADIES' DEPARTMENT has lately been added to this popular institute. This spirit of enterprise cannot fail to draw forth the well-wishes of the public.

PACIFIC BUSINESS COLLEGE

Address for all information,

A CARD.

We, the undersigned, merchants and business men of San Francisco, California, are at the present time, employing men who have completed the prescribed course of study at the Pacific Business College, and we take pleasure in stating that we have found them well posted in account-ship and the general principles of business, showing conclusively that they been subject to a thorough drill in those important matters, by experienced and competent instructors.

We cheerfully recommend the College as being in our opinion, an institution of intrinsic merit, and well worthy of the confidence and support of the community.
